The celebrated set of cameo glassware owned by the late Mrs. Morgan, New York, of peachblow-vase fame, and which | Following the Hunt With Dogs-The cost $18,000, was sold recently at auction for $1,676. But even at those figures it makes pretty expensive property for the hired girl to smash.

A Montana man reached Chicago with five car-loads of good cattle the other day, sold them at an advantage, and turned and gentlemen who, well mounted and Lewes, but the Indians had destroyed it. streams; the shallow murmmr, but the up at a Police Court next morning with close upon a pack of eager hounds, were They continued to lay claim to the counhe had when he started to take in the canyon, or river, just back of the town, public schools will give the basis, the completely fouled, and yelped colleges the intermediate education and howled in impotent rage. the universities the most advanced general and professional instruction.

upon their accommodations.

contradicting the rumor that he was life, and they will scratch when they about to visit Washington. He says "It would be pleasant to view the scenes i climb the tree and dislodge the common which were once so familiar to me," he enemy adds, "though I doubt if I would hardly recognize the city now, as it has so improved and grown. No, I shall never | moments later was making his way along old to travel."

tively but little used.

A stale swindle, which consists in offering new machinery to a farmer on easy ply, the Arroyo, unlike the rest of the which professes to be an order, but turns poplars and live oaks, and altogether has of sustaining them. - Chicago Inter-Ocean. out to be a note for a considerable sum, the appearance of a park. In the center there are thick patches of brush, and has not, it appears, yet become obsolete. here is the retreat of the wildcat and $224, payment of which is afterward denever place yourself in the power of a

A Pennsylvania farmer near Phænix-Then the fuse is fired, and the result is that all the ground hogs in the hole are killed by the concussion.

The Cincinnati Enquirer has received "privately from the Rev. Dr. Bolles of cise: "His means were then small and of sand. One day he shoveled it from lagonist. one end of the cellar to the other; and him to the more intelligent and wholesome exercise of the gymnasium."

It is commonly said that Mr. Spofford, the Librarian of Congress, knows something about the contents of every volume bindings. A member of Congress facegot the whole library at one glance. any subject, or, indeed, if he wants to an animal of more than ordinary spirit to the same source. Members seldom equal to a bear, if it came along. think of looking at the catalogues.

is demanded to square accounts, expended in prospecting for gold.

WILD CATS.

SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA.

Trophy the Skin-A Country in Which Wild Cats Are Plentiful.

"There she is." "Don't fire!"

"Give the dog a chance!" These and many other disconnected says a Pasadena (Cal.) letter to the Phil-

Here the gulch was well filled with wersity predicts that eventually there will in rich festoons masses of wild grape and worthy of this country, in which the caught riders beneath the chin, and so tied up the dogs that they often became

The party had started half a mile below in the clearing and had followed up 1664, by Puritans from Long Island. The the eager dogs that had now treed game first settlement of New Hampshire was mon level receives two educations. First, down stairs, while the great walls, ten hospitals of the explosions and accidents | branches there appeared a long, little in the construction of the great aque- body clinging to the limb, while over the duct. The deaths are publicly reported, side peered the ugly, expressive and decidedly feline face of the wildcat. Exbut no mention is made of the casualties, citement had been at fever pitch when which are almost of daily occurrence. | the hounds struck the trail, but now Several of the hospitals are overcrowded | that the animal was in full view it fairly be carried away by it. "Stand back, ladies!" shouted the master of the hounds, who carried a light Jefferson Davis has written a letter rifle, "sometimes a cat will jump for her

Handing the bridle of his horse to a rider he seized the pendent grape vine and swung up into the tree, and a few again see Washington. I'm getting too the branch toward the crouching cat. the dogs that at first she did not see him, but when he rounded the trunk she sudproduced all the food and textile plants | with a scream of rage, into the red grown to feed and clothe thirty-eight mouths below. The blood and fur flew, millions of people. The untilled area dogs backed out, wiping their heads and yields only fuel. In Japan a wide- ragged ears. But the game was up, and trophy of the wildcat hunt.

Having the advantage of a water supterms, and getting him to sign a paper | country, is well wooded, contains lofty The latest case is of a man who professes | mountain lion, which venture down from manded by a third party. Moral: Never as then the paw-marks are distinctly Abraham Lincoln, when all the most disput your name to any document which seen and the scent fresh, and as the storm | tinguished generals, statesmen and other you do not thoroughly understand, and | clouds blow away from the mountain noted persons, both of the North and ville is waging a successful war on the size and general appearance, and large duce distinguished men to come to him does much damage to meadows. His man or beast. be an album, containing a photograph of | would pop out in spite of all that he with an idea of strength. Its sides are method is to fill a large beer or porter a fresh scent in an extremely narrow cepting the offer, and going to work sysbottle with powder, letting a fuse run place in the canyon, where precipitious tematically and with natural enthusiasm, through the cork. He then places the rocks rose on one side and heavy brush he succeeded, by the most courteous bottle in the ground hog's hole, with the upon the other. The dogs rushed into means, in inducing more than two hunfuse projecting outside, taking care to bounded into the narrow stream and be- ment. As each received his portrait the pack the earth tightly at the mouth of gan an ineffectual scramble up the rocky young man requested an autograph, and the hole and close up firmly all other sides. A bullet caught her before she the total result was an autograph with holes leading to the home of the doomed had gone thirty feet, and turning with a more or less cordial expressions attached, mounted the rider in the melee, and be- lights of that most important Kittens are often seen in play to take one little dreamed he should be President of Cleveland, to whom Mr. Beecher himself | that was adopted by the cat. She fast- universal artist, the sun, has here portold it," the following story about Mr. | ened her claws into the broncho's neck | trayed a face not yet marked with those Beecher's early method of physical exer- and with her sharp hind claws ripped mature and thoughtful lines which grew his domestic surroundings very modest. among the dogs to be torn to pieces amid in that pose of supreme dignity and power But he had a clean, dry, and roomy cellar. | a protest that showed it to be among the | he was so wont to assume, looms from the

the next day he shoveled it back to its where two are together they will have it son, it will be remembered that immediate metal which, upon being cleaned it old position. This he continued until out, and when cornered will fight to the ately upon the intelligence of the assassi- polished, proved to be a piece of pure his brother Tom discovered it, and drove last, and a good big one will make short nation of Lincoln some little shadow of silver about three and three-for work of a hound. One of the best shots suspicion, just momentarily hovered about I have heard of, by a plucky woman, was the Vice-President. Had anything defi- long. At each corner are holes onemade up in the mountains. The farmer nite been uttered and pursued, the young | eighth of an inch in diameter, acc was away from home, and his wife, hear- man who made this collection could easily panied by small buttons, and the n ing a commotion out in the hen or have exonerated Mr. Johnson, for at the is curved like a cuff. Upon the other side. chicken corral, took a revolver and ran very moment when Booth fired the fatal running along the edge, is some light out. It was a bright moonlight night, shot, Andrew Johnson and he were in in the library. This means that he has could see nothing that looked like an about and giving and receiving the auto- "cuff" is engraved the British crown, at stowed away in a moderate sized head enemy. Finally she entered the corral, graph which adorns the historic page .--600,000 volumes of various sizes and and there in the corner, where it was New York World. dark, she saw a pair of gleaming fiery eyes. She knew it was either a wildcat tiously said: "I don't read books, I read or mountain lion and moved backward Spofford." In that way, he added, he quickly, not, however, before the anima had launched itself into the air. Believfigure of speech, but not as broad as it ing itself concerned, it was preparing to Carthage shook dice for the remuneramake a break for liberty, but she was too sounds. If a member or a Senator wants | quick. Stepping back, she fired off-hand a quotation that cannot be found in any and planted a bullet directly between the of the "Familiar Quotations," and is of eyes of the wildcat-for it was one-and very obscure origin, he goes to Mr. Spof- the big cat fell directly at her feet in its death-agony, snarling and tearing up the ford. If he wants the best authority on ground in a manner that showed it to be learn anything that may be found in any This same woman killed a dozen or more of those thousands of volumas, he goes | rattlesnakes in her yard last spring, using a common cane, and probably would be

The Thirteen Colonies. The first permanent settlement in the was first settled by the Dutch, who established a colony on Manhattan Island in 1623. They called the colony New English in 1664. Delaware was first per- | sleep. manently settled by the Swedes, who creek in 1638. The Dutch had estabsentences came from a crowd of ladies lished a colony before this in 1630; near seventy-five cents, which was all that pushing into a thick patch of underbrush try, however, and conquered the Swedish remained of the thousands of dollars that in the center of the Arroyo Seco, a dry settlement in 1655, and it passed also into the hands of the English in 1664. The first settlement in Pennsylvania was also made by the Swedes, who planted a little Ex-President White of Cornell Uni- tall trees from whose branches there fell of the colony proper, however, began i colony at Chester in 1648. The settlement 1681; with a colony sent out by William be formed a great educational system clematis that formed ropes that deftly Penn, who brought another compar himself in the following year. Their first by Penn in 1683. The first settlement others just as you love to be treated yourin New Jersey was made at Elizabeth in | self. made by the establishment of two fishing stations at Portsmouth and Dover in 1623 by Massachusetts colonists. Connecticut was first settled by immigrants from Massachusetts at Wethersfield in 1634. The Saybrook colony sent out from England settled at the mouth of the Connecticut River in 1635. Rhode Island's first settlement was at Providence in 1636 by in consequence of this unusual demand boiled over, even the horses appeared to Roger Williams, who had been driven by persecution from the Massachuetts colony. Settlement was begun in Maryland in 1634 by Leonard Calvert, brother of Lord Baltimore, who founded a colonly near the mouth of the Potomac and called it St. Mary's. These settlers The ladies fell back a little and a were Roman Catholics who had fled that he will never see the capital again. youngster in the purty volunteered to from persecutions in England. The first settlement in North Carolina by an Eng- | the Pacific Ocean, for the Smithsonian | great rough porters more frightened than lish colony sent out by Sir Walter Raleigh in 1585, had been a failure. A small colony from Virginia had pushed down image, which is now on its way here, is dragged down our own luggage the coast and settled the northern coast about eight feet high, four feet wide and saved everything. Twenty thousand of Albemarle sound, about 1650, but the | three feet thick. It is roughly carved or | people packed the public square. first colony was formed by a company hewed. A head of another image was The second shock was more terrible She was so intently engaged looking at from Barbadoes, which settled near the also secured, and some of the officers ob-

Cape Fear river in 1665. South Carolina | tained by purchase other curiosities, | not remember whether it was two sechad also an early settlement by the which could not be obtained elsewhere, onds or two hours after the first shock. There are twenty millions of people in denly caught sight of the new enemy, French, at Port Royal in 1652, which which the Smithsonian will probably take But it was a fearful convulsion. Then the Japan belonging to the agricultural drew back with a quick growl, glanced proved a failure. A permanent settle off their hands. The images, he said, are panic became general. Think of it—70, classes, but of its area of one hundred this way and that, as if measuring the ment was made by an English colony scattered all over the island, although 000 people trying to dodge 20,000 build millions of acres twelve millions only chances, and, perhaps, would have jumped, when the climber deftly struck in pedestals and broken. It was customary the city fall in ruins. New York could pedestals and broken. It was customary the city fall in ruins. New York could pedestals and broken. English colony under James Ogelthorpe in for the natives to erect them over the not stand a minute under such shocks. 1733. The governments of these colonies | cemeteries. They would bury their dead | The great blocks of public buildings rose | had each certain peculiarities, but they in cells, with stone walls on three sides, and fell like ships in a storm. The more larger of the like ships in a storm. The more larger of the like ships in a storm. The more larger of the like ships in a storm. The more larger of the like ships in a storm. The more larger of the like ships in a storm. The more larger of the like ships in a storm. The more larger of the like ships in a storm. The more larger of the like ships in a storm. The more larger of the like ships in a storm. The more larger of the like ships in a storm. The more larger of the like ships in a storm of the like ships in a storm. The more larger of the like ships in a storm of the like ships in a storm. The more larger of the like ships in a storm of the like ships in a storm. The more larger of the larg may all be divided for conveniences into and with an inclined wall of earth at the tion was unlike anything moved by nat- fered at private sale. three classes—the charter colonies, the rear. They would cover over the burial ural laws. Gravitation seemed entirely The improvements consist of a handsome proprietary colonies, and the royal colo- cells and form a top of flagstones to the suspended during the throes. My feet and convenient COTTAGE, bladed mattock is the common implement it was with great difficulty that the skin nies. The charter colonies were Mas- platform, on which would be in the air and in a moment later good Cellar; Fountain Pump > ful enough to carry away houses far from These had no charters, and their govern- houses, but they intuitively bury their were trunks. Women ran around trying ors were appointed by the king. Nearly all of them were proprietary governments | - Washington Star.

A Unique-Album.

for a short time at first, but were given up by the proprietors because of the difficulty

One of the unique volumes in the world to sell tool-sharpeners, and humbugs the the upper range, while the coyote and an -a work of great historical value-has innocent farmers into signing a note for occasional bear lend variety to the sur- just come into the possession of Col. John Hay, former Secretary to Abraham After a rain the hunts are organized, Lincoln. During the administration of sides and the warm sun comes out, the South, were to be found in Washington, bay of the hounds of some sportsman is Mr. Brady, the celebrated photographer, nearly always heard. The wildcat of told a young man employed as confiden this country is a large, powerful anima', tial clerk to one of the officers of Governapproaching the lynx, also found here, in ment that if he would take pains to inground hog, which as every farmer knows, enough to inflict dangerous wounds upon to be photographed, his reward should On one occasion the hounds came upon every person he obtained. Eagerly ac- could do. the latter, and a moment later a large cat | dred gentlemen to visit Brady's establishsnarl of rage she leaped directly into the written directly across the foot of each air, fell upon the neck of a broncho, dis- picture. Very many of the brilliant fore she could be dislodged tore and teresting epoch have long since passed lacerated the animal in a fearful manner. into the eternal shadow. Garfield, who with their hind feet, and it was this plan portrait was so cleverly sketched by that and clawed until the animal was a mass into his handsome countenance with later of blood and lacerated flesh, then fell experiences: while grand old Gen. Scott, He procured to be delivered there a load gamest of animals and worthy a good an- little picture even as he did in life; as Only a few days ago a resident of ol a great mountain towers and broadens | Kaskasia, while engaged in some pursuit Ordinarily the wildcat will sneak off above the lesser hills.

Antiquity of Gambling.

believe they played dominoes Egypt 3,000 years ago for money, and I dare say the mercenaries of ancient tion they had for their brutal services San Francisco Chronicle.

WORDS OF WISDOM.

Error in itself is always invisible;

trust of the liar when he speaks the truth. the hardest labor brings the soundest

Circumstances are the rulers of the weak; they are but the instruments

Recompense injury with justice, and kindness with kindness. Reputation is what men and wome think of us; character is what God and the angels know of us. It will be found that they are the weakest-minded and the hardest-hearted men that most love change. True politeness is perfect ease and freephia, this city being laid out and named | dom. It simply consists in treating > most personal and important, from him-When private virtue is hazarded upon the very centre. Among all the many kinds of first love that which begins in childish com ship is the strongest and most enduring when passion comes to unite its forces to long affection, love is at its springtide.

Lieut. Stone, who secured the prehis-

cut. These had charter from the king, sea, according to the size of the platform. as they leaned over on the earth billows stone water; Coalhouse, Icehouse, Wood Dec 27 Hunting this short-tailed feline is a which gave them the power to elect their | The images were made from conglomerate | sweeping across the city. feature of Southern California out-door own officers and govern themselves. stone in the side of a crater, and hewn Fortunately for us, Mr. Burke and my TENANT HOUSE, and a LARGE The English War Office refused per- sports. The deep canyons that radiate James II. succeeded in altering the char- with stone axes, and by cutting through self had purchased tickets for Paris on the emptorily to permit the landing in Ire- down from the Sierra Madres form their ter of Massachusette so as to take from a single stratum the image could be easily previous day. At the station we found Suitable for a Brewery, Distillery, Tannery land of the Gate City Guards of Atlanta, retreat, and that of large game in genthe colonists the election of their princiseparated from the next stratum, and then 18,000 persons praying to go on the next of large game in genthe colonists the election of their princiseparated from the next stratum, and then 18,000 persons praying to go on the next of large game in genthe colonists the election of their princiseparated from the next stratum, and then 18,000 persons praying to go on the next stratum. eral. As a rule, the canyons end at the pal officer, The attempt was made to moved on an incline and erected. The train. The ears, holding seventy people, The Lot contains 3 acres, more or less, and Ga., under uniform. But General Bou- foot of the range, but the great Arroyo deprive Connecticut of her charter at the images are of different sizes, the largest were literally packed with humanity, but encloses a choice variety of Fruit Trees. langer, the French War Minister, in his | Seco may be traced for ten miles from same time, but failed. The proprietary one being about seventy feet long, but a multitude who were outside could not reply to Captain T. F. Burke, the commander of the company save. "It will this distance forming a river bed from same time, but latted. The proprietary one being about seventy feet long, but a multitude who were outside could not colonies were Maryland and Pennsylvania this was never removed, and lies in its get near the train. As high as 1,000 tain, this property would make a delightful this distance forming a river bed from mander of the company, says: "It will this distance forming a river bed from __including Delaware. These were given bed in the side of the crater, where the francs were offered for a place on the summer residence. afford me the greatest pleasure to see you in France with the Cate City Guards in France with the Cate in France with the Gate City Guards, is here, but the water is in the summer ters to the colonists, defining their privitwo miles from the shore. It took about ceived by telegraph that another shock coming as you do to give testimony to the only represented by a pool here and there leges, and appointed governors for them. eighty men two days to bring it down on from Rome or some other point would patriotic friendship that exists between where the water reaches the surface, The royal colonies were New Hampshire, rollers. Lieut. Stone and the present reach Nice in an hour. This created a the United States and my own beloved while in the winter its bed, after a heavy New York, New Jersey, Virginia, North inhabitants know nothing about the fresh panic. Men in excitement shoulrain, contains a torrent fierce and power- Carolina, South Carolina and Georgia. images or the fresco decorations of the dered half-dressed women, thinking they dead in close proximity to these statues. Anecdotes About Beecher. Mr. Beecher was very proud of a compliment paid his preaching by a little whether the town sank with everybody boy, who said: "I don't know what he means, but somehow I feel better." When his mother died he was only three years old, and he did not go to the funeral. They told him that they had laid his mother in the ground, and that going to Heaven to find ma." strated with him for saying funny things | richly carved cornices, all of the purest noticed them coming he tried hard to tation of the Parthenon at Athens.

that there was a dead letter in the office with heavy bolts. The door of the tomb for Mr. Beecher: "We must all die! And is seven feet thick. In the coffins inside though the premature decease of my poor are the bodies of Mae, Mr. Drexel's marletter should excite a proper sympathy ried daughter; of Frank, his eldest son, the date of its death? Of what did it ship. The mausoleum is always the first tention and such consolation as benefited in Woodland Cemetery, near the Schuylany effects? Will you kindly see to its guards. Mr. Drexel is said to have wellfuneral? I am strongly inclined to cre- grounded fear of grave robbers. letters of mine are sick-dangerously Drexel tomb, and its door, through which don't notify me till after the funeral."

A Revolutionary Relic. Rev. J. C. Ferlandt, of Kaskaskia, I. has in his possession one of the quaintest relics of revolutionary times that has been brought to light for a long time near the caving banks of the river, dis when attacked and take to a tree, but Apropos of the picture of Andrew John- covered an old, black looking strip of ornamental work done by the carver and everything was illumined, yet she quite another part of the city, talking serpentine lines. In the center of the other the word "Montreal" is stamped. There is no date. Rev. Ferlandt thinks it is part of the dress of some British officer who proudly trod the streets Kaskaskia in 1775.

Quite Famous Diamonds.

in Europe is the Orloff, or Moon of the was reduced to 137 .-- London Letter, Vivid Account of an Earthquake. A gentleman in Nice during the recent an encore from the angels in the gallery. It was very late when I reached home: One of the penalties of lying is the dis- I was quartered in the third floor of the Grand Hotel. Though it was nearly dayight I could not sleep, and so lay in bed reading a book. Suddenly and without warning a roar more terrible than a tor nado came. A thousand mines seemed exploding under the floor and a thousand roof. The noise was indescribable. Passions are likened best to floods and seemed as if the world were being ground to pieces and the city with it. The first shock threw me into the middle of the floor, which tipped up like the roof of a house. I tried to walk, but was pitched from side to side, and I went after it. boy. As soon as I could master myself I managed by a great effort to reach | ---the door leading into Mr. Burke's room, adjoining. It was locked. I kicked and pounded, but in that awful roar an earthquake-that we must fly to the street. We burst open the double doors, Every man who rises above the comand in some way, I don't know how, got from his instructors; the second, the feet thick, were cracking with artillery WILLIAM BRACE. on the floors below us were like a riot in long hair streaming down their backs, the perilous cast of expediency, the pil rushed wildly around, beseeching th lars of the republic, however appare porters to save them. One woman aptheir stability, are infected with decay a peared with a bird cage and two canaries. The birds were so frightened that they hung backs downwards from their cage with their eyes closed. Having experienced earthquakes in San Francisco I thought I was familiar with them, but at Nice the horror was beyond description. On the street the people lost their heads Easter Island Images.

Fifty dollars were offered for any kind of a vehicle. Hundreds of tadies in their toric stone image from Easter Island, in | night garments fell on their knees before Institution, while attached to the Mo- themselves. Money could not hire them hican, stated to a Star reporter that the to go into the buildings for trunks. W sachusette, Rhode Island and Connectithere to a dozen images overlooking the I could see the tops of four-story houses in the yard of excellent sand-were trunks. Women ran around trying to save little trinkets, utterly bereft of sense or judgment, and imploring the guards to put them on the cars. The morning train did not get off until noon. Then I was happy. An earthquake changes a man's nature. I did not care in it if I could only get away.

A Millionaire's Mausoleum. A. J. Drexel, the millionaire ba she had gone to Heaven. One morning and the head of the firm of Drexel & Co., he was found digging under the window. has built a magnificent tomb in Wood His sister Catharine asked him what he land Cemetery, West Philadelpnia, by was doing and he replied: "Why, I am the banks of the silvery Schuylkill Liver. It is an imposing structure in the form of A member of his church once remon- a Greek temple, with stately columns and in the pulpit, and he remarked that if he white Italian marble. Its roof is an imisteer clear of them, but sometimes they The mausoleum has been built mainly far more massive than those of a bank Postmaster McLeer, of Brooklyn, re- vault. The entrance is guarded by iron ceived this reply once to a notification and steel doors of great thickness, studded (and I hope it does), yet I am greatly and of one or two others. The coffins sustained under the affliction. What was are wonders of cost and rare workman-Had it in its last years proper at- thing to catch the stranger's eye walking the melancholy occasion? Did it have kill. It is watched day and night by May I ask whether any other Old oaks and hickories overhang the

If any depart this life hereafter the body of the great banker will be carried some day, faces the rising sun .--

> A Dream That Was Worth Money. Mr. Fred J. Clark, a draughtsman at he Union Pacific shops, dreamed one night not long ago that he had deposited small sum in a bank at Charlestown. Mass., many years ago, and that it had never been drawn out. The impression of the dream was retained in his mind until morning, and, as he could rememper that he had at one time a small sum on deposit in the bank, Mr. Clarke wrote to a friend in Boston asking him to in vestigate the matter. It was found that the dream had been true and the money left at interest for twenty-four years, had increased to about $800. The necessary preliminaries were gone through with nd Mr. Clarke has just received the mount named above, which stood to his credit there all that time .- Omaha Re-

In Bed for Forty-three Years. A remarkable character of Independence, Mo., died there a short time ago -Louisann, wife of Henry Redewald. For forty-three years and three months I doubt not that Nebuchadnezzar's army | Mountain, 193 carats, once owned by a she came to Indepe dence from Germany antied up in their camp in the warm As- Great Mogul, then by a Shah of Persia, in 1840, and the house which then besyrian night; and while Brutus was quar- | now by the Czar of Russia. This stone | came their home was the one in which eling with Cassius in his tent the Roman | is of the finest water, and its size that of she died-a log cabin on Lexington soldiery were probably shaking their pros- a pigeon's egg; the shape, however, is street. Her disability resulted from pective drachmas at some game of chance. | not perfect. The Grand Tuscan is next | childbirth, and her lower limbs have Still, in the nineteenth century, with in order of weight, 139 1-2 carats, and been entirely useless. She has worked civilization in full blast and a hundred | belongs to the Emperor of Austria. It | incessantly with her hands and has made religious creeds fighting for the regula- is cut as a rose diamond, and is rather all manner of needlework. Every stitch tion of people's morals, the three-card lessened in value through being of a yel- of her burial robe was wrought by her monte performers scoop in the astute man low tint. The most perfect diamond is own hands. She had a friend in every boy GREAT BRITAIN has demanded $1,000,000 | The Parliament of the Colony of Vic- of business and the bunko man lands the the Regent. Its original weight was 410 and girl in the neighborhood, and mands. If not paid at once, Tortugas Island toria has voted the sum of $400,000 to be statesman and the poet just as of old! carats, but after being cut as a brilliant, it devoted much time to them, instructing wrugs, Medicines, Paints, Wall Paper.

GEORGE A. WINGERT, DRUGGIST, FROSTBURG, Mb.,

Drugs, Medicines, Paiats, Oils, DYE-STUFFS, FINE TOILET NOTIONS. An Endless Variet

WINDOW GLASS-ALL SIZES. Prescriptions promptly and accurately

BEALL'S BLOCK. - FROSTBURG, MD. Professional Cards. J. SEMMES DeVECMON, ATTOPNEY-AT-LAW, Cumberland, Md. Clayton Purnell, ATTORNEY-AT-LAW, Office-W. L. Annan's Book STORE.

Brace & Richmond, ATTORNEYS-AT-LAW,

Frostburg, Md.

Office-No. 4, Washington St., Cumberland

Type Foundry.

CORNER SOUTH AND GERMAN S Baltimore, Md.

ESTABLISHED 1855. The Largest and Best in the South. TOOR BEAUTY AND DURABILITY their I Copper-Mixed Type has no equal. and the State of Maryland. Furnish prompt

Valuable Property for Sale. PRIVATE SALE

Very Valuable Real Estate. THE "SAND SPRINGS PROPERTY," sit-

house, Washhouse and good Stabling; a

Two-Story Building,

Hat, Cap, Boot and Shoe Emporium. THOMAS'

Boot, Shoe, Hat & Cap Emporium THE LATEST NOVELTIES IN BOOTS and SHOES A RENOW DISPLAYED on my counters, Every style of Gentlemen's Hats and Caps at LOW PRICES. ply of Leather and Shoe Findings.

also keep constantly on hand a large subn inspection of my stock before purchas TRUNKS A SPECIALTY.

WILLIAM THOMAS Main Street, Frostburg, Md 1-9 Agent for the Peerless Remington Sewing

Groceries.

Don't Wait Till To-Morrow TO GO TO ORT'S FOR NTOT the kind that have been laying on to specialize, but bend your steps hitherward and see for yourself. Green Groceries That make glad the heart of the housewifethe very morning they are plucked.

the shelf for a score of years. No need

We Have Chiseled Down Prices To the very bottom-and "still some." Tobaccos and Cigars of All Grades In the latter I have two specialties which I commend to the attention of the smoking

The "Alma". 2 for 5 cents. The "Baffler" 5 cents. GEORGE ORT, Call and try them. WEST ROOM, KELLER'S BUILDING.

The "Little Gem"

Is now in ship-shape to wait on its many friends, JUST ONE BOOK WEST OF HARDWARE STORE. TICE Fresh Goods at "Rock Bottom"

Prices. Please give me a call and insure DON'T FORGET

SPECIALTY. Properties receive careful O. D. HARTZELL Who is Prepared to Meet You

WITH a Large Assortment of CONFEC TIONERIES, NUTS, Tobacco, Cigars, CANNED GOODS, GROCERIES,

A HEARTY WELCOME EXTENDED TO ALL. Next door to F. C. Beall's Hardware store.

Hotels and Restaurants. DIEDMONT (Baltimore & Ohio Railroad.)

West Virginia. J. P. A. ENTLER.

PIEDMONT, W. VA., T. KENNY, PROPRIETOR. THIS HOTEL has one of the finest Sample I rooms on the line of the Baltimore and Fros.burg, Md. INSURANCE.

A long and successful experien to has enabled me to se-oct from the great number of companies doing business this country those among the Strongest and Most Reliable, ssured in cas of loss or damage by fire. Persons in rostburg and vicinity desiring to insure will please call

J. B. ODER, Frostburg, Md.,

And also to porperly Write all forms to fully protect the

Who is my agent to receive applications and collect premiums.

D. P. MILLER. Cumberland, Md

WHO IS UNACQUAINTED WITH THE CEOCRAPHY OF THIS COUNTRY, WILL SEE BY EXAMINING THIS MAP, THAT THE

CHICAGO, ROCK ISLAND & PACIFIC R'Y By reason of its central position, close relation to principal lines East of Chicago and continuous lines at terminal points West, Northwest and Southwest—is the only true middle-link in that transcontinental system which invites and facil-The Rock Island main line and branches include Chicago, Joliet, Ottawa, La entre and Council Bluffs, in Iowa; Gallatin, Trenton, St. Joseph, Cameron at Minneapolis and St. Paul, in Minnesota; Watertown in Dakota, and hundreds of intermediate cities, towns and villages. THE CREAT ROCK ISLAND ROUTE is thoroughly ballasted. Its track is of heavy steel. Its bridges are soli structures of stone and iron. Its rolling stock is perfect as human skill can make ical-its discipline strict and exacting. The luxury of its passenger accommod ALL EXPRESS TRAINS between Chicago and the Missouri River consist of comfortable DAY COACHES, magnificent PULLMAN PALACE PARLOR and SLEEPING CARS, elegant DINING CARS providing excellent meals, and between Chicago, St. Joseph, Atchison and Kansas City-restful RECLINING CHAIR CARS.

THE FAMOUS ALBERT LEA ROUTE Is the direct, favorite line between Chicago and Minneapolis and St. Paul. Over desirable route, via Seneca and Kankakee, offers superior inc localities and hunting and fishing proudd of Iowa and Minnesota. The rice wheat fields and grazing lands of interior Dakota are reached via Watertown to travelers between Cincinnati, Indianapolis, Lafayette and Council Bluffs, St Joseph, Atchison, Leavenworth, Kansus City, Minneapolis, St. Paul and inter-All classes of patrons, especially families, ladies and children, receive from officials and employes of Rock Island trains protection, respectful courtesy and For Tickets, Maps, Folders - obtainable at all principal Ticket Offices in the United States and Canada - or any desired information, address,

R. R. CABLE, E. ST. JOHN, Pres't & Gen'l M'g'r, Chicago.

Ass't Gen'l M'g'r, Chicago.

E. A. HOLBROOK, Gen'l Tkt. & Pass. Agt., Chioass