Every member of the present Cabinet, are of the old Democratic party. Not a member of it ever had any connexion with Federalism. Democrats what say you; are any of you who are opposing the administration aware of your league with Federalism, Hartford Convention Toryism, and Bankism, which Thomas Jeffersen so often warned you against? Look to it! Beware of the devices of the enemy.—Vermont Gazette.

Emigrants.—Between seven and eight hundred emigrants arrived at this port yesterday, from Bremen. They are from the towns and villages of the interior of Germany; they land upon our shores in excellent health and condition, and will form a valuable acquistion to the western states, whither, with scarcely an exception, they design to porceed forthwith and establish themselves.—Balt. Amer.

Fatal pugilistic encounter.—On Tuesday a fight took place between Owen Swift and Anthony Noon, in a field, about four miles from Andover, for 50*l* a side. The fight lasted two hours, and between 60 & 70 rounds were fought. —Noon was advised to give in towards the close of the fight, but he refused to do so. The victory was finally declared in favor of Swift. Noon was then taken to an inn at Andover and put to bed.—Medical assistance was instantly procured, but after two or three hours' dreadful suffering, he expired. Both the men were about twenty-five years of age, and the deceased has left a wife and two children. A most disgraceful circumstance attending the conflict is, that a great number of females from Andover and its vicinity were present.
