

seen the strangers, but hope to learn something interesting concerning their country and shall endeavor to return them to their homes by the earliest opportunity. We are in hopes that this singular event may lead to the opening of some important communications with that interesting Empire.

Mr. CLAY'S BILL.—In relation to the interpretation given to this act, at the Treasury Department, we take the following paragraph from the Baltimore American, in preference to inserting the circular at length. To know the decision of the Secretary of the Treasury, we think is all that our readers would wish, without being subjected to the necessity of following him through the arguments by which he arrives at it.

The Treasury Circular in this morning's paper is an important document. It settles the controversy which has been carried on for some time in the papers, on the proper rule of construction for that part of Mr. Clay's Tariff Bill which relates to the reduction of the duties on cottons subject to minimum valuation under the existing laws.

The point in dispute has been whether the biennial reductions of duty, by tenths of the excess over twenty per cent, are to be calculated on the market value, or on the statutory value by minimums. If on the statutory value, the duty being twenty-five per cent upon the arbitrary value of twenty-five cents the yard affixed to all cottons costing less than that amount, the biennial reductions must be made only on the excess, or five per cent only, leaving at the end of nine years a protection of twenty per cent nominally, but in fact of sixty to eighty per cent ad valorem, on the market value of coarse cottons. The other opinion has been that the minimums are abolished in rating the reduced duties, and the deductions to be made are of the excess over twenty per cent ad valorem.

The Secretary, it appears, has decided in favor of this latter opinion, and directed the biennial tenths to be taken from the excess of the ad valorem duties over twenty per cent, calculated at the market price of the importation.

From the Richmond Compiler.

The races over the Tree Hill Course was more interesting on Saturday than either of the three previous days—six horses of the same age, and by celebrated racers were entered for the purse, viz:

Mr. Hare's Ironette by Contention 1
Mr. Bolds' Rapid by Ratler 4 dis.
Mr. Selden's Whitefoot by John Hancock 5 dis.
Mr. Good's Merry Lass, by Arab. dis.
Mr. Belcher's Quarter Master, by Hotspur 3 2
Mr. Taylor's Multa Flora, by Ratler 2 3
Time 4m. 8 sec.—4m. 2 sec.

In the second heat Mr. Bolds' Rapid took his rider and ran around the Course coming in second best, but not bringing in his weight, he was according to the rules of the course, distanced.

Immediately after the regular race, a match for 200 aside, (single two miles) was made by the owners of Ironette and Rapid. Ironette was the favorite, and two to one were freely offered on her and accepted—she won the heat apparently with ease in 4m. 6 sec.

NEW YORK LEGISLATURE.

Imprisonment for Debt.—The bill to repeal the law abolishing imprisonment for debt, was read a third time in the assembly of New York, on Friday last, and passed, yeas 92; nays 13.

A bill passed through committee of the whole of the senate to prevent persons from doing business under fictitious names; its law not to take effect until six months after its passage. By this bill (says the New York Gazette.) Mr. Co. who is connected with innumerable mercantile houses in the city of New York and other places, will be driven out of business, sans ceremony.

The Winchester Republican states that Col. John B. D. Smith, of Traralock, Mr. Faulkner, of Berkeley, and Mr. Gallagher, of Jefferson have received from Governor Floyd the important and responsible appointment of commissioners to settle the boundary line between Virginia and Maryland.

The Pittsfield Sun announces the appointment of that estimable man and venerated republican, the Rev. JOHN LELAND of Cheshire, Mass., as one of the Board of Visitors of the Military Academy at West Point; and adds that the selection "is a compliment to the democracy of Berkshire—a compliment which will be duly appreciated, and one which was no less deserved than merited."

WONDERFUL INVENTION.—A watchmaker of the name of Buschman, living at Eisenberg, not far from Attenuburg in Saxony, has contrived a piece of machinery, which, without the assistance of steam, has been found strong enough to move a heavily laden wagon, placed in a fresh ploughed field, with the greatest ease, although sixteen horses could not stir it. The machine may be easily handled, and the vehicle moved by it most safely managed. The inventor has been offered 500,000 dollars for the secret, but as he had obtained patents from all the principal German governments, he has refused all offers.

The Vincennes (Indiana) Sun contains an advertisement of a reward of $50 for the apprehension and detention of one ROBERT WHITE, who, on the 2d instant, without any provocation whatever, in the presence of fifteen persons, shot Hugh Johnson, of Sullivan county, thereby depriving a large family of children and a fond wife of father and husband. White is a man of about forty-five years old, six feet high, dark complexion, dark hair, his eyes of a hazel colour, very high cheek bones, his middle finger on one hand stiff and crooked, bold spoken, strong voice, probable weight is about one hundred and sixty-five pounds. The offer of the reward is signed by John Johnson, followed by an additional one of $250 by individual subscription, and $50 by the Governor of Indiana; total $800.

Barberous.—Common candle snuff clear of grit, spread on a Razor Strip, produces the best edge, in the shortest time, of any thing ever tried; so says a New York paper; and they are "up to snuff" in the Empire State.—The coat should be spread with a knife—not too thick—and it will last several months.—There is no "patent" for this discovery; any one may avail himself of it without burning his fingers—provided he use snuffers. Neither Pomeroy nor Emerson, nor any of the snuff-pipers can "hold a candle to it."—Boston Post.
