

POETRY.

It is very probable that the following piece of poetry has found its way into our columns before to-day, but those who read it with a parent's eye, will be sure to find out a freshness that will give it daily relish. There is a cord in the breast of those who have children, which without sympathy none can reach; but when a father's or a mother's hand touches the string, there is a vibration, mournful perhaps, but pleasant, whose interest no circumstances can check, and whose pleasures no repetition cloy.

PATERNAL AFFECTION.

By Barry Corneall.

The feeling of a parent, regarding a child in dangerous sickness, are beautifully expressed in the following stanzas:

Send down thy winged Angel, God!
Amidst this night so wild,
And bid him come where now we watch,
And breathe upon our child.
She lies upon her pillow, pale,
And moans within her sleep,
Or waketh with a patient smile,
And stretcheth not to weep.

How gentle and how good a child
She is we know too well,
And dearer to her parent's heart,
Than our weak words can tell,
We love—we watch throughout the night,
We hope, when need may be,
To aid—and have despaired at times
But now we turn to Thee.

OUR COMMON MOTHER.

When art thou fairest, Nature? When her hood
Pale Twilight dons, and o'er the quiet vale
Falls forth, to hear within the silent wood
The plaintive story of the nightingale;
And, in the dim and drowsy light of eve,
The spider weaves its subtle snare to weave.

Or art thou fairest in the morning hour,
When daylight dances on the daisied lea;
And birds sing forth their matins from the bower,
And sunshine banners float from every tree:
When blossoms sparkle from the stream, and all
The joyous earth seems one bright festal hall?
Nay, thou art ever fair in every mood,
Through every season, and at every hour,
'Tis but the heart whose sinful thoughts intrude,
That doubts thy beauty, and rejects thy power:
Why—why should evil mingle with our blood,
Since only they are happy who are good?

Thine is a glorious volume, Nature's! e'en
Line, leaf, and page are filled with living lore:
Wisdom more pure than sage could ever teach,
And all philosophy's divinest store.
Rich lessons rise where'er thy tracks are trod—
The book of Nature is the book of God.

SLUMBER.

From the Spanish.

Flow, softly flow, thou murmuring stream!
Beside my Lady's bower;
And do not mar her spirit's dream,
In this delightful hour.

But gently rippling, greet her ear,
With sounds that lull the soul.
As near the bower, all bright and clear,
Thy beautiful billows roll!

Blow, softly blow, thou balmy air!
Beside my Lady's bower;
The rustling winds would hush, to spare
So soft and fair a flower!

Breathe gently o'er her rosy cheek
Thy mildest, purest balmy;
But heed, lest thou a slumber break
So beautiful and calm.

Valuable Lands for Sale.

WILL be offered for sale at public auction, on the premises, on SATURDAY the 15th July next, at 11 o'clock, A. M. six hundred and twenty five acres of VALUABLE LAND, with a plenty of valuable timber, lying and being upon the Long Marsh, in Caroline county, within a few miles of the Beaver Dams and Keen's Cross Roads, and nine or ten miles from Greensborough, upon which is settled several farms, the late residence of the Rev. John Clements, dec'd. now in the tenure of Mr. Joel Clements, Jr. and others. These lands will be sold upon one, two and three years credit, from the first day of January next; the present year's rent reserved, but the purchaser will be permitted to seed among the growing corn in due time, and the entire possession on the first day of January next—Bond with approved security, will be required, bearing interest from the first day of January, 1833, payable in three equal annual payments, with interest upon the whole sum unpaid annually, with a privilege to make any payments at an earlier day. Upon the payment of the purchase money with interest thereon, a good and sufficient deed will be executed and delivered to the purchaser (at his expense). The reputation of the lands on the Long Marsh are too well known to need any comment from me. The remote situation of these lands, and my multifarious concerns, induces me to be very desirous to make a sale, at a fair and reasonable price—to persons, desirous of purchasing lands, it is believed, it will give a good opportunity to make a profitable investment.

But if these lands are not sold, they will be offered for rent to a good tenant, or tenants, upon lease for seven years.

Attendance will be given by
WILLIAM HUGHLETT,
Galloway, Talbot county, June 25 3w

The residue arable, and divided into three fields, beautifully situated on the Choptank River and Boalingbrook creek, and is susceptible of great improvements, the buildings are a barn and other out houses; Dwelling a common one story wooden building with a kitchen, &c. I will rent upon a long lease to a tenant who will improve the land and take care of the timber, or I will sell at what I deem a reasonable price. It has the advantage of fish-ponds and wild fowl, and a beautiful salt water situation, opposite Cambridge—For terms apply to

HAVING been appointed by the Commissioners of the town of Easton, Collector of the taxes for 1833, and having bonded for the performance thereof, I take this method to inform the citizens that I am now ready to receive their amounts; I shall generally be at the office of Thomas C. Nicols, Esq. with the Levy List, prepared to receive payments from such as will call to pay. The condition of my bond is, that I shall deliver within ten days after receiving the Levy List, to every person (forward a ticket of the amount of his or her assessment or levy such ticket at the place of residence, or at his or her tenement, this having been done, all those who refuse or neglect to come forward and pay their accounts I must forthwith proceed to collect by levying execution on the property of such delinquent, and if I do not close the whole Levy List within three months my Bond is liable to be put in suit. The smallittance allowed me for collecting, will not justify my having much trouble or waiting for levying execution and selling property I am allowed $1 00 each—this I hope I shall in no instance have to demand, but I wish to be distinctly understood that if their accounts are not settled by the 20th of July next, I shall proceed to levy and demand my cost. Take care, do not let the time slip.

TREASURY DEPARTMENT,

April 12th, 1833.
IN the late confiscation of the Treasury building nearly all the correspondence of the Secretary of the Treasury, from the establishment of the Department to the 31st of March, 1833, was destroyed including as well the original letters and communications addressed to the Secretary of the Treasury, as the records of the letters and communications written by him.
