THE POST OFFICE.

The Committee on the Post Office and Post Roads of the House of Representatives have reported a bill, which has been twice read, entitled "a bill to change the organization of the Post Office Department, and to provide more effectually for the settlement of the accounts thereof." This bill, for a copy of which we are indebted to our representative, Col. HOWARD, is very specific and minute in its provisions and contains thirty-seven sections.

The Postmaster General is required to submit annually to Congress specific estimates of the sums expected to be required for the service of the Department in the subsequent year, commencing on the first day of July under the following heads:—Compensation of Postmasters,—Transportation of the Mails,—ship, steamboat, and way letters, wrapping paper,—office furniture,—advertising,—mail bags,—blanks,—mail locks, keys and stamps,—mail depredations and special agents,—clerks, &c. for offices, and miscellaneous. And the Postmaster General shall render an account to Congress at each succeeding session, of the amounts actually expended for each of the purposes above specified.

The aggregate sum required for the service of the Post-office Department in each year shall not exceed the revenue of the Department for that year.—The moneys collected from the Department to be paid into the U. S. Treasury, and receipts therefore endorsed by the Treasurer on warrants drawn by the Postmaster General; and the appropriations for the service of the Department to be disbursed by the Treasurer upon the warrants of the Postmaster General registered and countersigned as provided.

The bill provides for the appointment, by the President with consent of the Senate, of an Auditor, who shall act as an assistant Postmaster General, who shall receive all accounts arising in the Department, audit and settle the same, close the accounts quarterly, and transmit quarterly to the Treasury statements of its receipts and expenditures. Several sections are devoted to the details of the auditor's duties, in whose office there shall be employed one chief clerk, four principal clerks, and thirty-eight other clerks.

There shall also be employed by the Postmaster General a third assistant Postmaster General, with one chief clerk, three principal and thirty-three other clerks.

The Postmaster General is required to make to Congress annually five different Reports. First: a report of all contracts made for the transportation of the mail within the preceeding year, describing particularly each contract and circumstances connected with it; also an account of all new routes not included in the contracts of the preceeding year.—Second: a report of all allowances made to contractors within the year preceeding, beyond the sums originally stipulated in their respective contracts, and the reasons for the same; and of all orders made by the Department, whereby additional expense is or will be incurred, beyond the original contract price, specifying all circumstances; also a report of all curtailments of expense during the preceeding year.—Third; a report of all incidental expenses of the Department for the year, arranged according to their several objects, as for "wrapping paper," "office furniture" and all the other headings already enumerated, with minute particlars relating to each. Fourth; a report of the finances of the Post Office Department for the year, with the engagements and liabilities of the Department, and all details connected therewith. Fifth; a report of all fines imposed, and deductions from the pay of contractors for failures to deliver the mail, or for any other cause, stating the names of delinquent contractors, and all particulars.

The mode of making contracts for the transportation of the mail is prescribed very definitely, so as to give the Postmaster General as little scope as is compatible with the discharge of his duties, particularly as regard extra allowances. The proposals are to be delivered sealed and to be kept sealed until the biddings are closed, and then to be opened and marked in the presence of the Postmaster General or one of the Assistants. Several sections are devoted to the subject of contracts and contractors.

Section 30 provides that if any Postmaster shall unlawfully detain in office any letter, package, pamphlet or newspaper, with intent to prevent the arrival and delivery of the same to the person or persons to whom they are addressed, or give preference to any letters, &c. by forwarding the one and retaining the other, he shall, on conviction thereof, be fined in a sum not exceeding five hundred dollars, and be imprisoned for a term not exceeding six months and be forever thereafter incapable of holding the office of postmaster in the United States.—[American.

Methodist Book Concern.—A meeting for the purpose o raising means for rebuilding this establishment was held in New York on Monday evening. The New York Commercial of Tuesday says:—

It was of much interest, and its results surpassed our most sanguine expectations. The official proceedings will be shortly published meantime we state, for the information of the public that upwards of THIRTEEN THOUSAND DOLLARS were subscribed."

The same paper contains the following:

Beautiful Incident.—At the meeting of citizens in the Methodist church in Green street, held last evening, for the purpose of taking measures to rebuild the noble structure known as "The Methodist Book Concern," very interesting and impressive addresses were delivered by the Rev. Dr. Bangs, and the Rev. Mr Waugh. The history of that extensive institution, from its infancy, fifty years ago; its recent means of great and extensive usefulness; and the efficient and salutary manner in which they have been applied, were disclosed in the most clear and satisfactory manner, and with the best possible effect, as will be seen in the sequel. In the course of his remarks, Dr. Bangs related the following remarkable incident. Among the burning fragments of books and printed sheets which were whirled aloft upon the wings of the flame, and borne onward upon those of the wind was a page of the Bible containing the lxivth chapter of Isaiah. It was picked up on the morning of the conflagration, about twelve miles distant, on Long Island, and before the catastrophe was known which had carried it thither. It was indeed a winged messenger of truth, in a double sense for the fact is no less striking than authentic, that every word of the page was so marred as to be illegible, save the 11th verse, which reads in the words following.

"Our holy and beautiful house, where our fathers praised thee, is BURNED UP WITH FIRE: and all our pleasant things ARE LAID WASTE!"

We know not how the relation of this incident impressed others, but to us it appeared of striking interest and beauty. True, there seems no special reason why such a message should have been providentially sent to the man who found it; but the message was sent and all but the message was obliterated by the melancholy occurrence of which it gave such signal intelligence. The leaf was brought over to this city by the finder, and has been placed in one of our bookstores.

For the Easton Gazette.

Mr. Graham.—

The "Easton Lyceum" of our town had their first public debate on Wednesday evening last, and as one who attended their meeting on that occasion, I must avail myself of your columns to express the very high degree of pleasure, afforded me by their exhibition. The large number who were present and particularly the great concourse of Ladies, who deigned to grace the meeting with their presence, were sufficient sureties that the object and bearing of the Society had made a highly favourable impression on the public mind. But however much predisposed to be pleased, we will venture to say, that none were prepared to witness so rich an intellectual feast, such ample research and such a high degree of eloquence, as the disputants exhibited on Wednesday evening last. The question was a very interesting one, viz "whether emigration to this country should be restricted," requiring, as you will perceive, much research and diligent study, to do justice to its merits. There were two disputants on each side, the affirmative and negative, and were we not afraid of being invidious, we might go on to particularise the peculiar merits of each speaker.—But as true merit is always diffident, we feel convinced, that those gentlemen would shrink from public praise, and shall rest satisfied with the general observations we have made, and inviting all those who were not favoured on the last evening, to attend the next exhibition of the "Lyceum," which, we understand will be held once in every month.

DEAFNESS.

A York paper sayeth, that a remedy for the restoration of hearing and eyesight is to be had of Doctor Green, Reading, Pa.

It praves effectual when the affliction is caused by nervous weakness, as the remedy gives health and strength to the whole nervous system.

Now—according to the Doctor's practice and principles that

MUCH OF THE ART OF PHYSICK, CONSISTS IN KNOWING WHEN NOT TO GIVE IT, the restoration of hearing is brought about without giving any Physick!—without giving any medicine! as hath been experienced in the editor's own family, as well as in the families of many of his neighbors also. Therefore, and in part return for such great benefits received, we make the above known for the good of our fellow citizens in similar distress.

For a fee of five dollars, assistance is sent—free of postage, for as many as are afflicted in a family including the relative of such family also.

For a fee of ten dollars assistance is sent—free of postage also—for 3 or 4 persons more—in addition—as at times, neighbors, may be, in want of some

And, in case other sickness besides deafness and loss of eyesight happening, help is sent for such sickness without any charge.

The fee pays for all and every help sent to families from time to time.

This is considered a praiseworthy plan.—And in conclusion, it will, no doubt, be very satisfactory for people to know that the assistance is not to be applied to the ears—nor the eyes.

NOT AT ALL.

Consequently no danger whatever can happen to them—no—none whatever.

And during the time that people are using his assistance at home, and learning how to help themselves to restore and recover their hearing—their eyesight, and their health again,

They can follow their customary business;

They can live as usual;

And they can also eat and drink what tastes best.

The following is an extract of a letter from Mr Baker, to the Printer.

MY FRIEND,

The method of using Doctor Green's remedy is innocent—is easy and performs the cure by strengthening the nerves.—My neighbor Jones' wife thought she would try it too, being a long time troubled with weak and sore eyes, together with her deafness, (caused by nervous weakness,) so she sent the customary fee and got some, per mail free of postage, which in a little more than a week made them as good and strong as ever, doing needlework now without spectacle, and now is restored to her eye sight as well as to her hearing.

C. F. BAKER.

N. B. With the remedy the patient receives an instructive and easy way how to preserve health in general, throughout the whole year. This is a great value to families (both to parents and children) and 'tis sent without any charge whatever. It always accompanies the remedy for deafness and eyesight.

Until quite lately people had to go to the Doctor to get help.

This was to them a great trouble.

Absence from home and business neglected.

Danger of travelling,

Running the risk of getting sick, from home, which often happened,

Being obliged to stay with the Doctor at times from 1 to 2 or 3 weeks, and sometimes longer.

Generally cost from 20 up to 30, 40, 50 dollars, and sometimes more.

Now—by this new plan of sending help to people, at their homes, all this is saved, and costs so little that 'tis not worth mentioning.

C. F. BAKER.

THE SALMAGUNDI,

AND NEWS OF THE DAY.

EMBELLISHED WITH A MULTITUDE OF

COMIC ENGRAVINGS.

A new periodical, of a novel character, bearing the above appellation, will be commenced on the beginning of January, 1836—While it will furnish its patrons with the leading features of the news of the day, its principal objects will be to serve up a humorous compilation of the numerous lively and pungent sallies which are daily floating along the tide of Literature, and which, for the want of a proper channel for their preservation, are positively lost to the reading world. Original wits and humorists of our time will here have a medium devoted to the faithful record of the scintillations of their genius. It is not necessary to detail the many attractions which this journal will possess, as the publisher will furnish a specimen number to every person who desire it—(those out of the city will forward their orders, postage paid)—☞ and he pledges himself that no exertions on his part shall be wanting to make each succeding number superior in every respect to the preceding ones.

THE SALMAGUNDI will be printed on large imperial paper, equal in size and quality to that which is at present used for the Gentlemen's Vade Mecum. It is calculated that more than will be furnished to the patrons of this Journal in one year—these, in addition to an extensive and choice selection of Satire, Criticism, Humor and Wit, to be circulated through its columns, will form a Literary Banquet of a superor and attractive order; and the publisher relies with perfect confidence on the liberality of the American public, and the spirit and tact with which this expensive undertaking will be prosecuted, to bear him successfully and profitably along with it.

The terms of the Salmagundi will be TWO DOLLARS per annum, payably invariably in advance. No paper will be furnished unless this stipulation is strictly adhered to.

☞ Clubs of three will be supplied with the paper for one year, by forwarding a five dollar note, postage paid. Clubs of seven will be supplied for the same term, by forwarding a ten dollar note. ☞ The papers that are sent out of the city will be carefully packed in strong envelopes, to prevent their rubbing in the mail.

☞ THE SALMAGUNDI will be published on alternate weeks—otherwise it would be impossible to procure the numerous embellishments which each number will contain—and the general interest it will afford must be enhanced by this arrangement.

☞ All orders must come postage paid.

☞ Address, CHARLES ALEXANDER, Athenian Buildings, Franklin Place, Philadelphia.

MODERN

ACTING DRAMA.

NEW SERIES,

Embelished with Splendid Engravings.

The publisher has been induced, from the extensive patronage bestowed on his work, materially to change its typographical appearance and to improve and enlarge its pages—it is already known to be the most popular edition of Plays which has ever been attempted in this country, and the prospect of its further success is ample and satisfactory. In future the MODERN ACTING DRAMA will be published in monthly numbers of 48 pages each—12 of which will constitute a volume, or one year's subscription—embracing in all FIVE HUNDRED AND SEVENTY-SIX PAGES. Every PLAY or FARCE is to be accompanied by a beautiful and appropriate Engraving—making in the course of the year nearly FIFTY-TWO EMBELISHMENTS—to which will be added as a Frontispiece to the work, a full sized STEEL ENGRAVING, containing the likenesses of SIX DISTINGUISHED ACTORS AND ACTRESSES. Every person who desires to preserve an invaluble collection of the best Dramatic Authors should forward his name forthwith, as the edition will be limited to the number which is absolutely subscribed for. ☞ The publisher pledges himself to make this work equal in interest and superiority of execution to his prospectus, or he will refund the price of subscription, free of all charges.

The first number of the new series will appear about the first of March—this delay is occasioned by the time necessarily consumed to preparing the Engravings. The terms of inte MODERN ACTING DRAMA is three dollars per annum, payable in advance Subscribers to the GENTLEMAN'S VADE MECUM will be furnished with both works for five dollars.

☞ Any Person collecting four subscribers the GENTLEMAN'S VADE MECUM, or the MODERN ACTING DRAMA, and remitting the amount of one year's subscription ($3) for each—shall be presented with the NOVELIST'S MAGAZINE, in two volumes, a work of considerable popularity and which is now selling for $3—it contains the productions of eight different authors, well known to the public as among the most interesting writers of the day.

☞ A large and beautiful white sheet, imperial size, FILLED ON BOTH SIDES WITH HUMOROUS AND COSTLY ENGRAVINGS, will be published every quarter as a supplement to the SALMAGUNDI. It will be furnished gratuitously to all new subscribers to the GENTLEMAN'S VADE MECUM, or the MODERN ACTING DRAMA, and to all the old subscribers of these works who forward their subscriptions, for the present year, in advance, without further solicitations.
