EASTON, MD.

TUESDAY MORNING, June 25, 1833.

REPUBLICAN MEETING.

The friends of the Administration of the General Government in Talbot county, are invited to assemble at the Court House in Easton, on TUESDAY, the 9th of July next, at 8 o'clock, P. M. for the purpose of appointing delegates to a general committee of this Congressional District, which is to meet at Centerville, to nominate a candidate for Congress. A full meeting is confidently expected.

Our correspondent "Young Hickory," we hope will excuse us for not publishing his note of yesterday. We have given the subject mature reflection, and can see no just grounds of complaint, on either side, in our determination not to open our paper further to this controversy. His note if published, would probably call forth a reply from Cassius, which, in justice, we might not be able to refuse; we must therefore be permitted to adhere to the determination expressed in our last.

Yesterday our wheat harvest in Talbot countly had commenced generally, but a south-easterly rain which commenced in the morning, and terminated in a gust in the afternoon, we fear will much protract this season of anxiety to the farmer. The seab is thought to have injured the crop very much. The head is said to be light, but the grain tolerably good and fair.—The precariousness of the season, however, seems to have produced serious uneasiness as to the result.

Mr. Rush is publishing, simultaneously in London and Philadelphia, a work, giving a narrative of his residence, as American minister, in England. It is spoken of as a composition of a highly liberal character, and its author is hailed in the London Literary Gazette, as "a laudable example of the class which can observe faults at home and abroad with equal asperity, and hail the virtues which are common to every quarter and portion of the civilized world." We have a few amusing extracts, which we may hereafter give place to.

The cholera is making frightful ravages in the West. In this part of the country we have been comparatively exempt. Last year it was doubtless prevented, in a great measure, by the healthful regulations adopted by our town commissioners; and with it we also experienced an exemption from our usual autumnal sickness, before unknown. Seeing the good resulting from last year's exertions, why do we rest contented with the present condition of the town? If we are in no danger of cholera, let us guard against bilious fevers.

Agreeably to the programme published, President Jackson was to have left Boston yesterday, but for what place, it is not said. He was to have spent Friday, Saturday and Sunday last in Boston.

A new post office is established at Massey's Cross Roads, Kent county, Md., Charles W. Bridels, Esq. Postmaster.

The substantial, whitewashed, brick building at the corner of the Court House Green and Federal alley, being without its wanted tenants, could be let for a time, if application is made to the Sheriff of Talbot county. It has been occupied as a jail for many years, but with an adherence to the rules of the Temperance Society, we would hope to have no further use for it in that way.

At a meeting of the friends of the American Colonization Society, held in New York on Monday evening, the sum of eleven hundred and twenty eight dollars was collected. The Alexandria Gazette says—We yesterday saw a letter from the venerable Jas. Madison, expressing in the warmest terms, his interest in the American Colonization Society, and enclosing a donation of Fifty Dollars to be applied to the funds of the Society.—Balt. Amer.

WASHINGTON, June 17. The Secretary of State, Mr. McLane, returned to this City on Saturday last. He left the President in New York. We are gratified to learn that the President's health had been improved by his journey—that he enjoyed fine spirits, and was gratefully impressed by the demonstrations of affectionate feeling, with which he was every where received.—Globe.

Later from Colombia.—By the brig Montilla, we have received Dogota papers, from our correspondents, to the 12th of May. There is every appearance of public tranquillity and general contentment.

Enquiries have been made by the government of the different provinces, whether there is any obstacle in the recal of exiled natives to their homes. An Auxiliary bishop is to be appointed for the Casanare, by the present congress, according to law with a salary of $6000.—N. Y. Daily Advertiser.

The editor of the Wyoming Herald, thus notices the copper mine recently opened in Luzerne county, Pennsylvania. "The mine is opened about twenty yards in length; and four feet thick; the ore is imbedded in granite, and in appearance is very extensive. A specimen of the ore, and also of the copper made from it, was a few days since shown to us, and we were assured that the yield is fifty per cent. If so, it is itself 'a mine of wealth,' and will add much to the universal resources of the county, already rich in minerals, and all it wants to convert it into the solid metal is 'capital.'"

CHOLERA IN THE WEST. The cholera continues to extend the scope of its ravages in the West. We regret to observe, by the following paragraph, that it has again made its appearance at Cincinnati. From the Cincinnati Gazette, June 24. HEALTH OF THE CITY.—The Galette stands pledged to give the best information that its conductors can obtain of the real state of the health of the city. The official report of interments of the last week, published to day is 32. Now the truth is, there were 40 interments within that period; 24 were returned as of cholera. Last week the Council passed an order that the clerk should not publish the cases reported as cholera, but that such report should come through the Mayor. There has been two meetings of the Board of Health this week, and no report from either, or from the Mayor.—We have no comment to make upon this statement of facts, except, that in the corresponding week of June, 1832, the number of interments was 15. Obituary.—Died on Saturday last at Charlestown, Indiana, 13 miles above Louisville, Mr. DAVID CLARKSON, in the 44th year of his age, and his son Charles in his nineteenth year.—They left the house of his brother, Mr. C. S. Clarkson, in this vicinity, on Thursday last, in good health, and landed at Charlestown on Saturday morning, and both fell victims to the cholera before 12 o'clock that night.

ourselves, and some of them worse, afflict me with their hurried and distracted movements, and not infrequently with their cries and groans. The Physicians are nearly worn out. Nurses cannot be had, the coffin makers are almost broken down, and the disease still spreading. Among its most important victims is our brother T. T. Skillman, who arrived from the General Assembly on Friday last, attended service on yesterday morning, was taken on his return from meeting and died in twelve hours afterwards. The number of cases on yesterday was equal to, and perhaps greater than on any former day: The change in the weather we hope will abate it, but it has not yet done it. We are in the hands of God—Let him do what seemeth him good. P. S. My mother died at 3 o'clock, P. M. after closing this letter.

The population of Natchez is 3,000. The deaths during the year ending April 30, 1833, were 147.

Health of Canada.—The Canadian papers exhibit considerable anxiety on the subject of the public health—but express the utmost confidence in the measures pursued by the authorities at Grosse Isle, for the purification of vessels arriving from ports in Ireland where sickness prevails, and the prevention of the spread of disease from any quarter. The brig Eliza and Ann, from Cork, had arrived there, having lost her Captain, Dargaville, on the 9th May by cholera. Five more deaths had occurred on board previous to her arrival, and it is said of contagious diseases. The latest intelligence from the Isle was received at Quebec on the afternoon of the 11th instant.—There were several of typhus fever, in the hospital on the 10th, landed some six weeks previous, six from the Emerald, from Dublin, and one from the Gilbert Henderson, from the same port, whose case was considered very doubtful. The passengers by the Thetis and Harvey, on board of which vessels cases of cholera had occurred on the voyage as heretofore mentioned, continued in health.

From the Boston Recorder. MR. AVERY.

Rev. Mr. Avery acquitted by the Conference.—We learn that the Committee of the Methodist Conference of Clergy, held in this city, made their report on Tuesday morning, in the case of Rev. E. K. Avery, which had been referred to them by the Conference for investigation. The substance of the report was that Mr. Avery having been acquitted by the jury of his country, and proved innocent of the crime of murder, they were entirely satisfied of his innocence on that point. That the Committee had thoroughly investigated the charges of improper connexion with Sarah Maria Cornell, and unanimously acquitted Mr. Avery of all suspicion of criminal or illicit intercourse with the deceased. The report also recommended that Mr. Avery should not be assigned to any particular station during the present year, in consequence of his impaired state of health, but that he be held in full fellowship with the Conference, and that his usual salary be continued. Bishop Hedding, who was in the Chair, requested the Rev. Mr. Pickering, one of the oldest members of the Conference, to take the Chair while the Report was reading. After the Report was read, the Chairman inquired of Mr. Avery, who was present, if he had any thing to say upon the Report. Mr. A. rose and observed that he had nothing in particular to say, but to return his sincere thanks to his brethren in the ministry and his Christian friends, for the aid they had rendered him in the time of extreme peril, and so long as his pulse beat, or his memory served; he should always hold them in grateful remembrance. The Report was then unanimously accepted by the Conference, and on motion to return thanks to Almighty God for his overruling providence in delivering his servant from great peril, the Conference united with Rev. Mr. Pickering in solemn prayer. During this scene, the assembly was deeply affected, and many shed tears. At the request of a number of his brethren, Mr. Avery consented to preach in the church in Bennett street, yesterday afternoon.

Sugar in Florida.—The St. Augustine Herald states that a planter in Florida last season, manufactured from one acre of cane, four hogheads of Sugar, averaging more than 1000 lbs. to the hoghead, worth 94 cents.—This is an extraordinary product, and may excite those who are unacquainted with the superior capacities of the Florida soil. The prospects of Florida are brightening, and many capitalists are looking out for settlements. Colonel Dammert's crop of sugar will be near 100 hogheads, and bears a much better price in the market than the Louisiana sugar.

We were shown one day last week a counterfeit $500 dollar note on the bank of the United States. The engraving of the note was so well executed, that the engravers of the genuine plate were unable to pronounce it a counterfeit until after a most scrupulous examination. The note was taken by one of the Banks in New Orleans, and afterwards brought to this city, where it was detected, after having been deposited in the Girard Bank.—Bicknell's Reporter.

MARRIED On Tuesday last, by the Rev. Levi Storks, Mr. John Fountain, to Miss Susan Ann Arlingdale, all of this county. On Tuesday evening last, by the Rev. Mr. Hickey, Mr. William L. Jones, to Miss Margaret, daughter of Mr. William Vanderford, all of this town.

DIED In this county on Sunday last, after a lingering illness, Mrs. Elizabeth Colston, in the 70th year of her age.

Valuable Lands for Sale. WILL be offered for sale at public auction, on the premises, on SATURDAY the 13th July next, at 11 o'clock, A. M. six hundred and twenty six acres of VALUABLE LAND, with a plenty of valuable timber, lying and being upon the Long Marsh, in Caroline county, within a few miles of the Beaver Dams and Keen's Cross Roads, and nine or ten miles from Greensborough, upon which is settled several families, the late residence of Rev. John Clements, dec'd. now in the tenure of Mr. Joel Clements, jr. and others. These lands will be sold upon one, two and three years credit, from the first day of January next; the present year's rent reserved, but the purchaser will be permitted to seed among the growing corn in due time, and the entire possession on the first day of January next.—Bond with approved security, will be required, bearing interest from the first day of January, 1834, payable in three equal annual payments, with interest upon the whole sum unpaid annually, with a privilege to make any payments at an earlier day. Upon the payment of the purchase money with interest thereon, a good and sufficient deed will be executed and delivered to the purchaser (at his expense.) The reputation of the lands on the Long Marsh are too well known to need any comment from me. The remote situation of these lands and my multifarious concerns, induces me to be very desirous to make a sale, at a fair and reasonable price—to persons desirous of purchasing lands, it is believed, it will give a good opportunity to make a profitable investment. But if these lands are not sold, they will be offered for rent to a good tenant, or tenants, upon lease for seven years. Attendance will be given by WILLIAM HUGHLETT, Galloway, Talbot county, June 25 Sw

To be rented, or for Sale. A Farm, now in the occupancy of Mr. Thomas Bowdler, this farm adjoins Cambridge farm, in Talbot county, and contains as per my plots and deeds, three hundred and sixty six and a half acres of land, of which one hundred and twenty one acres are in timber. The residue arable, and divided into three fields, beautifully situated on the Choptank River and Bolingbrook creek, and is susceptible of great improvements, the buildings are a barn and other out houses; the Dwelling a common one story wooden building with a kitchen, &c. I will rent upon a long lease to a tenant who will improve the land and take care of the Timber; or I will sell at what I deem a reasonable price. It has the advantage of fish-ponds and wild fowl and a beautiful salt water situation, opposite Cambridge.—For terms apply to WM. HUGHLETT, Galloway, Talbot county, June 25 Sw

JAMES L. SMITH, TAILOR. N. B. J. L. S. requests those gentlemen, whose accounts have been standing upwards of six months, to call and settle. If they can't make it convenient to pay all, to let him have a part to enable him to pay his journeymen; as journeymen tailors wont work without they are paid, should they stop, customers might be disappointed. June 4 Sw

Wool sellers who may give him a call, or direct a line to him in Easton, will find that he is prepared and willing to give them as high prices as they can get in Baltimore or Philadelphia as many of them can bear witness to. BENNETT TOMLINSON; June 25
