

POETRY.

The following beautiful lines, written upon perusing the 60th chapter of Isaiah, we do not remember to have met with before, though written by a lady whose effusions we are all ways pleased and instructed in perusing.—There is poetry as well as piety in these lines, that commends them to every reader.—Maryland Republican.

ISAIAH 60th ch. 1 v.

Build ye for whom? our God divine In costly temples—dwells he there? A better altar—purer shrine—A humble heart in earnest pray!

Vain pomp, parade and empty show Deth He, the Omnipotent require! Do bosoms thrill with holier glow? Neath splendid dome, or lofty spire?

Can offerings rich, oblations rare Th' approving smiles of Heaven win? Can gems of earth th' passing fair, Remove one stain of actual sin?

Will pealing anthems, songs of praise, And loud response, best please his ear? Ah! dearer sorrow—feeble lays! Sweeter the penitential tear.

For what to him is music's tone? For what earth's brightest coronal? 'His footstool earth—and heaven his throne' What they to Him, who made them all?

Ye blind enthusiasts and weak, Who on your pilgrimage repair, To sainted shrines, the God ye seek, Is omnipresent every where?

Yes, 'e'en in deserts drear and lone, The child of faith may humbly kneel, The lowly pray'r "Thy will be done," Can all his past offences heal.

The gilded palace, homely cot, Alike Jehovah's goodness know, How sweet to think the lowliest lot Claims equal right with pomp and show!

In temples built with human hands, Will he, the Lord of hosts appear? The heart, the altar he demands! His sacrifice the contrite tear.

GERTRUDE.

IDLE WORDS.

"My God!" the beauty oft exclaimed With deep impassioned tone— But not in humble prayer she named The High and Holy One.

'Twas not upon the bended knee, With soul upraised to heaven, Pleading with heartfelt agony, That she might be forgiven.

'Twas not in heavenly strains to raise To the great source of good Her daily offering of praise,— Her song of gratitude.

But in the gay and thoughtless crowd, And in the festive hall, Mid scenes of mirth and mockery loud She named the Lord of All.

She called upon that awful name, When laughter loudest rang,— Or when the flash of triumph came— Or disappointments pang.

The idlest thing that flattery knew, The most unmeaning jest— From those sweet lips profandy drew Names of the Holiest.

I thought how sweet that voice would be, Breathing this prayer to heaven— "O God, I worship only thee; My God, my sins forgiven!"

Easton and Baltimore Packet. THE subscriber, grateful for the numerous and continued favours of a generous public, begs leave to inform them, generally, and his friends and customers in particular, that his being now in complete order, will commence her regular trips between Easton and Baltimore on WEDNESDAY NEXT, 15th inst. leaving Easton Point, at 9 o'clock in the morning. Returning she will leave Baltimore on the following SATURDAY, at the same hour, and will continue sailing on the above days, regularly, throughout the season.

Strict attention will, as heretofore, be given to all orders. Freight intended for this packet, will be at all times received at the subscriber's granary at Easton Point. Passengers can be comfortably accommodated.

The public's obedient servant, SAMUEL H. BENNY. N. B. The death of Capt. Thos P. Town send, who was so advantageously known as packet master for the last two years, has made it necessary to appoint another for this schooner. The selection I have made, it is hoped will give perfect satisfaction to the numerous patrons of this line. In the ability and integrity of Mr. Parrott, I have the most unqualified confidence, and I think it will only be necessary for my friends to continue their liberal support, to enable Captain Parrott to prove this confidence is not misplaced. DEPARTMENT OF STATE, March 20th, 1833.

MARYLAND ECLIPSE.

The thorough bred horse Maryland Eclipse, will be at the stands of mares this spring, at the Centreville and Easton, at the sum of twenty dollars the season, fifteen dollars the single leap, twenty five dollars to insure with food, and fifty cents to the groom. The single leap, payable before the mare goes to the horse, the season at its close, and the insurance as soon as it is ascertained the mare is in foal. If the mare be sold, the person putting her to the horse will be held liable for the amount of insurance. The season will commence on the first day of April next at Centreville, where the horse will remain during the week, and on Monday following at Easton, and remain there also a week, and then alternate at Centreville and Easton, a week at each place during the season, which will close on the first of July.

ECLIPSE is a dark chestnut sorrel, near 16 hands high, nine years old this Spring, and possesses great strength and beauty; his coits are remarkably large and fine, and those upon the turf give evidence of great speed, as yet however, few have been trained, the oldest of his coits, being only three years old last season. One of his coits bred by the proprietor and sold to a gentleman in N. York, was trained and tried last season, and proved to be a successful racer, running her mile in one minute and fifty one seconds, both heats, and beating four others, with great ease. Eclipse was trained for the first time, and ran in the Spring of 1830, (being the two preceding years on the stand as a Stallion) in the State of New Jersey, a mile and repeat, and won with great ease, beating three other horses; he was afterwards carried to Poughkeepsie, and entered against the celebrated race horse Sir Lovel, and although beaten, yet it is said, this race was run in as short, if not a shorter time, with the same weight, than was ever run in the United States, the first heat was run in 3 minutes 37 seconds, and the second heat in 3 minutes 46 seconds, two miles and repeat—Sir Lovel after this race, was taken to New York, and matched against Mr. Johnson's celebrated race mare Arietta, (which had a short time before beaten Ariel two miles, in a match for 50000) Sir Lovel distanced Arietta the second heat in 3 minutes 48 seconds, thereby proving that Eclipse was a better racer than Arietta. After the race at Poughkeepsie, Eclipse was turned out and trained in the fall following, and gave greater promise of speed, than on his first trial, but in his exercises received an injury in one of his sinews, and was withdrawn from the turf without further trial. Subjoined is the Certificate of the gentleman who trained him, and voluntarily tendered: Coll's Neck, New Jersey, Nov. 30, 1830.

I certify that for the last thirty years and upwards, I have been in the yearly practice of training race horses, and have had in my possession, some of the reputed best horses in the country; for the last year I have had Maryland Eclipse, with others under training for any distance I have tried him, which was never more than two miles, he is the fastest horse I have ever trained. (Signed) JOSEPH K. VAN MATER. The original Certificate of his performance at Poughkeepsie (where he ran) from the Secretary of the Club and of Mr. Van Mater, are in the possession of the proprietor, and can be seen upon application.
