SIXTEENTH YEAR.-No. 47.

FROSTBURG, MD., SATURDAY, AUGUST 13, 1887.

New Business Locals.

Sold by G. A. Wingert.

vite you to call and get a trial bottle free.

Business Locals.

Mp., June 3, 1887.—Having been stationed at the Braddock Distillery whilst in operation as people whom he served to sustain difficult to limit. Better not grat- Berkeley. But its latest development tug-of-war between the Mt. Savage and Bord- war between the Mt. Savage a United States Storekeeper and Guager—
I hereby certify, That James Clark & Co., Distillers, in the manufacture of their Braddock Pure Rye Whiskey use only Rye and Barley Malt. Respectfully, L. H. Trook."

sale by G. A. Wingert.

Inited States Storekeeper and Guager-Malt Whiskey use only Barley Malt. JNO. H. YOUNG."

Wilson guarantees to cure all such cases. Guarantee of Purity .- "CUMBERLAND, Malt Whiskey use only Barley Malt. J. P. WILLIARD." If your breath is bad, consult Dr. Wilson,

New Advertisements.

MISS HELEN BERKEY TATILL RE-OPEN HER Private School | now. Monday, Sept. 5.

BOARD OF COUNTY SCHOOL COMMISSIONERS OF ALLEGANY COUNTY, MD., CUMBERLAND, MD., August 9, 1887. DIDS will be received until 10 o'clock a. D m., AUGUST 17 1887, by the County School Commissioners for the Building of a Schoolhouse

AT ROCKVILLE, MD. T. G. McCULLOH.

DRY COODS. A BEAUTIFUL LINE OF

CROCERIES. WE HAVE A FIRSTCLASS BRAND OF Deviled Crabs. 8 empty shells go with each can. This is a great delicacy, and one easily prepared. Each can has simple and full directions. Spanish Olives, Green Gages, Lobsters and Shrimps IN CANS, AMERICAN and FRENCH SARDINES

OF THE BEST BRANDS.

MUNN & JONES: hind on orders:

Will ship you five from here to-day. J. M. MOFFATT. A letter from the factory states: Your orders have had attention. But have to say that the company has now hines now peddled around Frostburg, whose

MUNN & JONES, FROSTBURG AND CUMBERLAND.

Taying secured the agency for the celebrated | were well received. Flushed with success he | olized. Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, plunged into journalism, with what result the above valedictory informs us .- Cumber-

Swinton was an "over-due appre- Better bear the evils of a worship too and Section." It is an old one, first Guarantee of Purity.-"Cumberland, clation" of the willingness of the public than interfere with a right foretold by the great and good Bishop he attempted to subserve specially inevitable when the house built on when the worn-out and effete Jackthe interest of a class. He pub- sand shall fall. the Braddock Distillery whilst in operation as | He yelled in the finest diction and | factions in Frostburg. I hereby certify, That JAMES CLARK & Co., howled in the most elegant rhetoric the manufacture of their Pure for the down-trodden bread-hunter.

But all to a purpose worse, if possible, than that which would win disaster most dire, or accomplish suicide most complete.

The average labor mind, full of eby certify, That James Clark & Co., political ambitions, and fascinated by the meretricious charms of popular preferment, is not able as yet to tolerate brains on its side.

Hence, it wants no friends from the "outside," nor will it trust those inside. It hates rivalry hereafter or

The house thus prospectively "divided against itself" cannot

In view of the controversy which has sprung up between James Campbell and the Lonaconing Review concerning the proper application of the make up the great knighthood of terms, hog, cur, crank, fool and labor. blackguard, it is appalling to reflect on the force and effect of that scriptural comment on the gentleman in the first degree, or something worse than fire and brimstone would man" his own "master." have been hunted up to serve as an adequate penalty. For instance, we BECAUSE a man wants an office, women and all—if any at all. believe "hog" is the unlovliest name a or even because he needs office this man can be called, and yet it is in tall, is not a valid reason why he CORRESPONDENCE the personal vocabulary of our should be gratified. Floor, Table and Shelf Oilcloths time back referred to the Journal prosper better when such men fail. have felt that we were misunder- forever.

but it has come. first at Schaidt, then at Campbell- others a chance to serve their country drenching rain. would suspect either of owning a either with joy or grief. linguistic curry-comb that always The coming juncture commands pected it to be on account of not Edward Betz, rubs a fellow upwards and dives into the people to place their most ef- having it cooked in time. There was Charles Blasse, the quick. Mild-mannered, brother- fective men in the field, and de- plenty of it, but the cooking arrange- R. G. Colborn, Jy, and the very pinks of decorum mands of the latter the sacrifice of ment was very inconvenient, and we George J. Conner, socially, how is it possible that so the patriot, if not the heroism of the could not understand why it was there William H. D. much gall can be successfully mask- martyr. ed under an exterior of unruffled There was never a time in this used to it and were better satisfied. Gladstone Hitchins, George Smith, THE telegram below will explain in part The reflection fills us with grief, and foolishness in politics than now. to our customers why we cannot supply we beseech our friends to retire at world, the—
"ICHT PUNING DOMESTIC:"

once to the privacy of their boudoirs and endeavor to wash away, in peniperson tential tears, the scarlet stains that the scarlet stains the scarlet stai disfigure their souls. If the boudoir of any absence of hope of electing it.—Fred-that came into camp had to go up in The ladies from abroad were Misses: hold a bazar and festival in the skatin either case is too public the tear- | The Examiner is quite right. It is the duty | bath may be omitted. over five thousand machines ordered ahead of for shouting halleluia on the street Does that imply that "the op- would come out of their tents and get Sue Kalbaugh....... "D." S. M. Co. Thirst for martyrdom, long ago has not done so?

On the other hand, the age of en- State" been placed in jeopardy by county to contest for, which, we think, to wait, for if you take one of the serv inferior brands of sewing ma- lightenment is too far advanced for the nominations already made? fear of any religious organization not If neither, what, then, is "the presdistinctively irreligious. The right ent emergency?" to worship God according to the dictates of conscience is too well To the Journal it looks like a we came home he treated the comsettled to be disturbed now. For dangerous thing to do-arrest two pany to a box of eigars.

What is left to us, therefore, is involved in the term, "policy." The JOURNAL thinks it not good policy for the Salvation Army to in irretrievable disgrace. compete for the "madding crowd" over-due appreciation of his abilities, which, all men after them. Thus the day. failed to perceive and substantially recog- churches would learn and profit by Great want of discretion has been following announcement, will not be A. A. Wingert can always be relied upon, not only to carry in stock the best of everything, on the only to carry in stock the best of everything, on the one of the o lessons, and being successful, he pitched into fective, should not be patented, copy- administrative or executive depart- "Frostburg Literary and Recreation William Payne & Co., Edward Dufty, Horace M. Simmons, M. D., assubject taught in the public schools, which righted or in any manner monop- ments of the town government, or in Similar Payle & Co., Edward Durty, righted or in any manner monop- with the Presbyterian Ob-

No, sir-"the trouble with John be too intolerant of religious zeal. The West; a Story of Our Own Day Among the attractions are the following. him. Instead of "plunging into lify a taste for persecution, but rather became the main incident of the journalism" to serve the public good hope for the early coming of the day recent State democratic convention in the world for Cuts, Bruises, Sores, Ulcers, lished the brightest, best, keenest A little common sense, a little woolly Baughman. Salt Rheum, Fever Sores, Tetter, Chapped Hands, Chilblains, Corns, and all Skin labor paper in the world. His pen, judicial weighing of rights, a little When the two, however, with the upper hall of Ravenscraft's Opera Eruptions, and positively cures Piles, or no pay required. It is guaranteed to give per- a very blade of Damascus, cut and patience, coupled with a great deal Wyllyam Pynkney Whyte, succeed House by the "Young Folks' Pleasure fect satisfaction, or money refunded. For slashed at vital parts and dug into of assumed ignorance and deliberate in making the canal an oriental Circle." Of the 100 persons invited the core of every question where indifference, will settle a question annex to the West Virginia Central over 90 attended, an exceedingly large of the proposal to widen Steyer street. are visiting Mrs. H.'s father, Judge J. Guarantee of Purity.—"Cumberland, and labor had joined issue. which has needlessly aroused two railway, it will be seen that the star turnout for an affair conceived and labor had joined issue. Which has needlessly aroused two railway, it will be seen that the star turnout for an affair conceived and labor had joined issue. Which has needlessly aroused two railway, it will be seen that the star turnout for an affair conceived and labor had joined issue.

> It is said the Salvation Army does not show scriptural or patriotic "Is this," queried Shadrach wants martial law.

This is a grave error, both in you?" action and desire.

knowledge" folks, and ought to be mingled with the blanket? borne while the lamp of toleration "holds out to burn."

The same ardor has retarded prohibition, when more considerate respect for popular rights would have rampant among the sons of men who solid for forty millions anyhow.

But even here "the survival of the fittest" is on its way, and the day is not far distant when the brethren that refers to his brother as a "fool." shall see eye to eye and face to face- thing except, perhaps, Col. Averitt's Happily, the other words were not when every man shall be his own military title. current when "fool" was a noun Salvation Captain, every citizen his IT is not right for the Salvation own prohibitionist, and every "work- Army to obstruct travel or business amiable friends, one of whom some Generally in such cases, the people as the Nestor of the press of Alle- The latter, once in, are inveterate-Ingrain and Rag Carpets. gany and the most accomplished ly tenacious. They become enamor- their kindness towards us as shown in Bessie Coyner, pitcher of mud in the directory. ed of immortality, and would no donations to the stand of colors, we May Gunter, We are pleased to note a practical doubt "live always nor welcome the want also to let them know something Ina Frey, retraction of this statement, for we tomb" if they could hold their places about how the boys enjoyed camp Annie Hitchins, ities. The vindication comes late, to promote rotation. They fresweetness and undimpled loveliness? county when there was less room for We got plenty to eat; got right down Alexander Hocking, John Stewart,

THE day for religious noise on the it will do so for the honor and credit of the "after tags" to keep quiet and every Fannie Marean.....

corners, if it ever existed, has no position should put forth its best into some mischief. tour machines with our usual prompt- satiated, has no claim to renewed And have the "honor and credit of set-up, and left a splendid prize

the privilege of one in this case, as of a crowd of twenty or thirty equal- A great many of the boys visited The limestone contract was looked tisement of Hitchins Bros.

Thursday evening a single blow of the several threatened would have raised a riot and involved the town

Whatever arrests were necessary in the haunts of men. It would be could have been made when every-The trouble with John Swinton was an far better to seek seclusion and draw body had gone home, or even next of empire still rules from the occi dental slope of the sky.

deference to "the powers that be." | Meshach and Abednego, when Neb Whence, it is presumed, the Army uchadnezzar closed-the furnace-door on them-"is this hot enough for

But it is one made nearly every William Williams on the outside of thanks without limit. time a new method of warfare the cooler, did the old goddess, The grand opening promenade beagainst the world, the flesh and the Justice, usually pictured with a gan about 10 o'clock with 29 couples below: devil takes hold of the emotions of blanket drawn taut across her eyes- in line. The spacious, brilliantly after hearing a numerously signed petition well-meaning but "zealous-without- did the old goddess have a bed-quilt lighted hall never presented a scene read and ably argued by friends of the however, with even more vim, and

Is Uncle Sam a good business man? He attire of the gentlemen, the measured termined last Monday that Steyer street could a hearing before Justice Moat set for owns about sixty million dollars' worth of We should say not, especially when the Journal is handy. For about two hundred and forty thousand And we have seen a kindred spirit dollars a year we could make him Col. BAUGHMAN accepts.

He endorses the platform and the nominations of Jackson and Whyte -in fact he approves of nearly every-three, but take the whole phalanx-

LIFE IN CAMP.

FROSTBURG, MD., August 10, 1887. To the MINING JOURNAL. As we desire to thank the people for Lizzie Brown, stood, and that the Review had not The men who care little or nothing The day we arrived in camp we Hettie Jeffries, accurately forecast its own possibil- about office are the best instruments were very tired, as we had not slept Clara Johnson, the night before. We were not in the Phobe Johnson, best shape to do duty, but when call- Annie Keller, quently resign, and most always die ed out for this purpose we responded Rose Lapp, To return. No stranger looking - some time or other, which gives the although not used to walk a beat in a Annie Maurey,

The grub was not what we ex- George N. Beall, James Koch, were no butter and pies.

But the second day we became more | C. Eugene Grahame, Porter Shaffer, to business; were always ready for Dudley Hocking, A. Thomas, duty, and anything that was fun our John D. Hocking, the blanket, which made plenty of Blanche Brooke Washington, D. C. ing rink at that place during the week the intelligence of the people of the for the three companies of Allegany will take place in Frostburg.

Hon. Louis E. McComas paid us a shot in our company. The morning

For almost four years, at a heavy loss to myself for every week of each year, I have edited and published John Swinton's Paper. all.

Antietam cemetery and brought home into and an order passed, on motion of street is full of people.

Antietam cemetery and brought home into and an order passed, on motion of street is full of people.

Antietam cemetery and brought home into and an order passed, on motion of street is full of people.

Antietam cemetery and brought home into and an order passed, on motion of street is full of people.

had a general good time. Contagious? or Epidemic?

FROSTBURG, MD., August 10, 1887. To the MINING JOURNAL. The Borden boys, it seems, from the Hill respondent of the Cumberland Times: It is not good policy on the part of the Cumberland Times is running the public, or parts of the public, to an original serial entitled The East vs. The Allegany mines, August 20th.

The Cumberland Times is running the Cumberland Times:

The Allegany and Borden boys will give a grand picnic at Allegany mines, August 20th.

George Ort, Hitchins Bros., J. J. Kelpaid the Journal a fraternal call ler, G. A. Wingert and N. M. Dean Tuesday. A 100-yard foot race for a prize of $2, $1 vation army to cease holding their Frostburg, paid the Journal a call entrance fee and not less than three to enter; open-air meetings in front of our places this morning. He is one of the pros-

LOCAL AFFAIRS.

A Huge Social .- A grand entertainment was given Tuesday evening in worked up within a week. The com- Schaub, signers of the memorial askmittee of arrangements were Messrs. ing for such change, appeared and ob-C. Eugene Grahame, Charles C. Wright and John D. Hocking. By general consent, however, the great success of the occasion is due mainly to the constant labor of Mr. Grahame. Before and during the affair he sought unremittingly the enjoyment of all And when the door closed with Hence, society and guests owe him step and rhythmic sway of the procession in harmony with the inspiring for a sidewalk for the people, used for no music, developed a display of Frost- other purpose now than to nurture weeds burg beauty and chivalry pleasurably and furnish a site for an unsightly fence and aroused by these transactions. surprising to even those who dwell coal house, but the expense of the improve-

12:30, when refreshments were served. | saying.] cake, et id omne genus, are under dis- vides that the Mayor and two phy- Walter H. Chew. cussion, returns thanks to the commit- sicians, to be appointed by the Council, Baltimore, Md.-Mrs. E. M. Richard, Mrs. tee and several precious ladies for most | shall constitute said Board, and that | Start, Miss Emma Start, Miss Wheeler, Mrs. hospitable and graceful attentions. It inspections of streets, alleys and pri- M. A. Foster, three children and nurse; Miss would like to call them by name, but vate premises shall take place monthly Grace Foster. Nor is it right to arrest one, two, the interested reader will find them between May 1 and Nov. 1 of each Sally McCleave, Miss Mary McCleave, Master somewhere in the list below of those year.

present from Frostburg: Annie McAllister, Belle McLuckie, May Anthony, Helen Percy, Ray Anthony, Kate Porter, Sally Robinson, Jane Scott, Bessie Berkey, Carrie Shaffer, Lula Shaffer, Maitland Shearer, Rose Shearer, Jane Stewart, Mollie Thomas, Fanny M. Wack, Eva M. Walker, Julia R. Walker, Lizzie Williams, M. J. Williams,

Tillie Williams, Sally C. Wright. Harry Metzger, Frank Porter, D. D. Price, Marshall Price, Thomas J. Price, William Raley, David Scott, George C. Wade, Harry Walker,

Charles C. Wright. The gentlemen from abroad:

With the gentlemen before named as again just before the next Social.

Council met Monday evening.

I could go on and tell you a great | thereunder must be completed on or | guests of Mrs. William Payne, of this deal more, but will close by saying we | before October 1.

Recreation and Athletics-Are They ing ordinance orders that they must Coyner. put their pavements down. An ordinance providing for paving | was in town Tuesday.

south side of Ormand street was order- Miss Sallie Hammond, of Anne

Messrs. D. J. Betz, W. R. Percy, weeks a guest of the latter, has returnconcerned. Says the Frostburg cor- Porter, John L. Heintz, W. L. Annan, server, Baltimore and Washington, petitioned Council to "notify the Sal- John Engleby, a former resident of ment and fill our doors with spectators, | Va. thereby injuring our business."

On motion of Mr. Hill, the bailiff is visiting Miss Rose Lapp. was instructed to disperse any crowd Miss Maggie Little, of Piedmont, and, in the event of resistance, arrest | Stewart.

therefor provided. Rev. J. M. Rollins and John S. Saltsburg, Pa. Grove addressed the Council in behalf A. Z. Hartman and wife, of Baltimore Messrs. Philip Hartig and Frank D. Armstrong. jected to the movement if it entailed a special tax upon the property directly

On motion of Mr. Hill it was decided that the widening of Steyer declining to give bond, were confined street was impracticable at this time. [In this connection the Journal is Wednesday morning, when they were from which we clip the paragraph

The Mayor and Councilmen of Frostburg, more animated. The bright, tasteful people in favor, and by a friendly council- Volair and Jenkins were again arrestcostumes of the ladies, the faultless man of the owners against the petition, de- ed. Bail was given for appearance at not be widened, as prayed therein. A strip of ground about eight feet wide was needed ment seemed to our city fathers an insur-The promenade was succeeded by waltz, polka, quadrille, etc., until waltz, polka, quadrille, etc., until all will agree, and that it goes without washington, D. C.—Mrs. W. Dockstader, since last meeting. Adjourned after routine business. Brevities .- The ladies of the M. E. Church will hold a Lawn Fete in the lot in Mechanic street, near J. B. future advertisement in JOURNAL.

Great praise is bestowed upon the new management of the Grand Central | county board of health, submitted his

Picnic by the German Arion Band Sasurday, 27th inst. Among the changes made Tuesday in the postal star service of Maryland was that on route 10,306—Frostburg to Vale Summit—beginning Thursday, August 11, 1887, increase service on August 11, 1887, increase service on that part of route between Eckhart | Died-Monday, August 8, 1887, from three to six times a week. Douglas G. Percy is lowering the Borden Shaft. ground floor of his portion of the At the residence of her son-in-law. homestead mansion to street level. Jacob Boettner, Wednesday, August When completed the improvement will 10, 1887, Mrs. CATHERINE KEGEL, be a noticeable one.

The St. Cloud hotel is becoming a popular resort for Cumberland excur- B. Hansel, Thursday, August 11, 1887, sion parties. The ladies of St. Michael's church, of age. this place, resident in Eckhart, will Maggie Elliott...... Piedmont, W. Va. beginning August 20. The proceeds demption and Service." No services the present emergency, and it is to be hoped it will do so for the honor and credit of the wilding at this place and the week—Wednesday and Friday) and " Titus A. Brick, gave himself away on Thursday. He came out of a saloon | will preach in the English Lutheran

WHOLE No. 827.

It was made understood to recal- Miss Maggie Elliot, of Piedmont, citrant owners of property under pav- | W. Va., is the guest of Miss Bessie

Rev. P. N. Meade, of Cumberland,

ed to be enforced, on motion of Mr. | Arundel county, a friend and recent schoolmate of Miss Kate Porter, several

Miss Fannie Marean, of Cumberland,

making a noise or tumult on the street | W. Va., is the guest of Miss Janie the traversers, under the Ordinance | Misses Carrie, Efficand Lula Shaffer left Thursday on a visit to friends in

S. A .- The action of the Council Monday, reported elsewhere, brought out a defiant demonstration of the Salvation Army Tuesday evening. Captain Herbert Walter Volair and Lient. Thomas Jenkins were arrested and, in the Water street conservatory until in receipt of a letter for publication, taken to jail. Thursday it was ascertained that an error in the commitment existed, and they were discharged. The usual twilight parade followed,

More arrests Friday evening. Much unnecessary feeling has been

Summer Guests .- At Mrs. Richard

Miss Jennie Dockstader, Miss Mattie Wimor, These comprised all the delicacies of Ordinance No. 70, providing for a Miss Romaine Morsell, Mrs. Evans, Miss the season and were thoroughly enjoy- Board of Health and other Sanitary Minnie Evans, Miss Mabel Evans, Mrs. ed. Right here the Journal, which measures, was offered by Mr. Hill, Schneider, child and nurse; Mrs. Wickware, is always an individual where icogram and any him measures. It was Miss Wickware, Mrs. H. P. Barnes, J. is always an individual where icecream, and, on his motion, passed. It pro- Fauntleroy Barnes, Miss Marie F. Barnes, Duffield Duncan and nurse; Mrs. Dr. Towns-Bailiff reported $2,473.29 collected end, Mr. and Mrs. George Townsend, child and nurse; Dr. Hoffman, Dr. L. B. Wilson. Pittsburg. Pa.-Mr. Totten. Lexington, Ky.-Miss Butler.

Annapolis, Md.—Mrs. Waddell. The County's Business .- At the meeting of the Commissioners Monday Wright's store, Tuesday evening, August 23, 1887. The grounds will be brilliantly illuminated and the Arion band | Lonaconing and Westernport were will furnish appropriate music. See opened, but held for further consider-> report relative to the sanitary condition of the towns along Georges Hearing which Dr. Craigen was in- .

W. J. Craigen, secretary of the mines and Vale Summit, three miles, THOMAS CONRAD, aged 3 months, only son of Conrad and Sophia J. Brode, of > nearly 80 years of age. At the residence of her son, Jacob Mrs. Rebecca Hansel, over 80 years > Religious .- Rev. Mr. Whitaker's subject Sunday morning will be "Reuntil further notice. Bible readings Sunday afternoons at 3½ o'clock.

Rev. Mr. Irving, of Greensburg, Pa., Church to-morrow (Sunday) morning Company D gives glowing reports of and evening at the usual hours.

Political .-- At the county convention The Coal Trade Journal says that the (republican) Tuesday John J. Bell, of Eva M. Walker, Fannie M. Wack Ciler Chi Gilman, Chicago agent,) has secured Frostburg, and G. L. Wellington, mittee of invitation, from whom it is the big Armour coal contract; it is for Daniel Houck and Malcolm Sinclair, opera glasses to be given to the best probable the girls and boys will hear coal The new fashion of "deviled crabs" | Pritchard is an alternate, and D. J. Town Affairs.-The Mayor and will have a great run if tried. They Williams (both of No. 12) is a member are fine and no mistake. See adver- of the State central committee for the