"SLOW AND EASY."—We think it well to say, that the interesting standing paragraph of the Gazette, about the Slow and Easy Mail, was omitted on Saturday,—doubtless through inadvertence.

THE MAILS.—We take pleasure in extracting the following from the Philadelphia U. S. Gazette. Testimony, from such a channel as this, will have more weight with a discerning public, than all the malicious denunciations that so freely flow through the "common sewers" of the opposition, against the Post office Department, and its energetic head.

It is worthy of observation that the size and weight of the mails are now, probably, double what they were in 1819, and that this increased speed, has been gained under such continually increasing disadvantages.

THE POST OFFICE.

Mr Editor—We have heard for some time past, continual and clamorous complaints about the tardiness and irregularity of the mails. Having been actively engaged in the internal trade of the country for fourteen years I am enabled by reference to my letters to furnish the following statement; shewing the improvements made in this department during that time. I have received more than $3,000,000 in bank notes, checks and drafts since 1819, and have never lost a dollar or a letter by miscarriage.

A MERCHANT.

Our County Court adjourned yesterday evening, between five and six o'clock, after a session of eleven days. The session was prolonged some hours in the expectation that one or two witnesses, on the part of the State, would arrive from Baltimore in the steamboat that evening, their testimony having been deemed indispensable in the cause pending between the State and two individuals charged with, and presented for, passing counterfeit money on the Commercial and Farmers' Bank of Baltimore. Neither of them, however, appeared, notwithstanding the Court had duly issued its mandate, which, it is presumed, must have been as duly served. The consequence is, the accused are reduced to the hard necessity of enduring the miseries of incarceration six months longer before they can be brought to trial than they would have been; or, what is the same thing, of giving bail which, though not excessive, it is believed they cannot produce; and our county is saddled with the consequent expense.

At the above session of the Court six persons were sentenced to the Penitentiary—all for larceny, we believe.—Cambridge Chron.

"THE CHOLERA.—This travelling pestilence, which has heretofore appeared under a favorable aspect in this portion of the country, has all at once assumed a character of extraordinary malignity. As it was nearly stationary during the winter, we thought that the salubrity of our situation would preserve us, and that it could not find any aliment on which to feed in an atmosphere so pure as ours;—but within the last three weeks it appears to have extended its exterminating influence, and we have already to deplore the loss of several respectable inhabitants of our parish, as also a great number of slaves.—New Orleans Cour

M. AUDUBON.—The Boston Daily Advertiser states that this justly celebrated Ornithologist has recently left Boston with a view of preparing for an excursion to the North. It is his intention to proceed during the summer to the vicinity of Hudson's Bay, in order to pursue his ornithological researches, and in particular, to ascertain the habits of the birds, which retreat thither at that season, from the climate of the South. Besides the subscription of the State of Massachusetts, he has received those of Harvard College, the Boston Athenæum the Society for the advancement of the knowledge of Natural History, and several spirited individuals of Boston, to his great work. The whole number of his subscribers in Massachusetts is sixteen.

On Saturday, the 6th instant, Don JOSE MARIA MONTOYA, late Charge d'Affaires of the United Mexican States near this Government, who has been called to other duties in the service of his country, delivered his letters of recall, and took leave of the President and Secretary of State; and on Thursday the 11th instant, Don AUGUSTINE YTURBIDE delivered to the Secretary of State his credentials as the succesor of Don J. M. Montoya, and was received by this government, as the Charge d'Affaires of the United Mexican States.—Globe
