

The friends of the Administration of the General Government, in the Congressional District composed of Cecil, Kent, Queen Ann's, Caroline and Talbot, should bear in mind that no time is to be lost, in organizing and preparing for the coming campaign.

In order to prevent difficulties arising from conflicting recommendations, we suggest the propriety of a convention, for the above purpose, meeting at Centreville, on Monday, the 15th of July next.

We have learnt that an impression has been sought to be produced, by the editorial article which accompanied the announcement of Mr. Bullitt as a candidate for Congress, that we were hostile to that gentleman.

The above remarks, we have thought might be due to such of our friends as felt aggrieved at the paragraph in question.

MAD DOGS.—A dog supposed to be mad, has, within two or three days past, traversed almost this entire neighborhood, and has bitten a great many dogs, and probably other animals.

By the Commissioners, June 10th, 1833.

WHEREAS, a considerable number of Dogs in the Town have been bitten by a dog supposed to have been mad, and considerable alarm exists among the citizens, under the apprehension that dangerous consequences may result, in permitting dogs to go at large in the town until it is ascertained whether they have been bitten or not.

Resolved, That the Bailiff of the Town, immediately call on all persons owning or harboring dogs in Town, to confine the same within three days, and to keep them confined for the space of sixty days, from the date hereof, and, on no pretence whatever, to suffer them to go at large, until the expiration of said sixty days.

Resolved further, that the Bailiff be authorized, and he is hereby enjoined, to kill, or cause to be killed, all dogs found going at large within the limits of the town, contrary to the above Resolution.

Attest JAMES PARROTT, Clk. to Com'rs.

The President of the United States reached Baltimore on Thursday afternoon, and took his lodgings at Newcomb's Baltimore House, corner of Hanover and Baltimore streets.

The President yesterday received the visits of the citizens from noon until half past one o'clock. Before that hour he made an excursion through the city on horseback, accompanied by the Mayor and other gentlemen.

The committee deputed on behalf of the citizens of Philadelphia, to meet and escort the President to that city, arrived here yesterday afternoon. They severally represent the general body of the citizens and the Young Men.

Hon. G. M. Dallas, Benj. W. Richards, John D. Miles, Robt. F. Conrad, Wm. Stewart, Wm. J. Mullis, Chas. Heinicke, Ed. C. Watmough, G. W. Williams, J. G. Bennett, John Patrick.

MR. MULLIKIN. Though Cassius seems to think in his last, that Young Hickory despises him too much, to answer his political effusions further, you may, by way of a parting word, inform him through your columns, that however lofty the flight of Young Hickory's contempt, (who might indeed prefer making a quarry of a noble bird,) he will always stoop in the genuine spirit of falconry, to strike the little ones that ruffle their feathers at him.

YOUNG HICKORY.

APPOINTMENT BY THE PRESIDENT.

Romulus M. Saunders, of North Carolina, to be a Commissioner under the law to carry into effect the Convention with France, in the place of Thomas H. Williams, resigned.

The jury in the case of Clough, eight Friends and four of other denominations, attended the Episcopal Church at Mount Holy, on Sunday, in charge of three constables. One of the latter, in charge of three constables, in church before for 10 years. We trust the sermon effected some good.—Phila. Inquirer.

COURT OF APPEALS.

Monday June 3d.—The Court of Appeals met—present Martin, Stephen, Archer and Dorsey, Judges.

George Vickers, Esq. of Kent county, and Richard C. Hollyday and Samuel Hambleton, jr. Esqs. of Talbot county, were severally admitted as attorneys.

The case of Tilghman and others, vs. Baynard's administratrix was argued by Harrison for the Appellants, and Carmichael for the Appellee—judgment affirmed.

The argument in Stewart's Lessee vs. Jones, was commenced by Martin for the Appellant, and Wilson and Handy for Appellee.

Tuesday June 4.—Court met, present as yesterday with the addition of Buchanan, chief judge.

Nicholas L. Goldsborough and William T. Goldsborough, Esqs. of Dorchester county, and James B. Ricard, Esq. of Kent, were admitted as attorneys.

The argument in Stewart's Lessee vs. Jones, was concluded by Bayly for the appellant—not decided.

The case of Hart, Ex'r. of Wingate vs. Bell, adm'r. of Wingate, an appeal from Dorchester county, Opians' Court, was argued by Bayly for appellant—not decided.

The case of Gale vs. Lankford was argued by Bayly for the appellant and by Wilson and Handy for the appellee.—The Court still open to receive decisions from Western Shore.

MR. AVERY'S ACQUITTAL.

The case of this gentleman was submitted to the jury on Saturday evening last, at half past seven o'clock. We learn from the Providence Journal, of Monday, that the arguments, both of Mr. Mason, and of the Attorney General, were spoken of, on all sides in terms of unqualified approbation, for their learning, ingenuity and fairness.

The demeanor of Mr. Avery on Saturday, is reported to have been singularly calm and composed.—A number of his clerical brethren passed that night, with him, engaged in religious exercises. On Sunday at 12 o'clock (noon) the jury, after having been out sixteen hours, returned into Court and pronounced a verdict of NOT GUILTY.

Thus, says the Journal referred to, has this case terminated; and we cannot but hope the public will be satisfied with the result. Never was a case presented to a jury requiring a longer or more laborious investigation; never has there been one more fully or fully investigated, in charity, in common humanity and justice to the Rev. E. K. Avery, the judgment of the community should harmonize with the verdict of the jury, in pronouncing him Not Guilty.

Mr. Avery was discharged by the Court; and he returned in the afternoon to his family in Bristol.

One of the New York Reporters states that during the period of painful suspense, while Mr. Avery was waiting in Court for the answer of the Jury, a silence almost death like pervaded the crowded court house.

The cheek and brow of Mr. Avery became instantly and violently suffused; he leaned his head on his right hand, raised his spectacles and wept. His hand was clasped firmly by the Rev. Mr. Palmer, who accompanied him into Court, and sat close by his side during this crisis.

It is probable that that moment, to the prisoner, was marked with the most exquisite delight. It was full of promised life; it restored to his family; it removed a load of ignominy from his name; it gave him freedom.—Those only who have been pent up for long months in prison,—shut from the common air, and all the blessings of existence, can estimate the rapture of liberty. Mr. Avery was conducted out of court on board a schooner, bound for Bristol.

From the Maysville (Ky.) Eagle & Monitor.—Extra.

FRIDAY MORNING, May 31, 1833.

It becomes our painful task to announce to the public, the existence of the Cholera in our city, to an alarming extent. On Wednesday morning last, the dreadful news was spread throughout the place, that there was a number of cases of a desperate character—embracing our most temperate and exemplary citizens. The panic spread as the disease extended, and our streets and houses may be said to have been deserted in thirty six hours. It has now been forty eight hours since the disease made its appearance, and we have interred several persons, viz: H. Gaylor, Johnston Armstrong, Mrs. Johnston Armstrong, Miss Elizabeth January, Isabella and Andrew, 3 children of Andrew M. January, Emily Huson, daughter of Wm. Huston, Mrs. Mosselt, a negro woman of John Armstrong and one of Mr. Huston.

We have now lying dead and to be interred this morning nine persons, viz. Mrs. Newman, Mrs. Hodge, Miss Charlotte Hull, Mr. Joshua Reese, Mr. Bayard, Mr. Keiser, a child of the Rev. Mr. Howell, a servant of Mr. January and a servant of Mr. Newman. Our physicians inform us that there are but few new cases this morning, but that many of the old cases are desperate. Our city is literally depopulated—all who could procure carriage, wigs, coats, carts or horses, having left. Great praise is due the Faculty, who have labored with unremitting industry, during those two days of affliction to relieve the agony of the dying. Our Mayor, also will receive, as he deserves, the thanks of the city, for his generous exertions; the whole official responsibility in such a trying time, devolves upon him and two or three of the Council—their others having been driven, by their anxiety for their family's safety, to retreat into their family's safety, to retreat into their family's safety.

Those citizens who have remained country. The last duty to the dead, deserve to perform the duty of the public. Business of all kind has ceased.

We are happy to state that the disease this morning appears to be milder and more manageable.

We have been thus explicit, that the people in the country may know the real state of our city. Our friends need not expect paper next week, as it will be totally out of our power to issue one.

Washington, Pa. June 1.

A case of spasmodic cholera has taken place in this borough, in the person of Mrs. Kelley, the wife of B. F. Kelley, merchant, of Wheeling, Va., who arrived here on Wednesday evening last, in a carriage from that place, in bad health. There is no doubt she had contracted the disease previous to her departure from Wheeling. In the night a few hours after her arrival here, she became very ill with vomiting and other alarming symptoms, when her father W. B. King, of Wheeling, who travelled with her, immediately procured medical attendance. The complaint, however, did not identify itself as cholera until about 9 o'clock on Thursday morning, when it was apparent to every one who had an opportunity of seeing her. She died the same evening, and in about 24 hours after her arrival in town.—About 11 o'clock of that night her friends started for Wheeling with her corpse.

CHOLERA.—This disease still prevails at Wheeling, but judging from the report of the Board of Health, not to a very alarming extent. We are glad to observe that the Board of Health in this city is reorganized, and that prompt and efficient measures are taken by our city authorities to prevent the disease from reaching this place. At present our city is remarkably healthy.—Pittsburg Mercury.

The election of officers of the Chesapeake and Ohio Canal Company took place on Thursday, under circumstances of no ordinary interest and excitement.—The point in contest was for the office of President, the friends of the Hon. Charles Fenton Mercer, and of the Hon. John H. Eaton of Tennessee being ranged against each other. The result, it will be seen, was in favor of the latter.

From the National Intelligencer of Friday.

POSTSCRIPT.—An adjourned Meeting of the Stockholders of the Chesapeake and Ohio Canal Company was held yesterday, and continued to a late hour in the day. Every effort to procure a delay of a few days, or until the General Committee should have reported, was voted down by the united vote of the United States and the Corporation of Washington; Maryland and Georgetown, being divided, and Virginia and Alexandria resisting in vain. In the end, the Election of Officers was held, and the following gentlemen were elected, to serve for the ensuing year, viz:

- JOHN H. EATON, of Tennessee. President. Walter Smith, of Georgetown. Phineas Janney, of Alexandria. William Guntion, of Washington. John J. Abert, U. S. Army. William Price, of Maryland. Richard H. Henderson, of Virginia. Directors.

From the Baltimore American of yesterday.

A most melancholy occurrence, involving the destruction of a steamboat by fire, and the loss of a number of valuable lives, is related in the New Orleans Courier of the 25th ult. The destruction of lives was occasioned, it appears, by the explosion of a parcel of gunpowder, stored in the hold of the boat.

ON THE STEAMER LIONESS. The steamer Lioness, Capt. Cockrell, on her passage from this place to Natchitoches, was entirely destroyed by fire on the 19th inst. Several lives were lost, among whom was the Hon. Josiah S. Johnson, U. S. Senator from this State, Hon. E. D. White, a Representative in Congress, was badly wounded. The following is the account of the sad disaster, which was furnished to the editor of the Bulletin, by the Clerk, who arrived here this morning in the steamer Haron. The steamboat Lioness, Wm. L. Cockrell, master, on her passage from New Orleans to Natchitoches, took fire when about 40 miles above Alexandria on Red River, and was entirely consumed. The lives of 15 or 16 individuals were lost, and as many others were more or less wounded. It occurred about 5 o'clock on the morning of May 19, when but few had left their births, which accounts in part for so many deaths.

MARRIED.

On Thursday evening 23d of May, by the Rev. R. W. Goldsborough, William A. Spenser, attorney at law, to the Catholican Murray, eldest daughter of William Carmichael, Esq. all of Queen Ann's county.

LOOK HERE.

HAVING been appointed by the Commissioners of the town of Easton, Collector of the taxes for 1833, and having bonded for the performance thereof, I take this method to inform the citizens that I am now ready to receive their amounts; I shall generally be at the office of Thomas C. Nicols, Esq. with the Levy List, prepared to receive payments from such as will call to pay. The condition of my bond is, that I shall deliver within ten days after receiving the Levy List, to every person assessed, a ticket of the amount of his or her assessment, or leave such ticket at the place of residence, or at his or her tenement, this having been done, all those who refuse or neglect to come forward and pay their accounts I must forthwith proceed to collect by levying execution on the property of such delinquent, and I do not close the whole Levy List with three months my bond is liable to be put in suit. The smallittance allowed me for collecting, will not justify my having much trouble in waiting, for levying execution and selling property, I am allowed $1.00 cost—this I hold I shall in no instance have to demand, but I wish to be distinctly understood that if their accounts are not settled by the 30th of July next, I shall proceed to levy and demand my cost. Take care, do not let the time slip.
