POETRY.

THE ANGELS' CALL.

"Hark! they whisper! angels say,
"Sister spirit come away."

Come to the land of peace!
Come where the tempest hath no longer sway,
The shadow passes from the soul away,
The sounds of weeping cease!

Fear hath no dwelling there!
Come to the mingling of repose and love,
Breathed by the silent spirit of the dove
Through the celestial air!

Come to the bright and blest,
And crown'd forever!—'midst that shining band,
Gather'd to heaven's own wreath from ev'ry land,
Thy spirit shall find rest!

Thou hast been long alone:
Come to thy mother!—on the Sabbath shore
The heart that rock'd thy childhood, but once more
Shall take its wearied one.

In silence wert thou left:
Come to thy sisters!—joyously again
All the home voices, blest in one sweet strain,
Shall greet their long bereft.

Over thine orphan head
The storm hath swept as o'er a willow's bough:
Come to thy father! it is finished now—
Thy tears have all been shed!

In thy divine abode
Change finds no pathway, mem'ry no dark trace,
And oh! bright victory, death by love no place!
Come, spirit, to thy God

THE ORANGE FLOWER.

"That most melancholy of all happy ceremonies."

All things have their season, and thine sweet flower!
Comes with the guest at the Bridal hour—
'Tis thine to adorn the fair young Bride,
When she stops forth in her joy and pride—
Thy buds must mix with the snow-white pearls
She twines amid her clustering curls;
Thy perfum'd breath is borne on the air,
When she speaks the vow, and breathes the prayer;
The vow which binds, amid smiles and tears,
Her lot to one through all coming years,—
In youth and in age, in good and in ill,—
While life shall endure—unchanging still—
The prayer that calls on heaven to bless
The object of her heart's tenderness—
'Tis an hour of joy! yet gaze in her eyes!—
A mist of tears o'er their brightness lies;
And her voice is low, and her cheek is pale
As the light folds of her floating veil—
Does she weep because she must bid adieu
To the home where her happy childhood flew?
Does she mourn that her girlhood's glee is gone,
And that sterner tasks must now come on?
Does she send her spirit through coming years,
When the joy of this hour will be quench'd in tear?
Does her fancy paint that mournful day,
When one fond heart shall be torn away;
When bitter drops from eyes must flow,—
Or else be herself in the grave laid low?
Yes! such feelings will come, unbidden guests,—
When all seems gay to human breasts!
[illegible]
Bloom'st fairer still in Beauty's light:
Thou baskest in the sun's warm ray,
And smilest thy little life away,
Protected by His bounteous care,
Who made thee in thy beauty there.

TREASURY DEPARTMENT,
April 12th, 1833.

IN the late conflagration of the Treasury building nearly all the correspondence of the Secretary of the Treasury, from the establishment of the Department to the 31st of March, 1833, was destroyed including as well the original letters and communications addressed to the Secretary of the Treasury, as the records of the letters and communications written by him. With a view to repair the loss, as far as may be practicable, all officers of the United States, are requested to cause copies to be prepared and authenticated by them, of any letters excepting those hereinafter alluded to which they may at any time have written to, or received from the Secretary of the Treasury; and all those who have been in office, and other individuals throughout the United States, and elsewhere, are invited to do the same. That this correspondence may be arranged into appropriate books, it is requested that it be copied on folio foolscap paper, with sufficient margin on all sides to admit of binding, and that no more than one letter be contained on a leaf. It is also requested, that the copies be written in a plain and distinct or engrossing hand. Where the original letter can be spared, it would be preferred. The reasonable expense incurred in copying the papers now requested not exceeding the rate of ten cents for every hundred words, will be defrayed by the Department.

The correspondence which has been saved, and of which, therefore, no copies are desired, are the records of the letters written by the Secretary of the Treasury to Presidents and Cashiers of Banks, from the 1st October, 1819, to the 20th of February 1833; all the correspondence relating to the Revolutionary claims under the act of 15th May, 1828, and to claims of Virginia officers to half pay, under the act of 5th July, 1832; and to applications for the benefits of the acts of the 2d March, 1831, and 14th July, 1832, for the relief of certain insolvent debtors of the United States. Copies of some circular letters and instructions, written by the Secretary have also been preserved, and it is requested that before a copy be made of any circular letter or instruction, written by the Secretary of the Treasury, the date and object of the circular be first stated to the Department, and its wishes on the subject ascertained.

Secretary of the Treasury.

MARYLAND ECLIPSE.

The thorough bred horse Maryland Eclipse, will be let to mares this spring, at the stands of Centreville and Easton, at the sum of twenty dollars the season, fifteen dollars the single leap, twenty five dollars to insure with foal, and fifty cents to the groom. The single leap, payable before the mare goes to the horse, the season at its close, and the insurance as soon as it is ascertained the mare is in foal. If the mare be sold, the person putting her to the horse will be held liable for the amount of insurance. The season will commence on the first day of April next at Centreville, where the horse will remain during that week, and on Monday follwing at Easton, and remain there also a week, and then alternately at Centreville and Easton, a week at each place during the season, which will close on the first of July.

ECLIPSE is a dark chesnut sorrel, near 16 hands high, nine years old this Spring, and possesses great strength and beauty; his colts are remarkably large and fine, and those upon the turf give evidence of great speed, as yet however, few have been trained, the oldest of his colts, being only three years old last season. One of his colts bred by the proprietor and sold to a gentleman in N. York, was trained and tried last season, and proved to be a successful racer, running her mile in one minute and fifty one seconds, both heats, and beating four others, with great ease. Eclipse was trained for the first time, and ran in the Spring of 1830, (being the two preceeding years on the stand as a Stallion) in the State of New Jersey, a mile and repeat, and won with great ease, beating three other horses; he was afterwards carried to Poughkeepsie, and entered against the celebrated race horse Sir Lovel, and although beaten, yet it is said, this race was run in as short, if not a shorter time, with the same weight, than was ever run in the United States, the first heat was run in 3 minutes 57 seconds, and the second heat in 3 minutes 46 seconds, two miles and repeat.—Sir Lovel after this race, was taken to New York, and matched against Mr. Johnson's celebrated race mare Arietta, (which had a short time before beaten Ariel two miles, in a match for $5000) Sir Lovel distanced Arietta the second heat in 3 minutes 48 seconds, thereby proving that Eclipse was a better racer than Arietta. After the race at Poughkeepsie, Eclipse was turned out and trained in the fall following, and gave greater promise of speed, than on his first trial, but in his exercises received an injury in one of his sinews, and was withdrawn from the turf without further trial. Subjoined is the Certificate of the gentleman who trained him, and voluntarily tendered:

Colt's Neck, New Jersey, Nov. 30, 1830.

I certify that for the last thirty years and upwards, I have been in the yearly practice of training race horses, and have had in my possession, some of the reputed best horses in the country; for the last year I have had Maryland Eclipse, with others under training exercise, and give it as my opinion that for any distance I have tried him, which was never more than two miles, he is the fastest horse I have ever trained.

(Signed)
JOSEPH K. VAN MATER.

The original Certificates of his performance at Poughkeepsie (where he ran) from the Secretary of the Club, and of Mr. Van Mater, are in the possession of the propietor, and can be seen upon application.
