SAVANNAH, Jan. 28.

"It is certain that the Creek Indians have ...en a baggage and ammunition wagon, in ...rse of transportation through the country. ...e Governor has ordered 3500 militia, inclu... the volunteers, and ordered every volun... company to hold itself in readiness to ...rch at a moment's warning. The Savan... Volunteer Guards, a detachment from the ...tham Artillery, and the Savannah Repub... Blues, will proceed to Florida in a day ...wo. The Savannah Phœnix Riflemen left ...annah this day for Florida, with ample ...visions, &c. for two month's service. One ...ndred and twenty Volunteers have gone ...m Augusta. Savannah will protect Pico... Jacksonville, and all the posts of the St. ...hn's River and Lake George. The Banks this city have offered any monies needed by Committee of the City.—The greatest ex...ement prevails. General WAYNE will ...obably proceed to Florida—he told me so ...mself.

"We will probably leave here at 3 o'clock ...is morning. The men are all in fine ...pirits, and eager for the discharge of their ...ty.

We have been received, though arriving ...te and unexpectedly, with the most cordial ...elcome. Several Officers of the finest Com...anies of the place, have expressed their re...ret at our early departure, as it will deprive ...em of the pleasure of escorting us."

We concur with the sentiment of the sub...joined paragraph, which we extract from the Baltimore Reformer.

A tremendous memorial has been forward...d to the Legislature by the friends of Tem...perance. We are for temperance in all things, ...e hope the use of spirituous liquors may ...e abolished, but we shall oppose any "so...iety" that has proscription for its motto.

The following is the rate of pay allowed to the officers of the Marine Corps by the bill now before Congress for the regulation of their allowance: Col. Commandant, $3,500; Colo...nel, $3,000; Major, $2,500; Captain, 2,000; First Lieutenant, 1500; Second Lieutenant, 1000.

Some people are very desirous to wive, whilst others are not so much so; some advertise and some do not advertise; the former we admire, for they certainly pay the printer; but of all rare chances for the "privileged year" this from a New England paper, bears off the palm. "Any girl wots worth 500 dollars, and has not got the itch, can find a customer for life, by writing a bille dux addressed to Z Q and sticking it in the crack of uncle Ebenzer's barn!"

LOVE AND MATRIMONY.—From the spirit of the Aurora (in our sister County) we may soon expect a war—not a French one, reader, but a border war, involved by the principle of love. Hear how boastingly he discourses.

The girls are all getting married.—We never heard the like. No less than forty five matches of late, and Heaven only knows how many more are brewing. Whether it is owing to the cold weather, to leap year, or what on earth is the cause, we know not—indeed, there is hardly enough of the reverend fraternity to consecrate the nuptial bands in opportune time, and they are demanded too, from one end of the county to the other.

Who will bear the torch before the little god? Who so high in Cupid's cabinet? We shrewdly suspect our friend of the Aurora is a candidate for the station, and should an incursion be made into our territorial dominions, ancient Talbot, we will offer the services of the devil to lead our forlorn hope, which in all human probability will be detailed—for the sake of riddance,—from the "Agy Club" commanded by the invincible Major Scroggins—with a legion of Agies, (for they can be better spared, than even the Fustain bucks)—with this their motto:

Agies make a muster speedily;
Doomsday is near! die all, die merrily!

PALATABLE CRITICISM.—After reading such a book as this, says a critic of James' Novel of "One in a Thousand," to pick up an American novel, would be like leaving a feast of canvass-backs, quails, and champaign and to eat raw turnip and drink cider vinegar!

The great national monument to Washington which it is proposed to erect in Washington city will be six hundred and forty feet high, so as to be seen from the ocean.

The mortality of United States Troops at Fort Gibson, Arkansas, has been unprocedented. From 1824 to Dec. 1835, there have died at this post 561 men and 9 officers—in the last 2 years, 293 men and 6 officers The unhealthiness of the post is easily explicable by local causes.

It is stated that H. W. R. Hill, Esq. of Nashville, (Tenn.) has authorized the provisional Government of Texas to draw upon him for $5,000.

PROBABLE MISTAKE,

A statement is found in many of the late papers,—we believe it originated with the Commercial Advertiser of New York,—that "when the Pilgrims landed at Plymouth, their provisions were exhausted, and they had only a small bag of parched corn to relieve their hunger," which, on making a division, amounted to no more than five kernels each. Now, the mistake is, that the Pilgrims had never seen any corn, (if Indian corn is meant, and it will be so understood by most readers,) till five days after they landed!

AIDS TO THE GOVERNOR.—We observe that Governor Veazy has commissioned Joseph H. Nicholson, Henry Page, Thomas G. Pratt, and William Alfred Dulany, Esqrs., his Aids, each with the rank of Colonel.

Communicated for the Whig.

Mr. Sherwood:—In looking over your paper of the 8th inst., I saw an article under the signature of Anti Van Buren, relating to the Salary of the Treasurer of the Eastern Shore. I have no doubt sir that it was written by an Anti Van Buren man, for since then, I have conversed with many of the party, on the subject, and in every instance they have expressed the most decided disapprobation of the course pursued by our young delegate from this county. This office has been filled by several gentlemen on this Shore for many years, without the least complaint whatever about the salary, always no doubt conscientiously believing, that the compensation was adequate to the services rendered. By whom I would ask sir has this increased Salary been called for? Has it been called for by the people of this shore generally; or by the Tax-paying portion of this County? No sir by neither, and the man who at all hazards will be influenced by a "junto," (as doubtless must be the case in this instance) will bear the clamors of a "Tax-paing" and indignant people next fall. They will never submit nolens et volens, to the dicta of any set or junto of men. This increased Salary was not asked for sir, but by the present incumbent himself, in conclave with a few particular ones who worship at the throne of the 'Grand Monarque,' the tutelar deity of the Anti-Vans of this county—Can it be possible Mr. Editor that men are actuated by sound principles and pure motives, who thus squander away the public money, in fattening a man, merely because he is nominally a party man? They cannot be.—They will suffer for it. Mark the result.

ANOTHER ANTI-VAN.

Why are our side-walks like music? Because if you don't C sharp you'll B flat.

MARRIED,

On Tuesday the 9th by the Rev. Joshua Humphriss, Mr. ROBERT ROSS to Miss. LYDIA ANN MARTIN, all of this county.

ALEXANDER'S
MODERN
ACTING DRAMA,
NEW SERIES,

Embelished with Splendid Engravings.

The publisher has been induced, from the extensive patronage bestowed on his work, materially to change its typographical appearance and to improve and enlarge its pages—it is already known to be the most popular edition of Plays which has ever been attempted in this country, and the prospect of its further success is ample and satisfactory. In future the MODERN ACTING DRAMA will be published in monthly numbers of 48 pages each—12 of which will constitute a volume, or one year's subscription—embracing in all FIVE HUNDRED AND SEVENTY-SIX PAGES. Every PLAY or FARCE is to be accompanied by a beautiful and appropriate Engraving—making in the course of the year nearly FIFTY-TWO EMBELISHMENTS—to which will be added as a Frontispiece to the work, a full sized STEEL ENGRAVING, containing the likenesses of SIX DISTINGUISHED ACTORS AND ACTRESSES. Every person who desires to preserve an invaluble collection of the best Dramatic Authors should forward his name forthwith, as the edition will be limited to the number which is absolutely subscribed for. ☞ The publisher pledges himself to make this work equal in interest and superiority of execution to his prospectus, or he will refund the price of subscription, free of all charges.

The first number of the new series will appear about the first of March—this delay is occasioned by the time necessarily consumed topreparing the Engravings. The terms of the MODERN ACTING DRAMA is three dollhars per annum, payable in advance Subscribers to the GENTLEMAN'S VADE MECUM will be furnished with both works for five dollars.

☞ Any Person collecting four subscribers the GENTLEMAN'S VADE MECUM, or the MODERN ACTING DRAMA, and remitting the amount of one year's subscription ($3) for each—shall be presented with the NOVELIST'S MAGAZINE, in two volumes, a work of considerable popularity, and which is now selling for $3—it contains the productions of eight different authors, well known to the public as among the most interesting writers of the day.

☞ A large and beautiful white sheet, imperial size, FILLED ON BOTH SIDES WITH HUMOROUS AND COSTLY ENGRAVINGS, will be published every quarter as a supplement to the SALMAGUNDI. It will be furnished gratuitously to all new subscribers to the GENTLEMAN'S VADE MECUM, or the MODERN ACTING DRAMA, and to all the old subscriwrs of these works who forward their subscriptions, for the present year, in advance, without further solicitations.

ESS.

A York paper sayeth, that a remedy for the restoration of hearing and eyesight is to be had of Doctor Green, Reading, Pa.

It proves effectual when the affliction is caused by nervous weakness, as the remedy gives health and strength to the whole nervous system.

Now—according to the Doctor's practice and principles that

MUCH OF THE ART OF PHYSICK, CONSISTS IN KNOWING WHEN NOT TO GIVE IT, the restoration of hearing is brought about without giving any Physick!—without giving any medicine! as hath been experienced in the editor's own family, as well as in the families of many of his neighbors also. Therefore, and in part return for such great benefits received, we make the above known for the good of our fellow citizens in similar distress.

For a fee of five dollars, assistance is sent—free of postage, for as many as are afflicted in a family including the relative of such family also.

For a fee of ten dollars assistance is sent—free of postage also—for 3 or 4 persons more—in addition—as at times, neighbors, may be, in want of some

And, in case other sickness besides deafness and loss of eyesight happening, help is sent for such sickness without any charge.

The fee pays for all and every help sent to families from time to time.

This is considered a praiseworthy plan.—And in conclusion, it will, no doubt, be very stisfactory for people to know that the assistance is not to be applied to the ears—nor the eyes.

NOT AT ALL.

Consequently no danger whatever can happen to them—no—none whatever.

And during the time that people are using his assistance at home, and learning how to help themselves to restore and recover their hearing—their eyesight, and their health again,

They can follow their customary business;
They can live as usual;
And they can also eat and drink what tastes best.

The following is an extract of a letter from Mr Baker, to the Printer.

MY FRIEND,

The method of using Doctor Green's remedy is innocent—is easy and performs the cure by strengthening the nerves.—My neighbor Jones' wife thought she would try it too, being a long time troubled with weak and sore eyes, together with her deafness, (caused by nervous weakness,) so she sent the customary fee and got some, per mail free of postage, which in a little more than a week made them as good and strong as ever, doing needlework now without spectacle, and now is restored to her eye sight as well as to her hearing.

C. F. BAKER.

N. B. With the remedy the patient receives an instructive and easy way how to preserve health in general, throughout the whole year. This is a great value to families (both to parents and children) and 'tis sent without any charge whatever. It always accompanies the remedy for deafness and eyesight.

Until quite lately people had to go to the Doctor to get help.

This was to them great trouble.

Absence from home and business neglect.

Danger of travelling,

Running the risk of getting sick, from home, which often happened.

Being obliged to stay with the Doctor at times from 1 to 2 or 3 weeks, and sometics longer.

Generally cost from 20 up to 30, 40, 50 dollars, and sometimes more.

Now—by this new plan of sending help to people, at their homes, all this is saved, and costs so little that 'tis not worth mentioning.

in his line of business, which added to his former stock, renders his assortment general and complete, all of which will be manufactured at the shortest notice and on the most pleasing terms. The subscriber flatters himself from his experience in his line of business and his personal attention to the same, that he will be able to give general satisfaction to those who may see proper to give him a trial. He has also on hand

New Watches, Watch Chains,
Seals and Keys, Watch Guards,
Silver Thimbles, Silver Ever Pointed Pencils,
Silver Scissor-hooks, Silver Shields,
Plain Gold Rings, Razors, & Razor Straps,
Shaving and Tooth Brushes, Penknives,

THE SALMAGUNDI,
AND NEWS OF THE DAY.
EMBELLISHED WITH A MULTITUDE OF COMIC ENGRAVINGS.

A new periodical, of a novel character, bearing the above appellation, will be commenced on the beginning of January, 1836—While it will furnish its patrons with the leading features of the news of the day, its principal objects will be to serve up a humorous compilation of the numerous lively and pungent sallies which are daily floating along the tide of Literature, and which, for the want of a proper channel for their preservation, are positively lost to the reading world. Original wits and humorists of our time will here have a medium devoted to the faithful record of the scintillations of their genius. It is not necessary to detail the many attractions which this journal will possess, as the publisher will furnish a specimen number to every person who desire it—(those out of the city will forward their orders, postage paid)—☞ and he pledges himself that no exertions on his part shall be wanting to make each succeding number superior in every respect to the preceding ones.

THE SALMAGUNDI will be printed on large imperial paper, equal in size and quality to that which is at present used for the Gentlemen's Vade Mecum. It is calculated that more than will be furnished to the patrons of this Journal in one year—these, in addition to an extensive and choice selection of Satire, Criticism, Humor and Wit, to be circulated through its columns, will form a Literary Banquet of a superor and attractive order; and the publisher relies with perfect confidence on the liberality of the American public, and the spirit and tact with which this expensive undertaking will be prosecuted, to bear him successfully and profitably along with it.

500 ENGRAVINGS

The terms of the Salmagundi will be TWO DOLLARS per annum, payably invariably in advance. No paper will be furnished unless this stipulation is strictly adhered to.

☞ Clubs of three will be supplied with the paper for one year, by forwarding a five dollar note, postage paid. Clubs of seven will be supplied for the same term, by forwarding a ten dollar note. ☞ The papers that are sent out of the city will be carefully packed in strong envelopes, to prevent their rubbing in the mail.

☞ THE SALMAGUNDI will be published on alternate weeks—otherwise it would be impossible to procure the numerous embellishments which each number will contain—and the general interest it will afford must be enhanced by this arrangement.

☞ All orders must come postage paid.

☞ Address, CHARLES ALEXANDER, Athenian Buildings, Franklin Place, Philadelphia.

Carey's Library
OF CHOICE LITERATURE

To say that this is a reading age, implies a desire for instruction, and the means to gratify that desire. On the first point, all are agreed; on the second, there is diversity both of opinion and of practice. We have newspapers, magazines, reviews, in fine, pamphlets of all sizes, on nearly all subjects, which have severally their classes of readers and supporters. And yet, copious as are these means of intellectual supply, more are still needed. In addition to the reviews of the day, and passing notices of books, the people, in large numbers, in all parts of our great republic, crave the possession of the books themselves, and details, beyond mere passing allusion, of the progress of discovery in art and science. But though it be easy to ascertain and express their wants, it is not so easy to gratify them. Expense, distance from the emporium of literature, engrossing occupations which prevent personal application or even messages to libraries and booksellers, are so many causes to keep people away from the feast of reason, and the enjoyments of the coveted literary ailment. It is the aim of the publishers of the Library to obviate these difficulties, and enable every individual, at a small cost and without any personal effort, to obtain for his own use and that of his favored friends or family, valuable works complete, on all the branches of useful and popular literature, and that in a form well adapted to the comfort of the reader.

The charm of variety, as far as it is compatible with morality and good taste, will be held innstantly in view in conducting the Library, to fill the pages of which the current literature of Great Britain, in all its various departments of Biography, History, Travels, Novels and Poetry, shall be freely put under contribution With, perchance, occasional exceptions, it is intended to give entire the work which shall be selected for publication. When circumstances, authorize the measure, recourse will be had to the literary stores of Continental Europe, and translations made from French, Italian, or German, as the case may be.

Whilst the body of the work will be a reprint, or at times a translation of entire volumes, the cover, will exhibit the miscellanous character of a Magazine, and consist of sketches of men and things, and notices of novelties in literature and the arts, throughout the civilized world. A full and regular supply of the literary monthly and hebdomada journals of Great Britain and Ireland, in addition to home periodicals of a similiar character cannot fail to provide ample materials for his part of our work.

The resources and extensive correspondence of the publishers, are the best guarantee for the continuance of the enterprise in which they are now about to embark, as well as for the abundance of the materials to give it value in the eyes of the public. As far as judicious selections and arrangement are concerned, readers will, it is hoped, have reason to be fully satisfied, as the editor of the Library is not a stranger to them, but has more than once obtained their favourable suffrages for his past literary efforts.

TERMS.

The work will be published in weekly number containing twenty imperial octave pages with double columns, making two volumes annually, of more than 220 octavo pages, each volume; and at the expiration of every six months, subscribers will be furnished with a handsome title page and table of contents. The whole amount of matter furnished in a single year will be equal to more than forty volumes of the common sized English duodecimo books, the cost of which will be at least ten times the price of a years subscription to the "Library." The paper upon which the Library will be printed, will be of the finest quality used for book-work, and of a size admirably adopted for binding. As the type will be entirely new, and of a neat appearance, each volume, when bound, will furnish a handsome, as well as valuable, and not cumbrous addition to the liberaries of those who patronise the work.

The price of the Libraariy will be five dollars per annum payable advance.

A commission of 20 per cents, will be allowed to agent, and any ageut, or postmaster furning five subscribers and remitting the amount of subscription shall be entitled to the commission of 20 per cent or a copy of the work for one year.

A specimen of the work, or any information respecting it may be obtained by addressing the publishers post paid. Address,
