SIXTEENTH YEAR.-No. 49.

FROSTBURG, MD., SATURDAY, AUGUST 27, 1887.

New Advertisements.

LOST rned to the residence o DR. A. B. PRICE.

SEPTEMBER 3, 1887.

H. G. WEIMER,

Slate Pencil Sna eners, etc.

of all k ids. School Bags in reat variety. In the Stationery department you will find Box Papers, Note, Commercial, Letter, Foolscap and Legal Cap Papers, Envelopes, is for the benefit of the many, we want no Now we submit that the parties already up to be covered within six Memorandum, Order, Day, Journal, Cash proviso for the profit of the few. improved Files, Writing Desks, Scrap Albums and Pictures, Royal and LePage's Glue, Fountain Pens, American and imported Tissue Papers, Sea Island Jute and Cotton-Hemp Twines. FOR ARTISTS.

Transparent and Frosted Porcelain, Black Enameled Papier Mache, White Papier Tambourines, Academy Board, Block Tin Porcelain Vases, Canvas Brushes and all the Lowest Possible Figure, And don't forget that all Papers and Periodicals furnished at publishers' rates. A call will satisfy all that these statements are not a sham but a stern reality. Thanking all for past favors, I remain WILLIAM L. ANNAN.

The "Cheap Stationer." Scholars-Don't forget to try my Ink in paper bottles.

Miscellaneous Advertisements. LISTON'S

TATE have received this week a large in

V voice of LISTON'S FLANNELS. Just the thing for Fall and Winter Dresses for Ladies and Children. A large portion of them hand-wrought No shoddy nor shorts in them. Heaviest weights.

Thoroughly scoured. Firstclass in every respect. All buyers desiring perfect satisfaction

Best dyes.

In Wear will do well to look at them.

ticulars address Corner Pratt and Sharp streets.

Breaking the Insulators on the Telegraph Poles of the Cumberland and Pennsylvania railroad P. L. BURWELL, wise he could not meet your eye with his emphasis were never more ruthless- name is Wun Lung.

Gem Grocery Store,

from the Clearfield letter of last politics. week to the Lonaconing Review:

many are the peculiar opinions expressed. One class of men want to show fight and compel by strike the payment every two weeks, of arms through the law, and so it goes, stole the mining bill. SCHOOL BOOKS called, is all well and good, but when the law | party of the State" did it.

Now here is a man, evidently sincere, who does not know that there are some rights of which a free citizen cannot divest himself.

One of those rights is the right to Mache and Brass Placqes, Brass Banner Rods, make contracts or not make contracts; another is the right to think | county. Tube Colors-in fact everything to be had in a or not think; another to speak or not Firstclass Stationery Store, and at speak; another to act or not act;

> of Pennsylvania is unconstitutional on the question of a call of a convention for pathize with those who are afflicted by Belle of the Ball...... the right of private contract, that is no the words "for a convention" or "against a that State, and George L. Bennett, of Bride.... "Annie Maurey George H. Shaw, of this place, and the conference of Moorefield district, but of the people to whom the law par- to make proclamation of the result. The act ticularly applies. If every man thus leaves, by its silence, to the Legislature the The growth in several gardens is affected were to avail himself of one time and mode of the assembling of the condense. of his indefeasible rights the law would be obeyed by all employers without exception, and not a case would come up to give occasion for a judicial test of the law's constitutionality. And the same thing could be just as well done were there no law at all or the subject. This Pennsylvania law shows a notable example of the futility of enacting special or class legislation. Purchasers of YARN can do better to do for them anything they are able don't.—Cumberland Times. than ever with us this season. [Aug 20 | to do for themselves.

The suggestion to "change the that handsomely! Constitution to suit a certain want is GOOD, INDUSTRIOUS MAN to take an inconsiderate one. A change, for look the Journal they generally wings swift away" and after a run over P. Allen, of Baltimore, were sent up, Frostburg, Md. Commission 5 per cent. Can do the work after business hours. For par- instance, taking away from working- get back safely to the obscurity a rapidly improving town, we boarded the first reaching an immense height. men the right of private contract, which they court. would furnish a logical and com- The republican party committed overhead the Front Royal and Win- upper current, however, it floated REWARD! manding precedent for "the few" to several mistakes in the construction chester pike, some sensation was oc- away northward until its light became date: demand and obtain, as the next step, of their State platform, but one casioned by the wreck of a two-horse invisible. The second did not rise so great resorts for the summer season and are the reduction of "the many" to abso- was not in the plank which proposes carriage, coming from the former high, but crossed the town to the rapidly coming into the greatest favor because bookstore and subscribe to the guar-tion held at Oakland Monday that the committee on resolutions reported the following "preamble" etc., and they were unanimously adopted:

WHEREAS, An outrage was perpetrated at the last session of the Legislature by the about the first of April next. democratic party of the State removing bills

ly thrown away. Miss the Best Chance of a Lifetime. bruise incurred, or a cent lost by the Besid Extraordinary and valuable bargains are A Golden Opportunity that every mine in this region shall be closed up forever to prevent be want of the stolen bill, we will agree is thrust upon you, and if you wish to profit be closed up forever to prevent be- water works. yond the possibility of a doubt those

THE paragraph below is clipped agoguery were eliminated from our

And it is full time that such dis-And still the semi-monthly pay is the reputable politics should cease to inheme of discussion among our miners and terfere with the peace and welfare of

> WE have found out now-not who | ly ill. struck William Patterson-but who proviso makes possible the avoiding of the | where, for here comes the county re- | where sporting people either ,,put up" | Despair. The Fairy. fulfilment of the law, the sooner we change publican convention of Garrett and or "shut up". They will back Craw- Last the land of pure delightour Constitution the better. Special contract says explicitly that "the democratic ford in any sum from $250 to $1,000 or personal contract, or whatever it may be named by Mrs. Maurice, including days. and Ledger Blank Books of numerous styles, Strange, passing strange the fellow who got the $500, are not The Journal worked up its matter > off pretty well on the unsophisticated | away to Luray. Articles subsequent-Garrett county populace, but it wont ly received are, therefore, left over, be worth a cent in this county.

In all justice, demagogues of Garrett, there is a big roorbach in that trick for the republicans of Allegany

And the best of them know it.

CHAPTER 112, Acts of 1886, provides that at another to work, and another not to the general election to be held on the first aged 32 years, after an illness of two With the cast below: regulated by "the State's collective elections are now held by law for the election the Journal. For some time he was Rustic Maiden....... Now, if the semi-monthly pay law General Assembly, shall be entitled to vote part of the trying ordeal. We symizes the constitutional convention month. All the lodges of that Order church. ceived the least attention." This is other picnics in the shade. place-hunter nothing can precede in of the caverns so bran new that all for the 650 persons who went inside upon as perfectly accurate:

THE man who wants a public office and Hitchins Bros. It shows that the people seems who is too mean to pay for an announce ment of his candidacy in his own party paper deserves not to get it—and he generally don't—Cumberland Times.

Great halidom, old man, you said during the session of the Legislature.

being properly signed by the Governor, more in fashion, and he is a very ture who will engage to pass a law, if The occasion is brought about by the perfectly accurate—no guess-work nor approx- Frostburg. meek editor who has not one record- elected, compelling every gentleman then current session of the Moorefield imation about them. Yours truly, That we heartily sympathize with the people who were thus defrauded of their just rights, and we most emphatically denounce the paper is in the toils for saying that a wear a high plug hat, and every lady South, at that place and the object— A ND you will observe it doesn't wink or democratic party of Maryland for said action. | CHARLES R. WADE and Miss

Besides, what is the use of advertisto have it done in the legitimate way?

Pointer to Gouvenier, Ky.:

LOCAL AFFAIRS.

this place, died Saturday in Cumber- | Close investigation of the point of con- | land, Mass.

To the much-mooted question— wasp's visiting card sticking out of the burg, W. Va.

for any grade of contest between soft are some people's notions of organic "the democratic party of the State." to within a small space of completion As an issue this chestnut may work by Wednesday evening in order to get among them "Observer," who will be accommodated next week if he will then regard it as pertinent, and will permit us to "tone it down."

The JOURNAL is pained to hear of the death from malarial fever of Emory Gardner Bennett, at Hunting-Now is the time to pull the weeds.

Frostburg City Lodge, No. 88, K. of most enjoyable and profitable occasions sojourners leave us the Journal deems which the above is taken, character- this place about the middle of next cided this fall, but which has re- attend. It is designed to throw all such factitious aid are not aware that ment of his candidacy in his own party paper going and returning. In Luray we mellow light was fully enjoyed by the Cumberland News of August 11, 1882: met many boyhood friends, ate two merry promenaders. All the refreshdinners, and "a pretty gurl of ye olden | ments current at this season were on time" revived some precious memories | hand and liberally dispensed by the by placing in our hands a boquet of generous hostesses. Two large bal-And when those of either side over- rare flowers. The few hours "flew on loons, donated and managed by L. W. the home-bound train. Approaching Its rise was almost vertical, drifting Riverton, where the railroad crosses very slightly southward. Striking an once to prescribe some popular cure tleman. This was about the whole sociable.

for the water company's disease story as seen from a train moving quite They cannot begin too early for- exchange, "never stings." To make with Fred. Johnson's family. upon a large class of our laboring people mulating a plan that ought to ripen this important piece of natural history Hon. George Colton, of Baltimore, Summit near Graham's mansion...2,125 LIBEL suits are growing more and port to that candidate for the legisla
Thursday evening, Sept. 1st, next, on port to that candidate for the legisla
"Woman; Her Heroism and Love."

Thursday evening, Sept. 1st, next, on factory. You may rely upon the figures as Johns and Miss Anna Brode, both of "Hearty sympathy" and indignant dead with consumption. The latter's The necessity of action in this matter parsonage fund. is emphasized by the sad experience of "J. C. Lowry, Esq., and Harry particular note in that it does away an excursionist Thursday to the caves Hay," says a Salisbury writer in the authoritatively with the long-accepted der of Hibernians, headed by the In-We would like to give the names of aspir- of Luray. While the train was resting Meyersdale Commercial, "spent Sunday altitude of Frostburg-1,792 feet. If the republican party of Garrett ing candidates for nomination at the coming at Gooney an F. F. V. wasp, with at Frostburg—some fair attraction no And now that it is settled that we this morning on their way to the Cum-I see a person who appreciates a bargain and would like to find an extra good one. I been less to doubt." Plenty of them here, but are at least 266 feet higher above tide beriand pienic. been lost, or a limb broken, o nude. He explored the car pretty too seldom, and are too shy when they with, would it not be well to employ with music—the great picnic of the thoroughly, as if looking for a place to do come. The Keystone State is losing some competent engineer to begin Arions in progress. Extraordinary and valuable bargains are now being offered by him in great variety.

In a lot of people who are unwilling stay all night. He had a hard time a great deal by pursuing a bashful where Mr. Gaffney left off—the top of getting out, though, after those who policy in Maryland. had pre-empted the car, suspecting his Misses Ada Smith and Grace least as far as the English Lutheran true character, got to thrashing at him. Chaney, of Dunkirk, Md., are visiting church for the average altitude of At length he concluded to go, but just Mrs. R. P. Mason. FRANK C. BEALL'S casualties which inhere to the call- Let the town own the water works ed on the back of a broad neck belong- accompanied by his wife and child, is then an ulster struck him and he land- Rev. J. P. Wright, of Baltimore, least 2,070 feet, instead of 2,058. from the start, or the water works ing to a big gentleman from Fort Pen- among Frostburg friends. FROSTBURG, MD. It is about time this hateful dem- will soon and forever own the town. dleton. The b. g. uttered three words Mrs. A. A. Rogers and children son, of Baltimore, lost her life at this place.

should print with great reluctance. Thursday.

itself is like all other laws for the benefit of the laboring class, absolutely worthless, and hearing of our friend, James Campthe laboring class, absolutely worthless, and law of surveying his teeth. A sure way is filled with baled hay. lief in the unreliability of the practice nape looked like a scarlet feather-bed their brother, W. G. Boughton. Mt. Savage, and in the evening made so by the proviso, without which, it is bell, of Barton, that "she knew the to find out the year the horse was foalsaid, it is unconstitutional. The mining law, man," etc.; that "he belonged to the ed, and get a public school pupil of Fetes.—The marche-fete performances Mrs. George Steyer. which is said to be very strict, is, according to one of our eminent judges, a legal curios Crescent club of Baltimore," and six years standing to subtract it from of Monday and Tuesday evenings in Dr. H. C. Wilson, of this place, left er and coachman. The horse attachity, without any vitality, owing to the num- that "he got $500 for taking it;" the current year. Thus: a horse that Moat's Opera House were thorough Thursday for Paterson, N J., where ed to the vehicle was always considerber of provisions and its peculiar construct that "Gov. Lloyd, comptroller Turn- first saw the light in the spring of 1830 successes. Monday evening the pan- he will take charge of the establish- ed thoroughly reliable and gentle. It

Penholders, Examination Papers, Copy Books
Rulers, Ink, Inkstands, Chalk, Crayon, Powhet Slater Fragers Fight Slat law passed favorable to the mass of people who constitute the government, and that There must be a mistake some- petitors of that gentleman to the place Mysterious Statue. His Satanic Majesty. In day to visit friends in Pittsburg, Pa. sudden action frightened the animal

With which we say to all "good night."

in the say to the good might.
The following is the cast:
Harlequin R. G. Colbo	rn
Clown Frank Por
Pantaloons A. R. Cr	oft
Policeman George J. Conn	er
Italian W. J. Day
WheelsJohn Timmo	ns
Columbine Miss Kate A. Port	ter
Marketwoman " Bessie Coyn	er
Devil " Bess McCulle	oh
Queen of Fairies " Nillie Od	er
Fairies "{ Carrie Bernie Port Ella Bought	ter on Tuesday evening "The Magic Mi	r-
with equal acceptability to a large	en audience. The synopsis as follows: 1, Perplexity. don. W. Va. Tuesday, August 23, 1887. 3, How it Was. 4, How it Might Have Been. 2, Choice.

Refreshments were each evening day evening.

"The female wasp," says a bright Ewalt, of Mt. Savage, spent this week found the altitudes as below. I do not know gone to Winona, Minnesota. Miss which even an independent paper went home to Morgantown, W. Va., Eckhart Saturday evening last about grandson of Joseph G. Dennison. of window and half way across the river. Thursday to visit friends in Gover- land and Pennsylvania railroad, and

THAT one of the most complete lines of tion, indefinite wording and obscure meaning, making it next to impossible for any long to the complete lines of tion, indefinite wording and obscure meaning, making it next to impossible for any long to the complete lines of tion, indefinite wording and obscure meaning, making it next to impossible for any long to the complete lines of tion, indefinite wording and obscure meaning, making it next to impossible for any long to the complete lines of the had long to the long to the complete lines of the had long to the complete lines of the had long to the long To be found in Western Maryland can be had at my store, such as Scholar's Companions, Slates, Slate Pencils, Scholar Sch two judges to agree upon any point in it, as connived at the abstraction of said been careful of his health.

It conserve that William Country that William Country of the steep hill entering the throughout Pennsylvania. We are not find ing fault with the makers of that law, for we ing fault with the makers of the ma

Misses Emma Hart and Maggie and he lurched to one side, disen-Stark, of Cumberland, are guests of gaging one of the shalves, which fell Miss Josephine Ort.

has been appointed registrar of voters | a fearful rate of speed, the driver havfor election district No. 11, vice Lewis | ing lost control. In a few moments. J. Ort, resigned. An excellent se- and while attempting to draw the guest of Dr. A. B. Price. The thrown out, and was senseless when JOURNAL acknowledges a fraternal found. A few minutes later she died, ourg friends this week. town to-day is James Campbell, of shock to her many friends and an ir-

Misses Nellie Rank and Clara Price | stances point with some plausibility to Mary Dando and George Schaidt, of Lonaconing, a couple choice spirits living "beyond of delegates to the General Assembly, every our sole help and nobly sustained his woman of the Period.... "Tillie Williams and Misses Maggie and Hattie Mc- the flat." Josephine Ort | Kenzie, of Brady's visited the family | The remains were taken to Baltimore Ina Frey of R. M. Wilderman during the week. Monday for interment.

served, altogether making one of the Our Altitudes .- Before our summer officially, The Cumberland News, from P., will hold a picnic and reunion at of the kind ever held under the it a matter of interest to them and ad- former pastor, will preach in the M. auspices of St. John's Episcopal vantage to Frostburg to publish the E. Church to-morrow morning at 101 question as the "greatest to be de- have been invited and are expected to The Lawn Fete held by the ladies of several altitudes between Cumberland Salvation Army headquarters are following information concerning the o'clock. the M. E. Church Tuesday evening in and Dan's Rock, and Frostburg and now in Wilderman's hall, Broadway. a vacant lot on Mechanic street was a Dan's Rock. The letter below, as will The army is observing very decorously About twenty persons of this place brilliant affair. The grounds were be seen, is from James P. Gaffney, the the restraint incurred under recent a matter of course among mere poltook in the Luray excursion of Thursprepared with great care and taste. accomplished chief engineer of the Council orders. iticians and average aspirants for day. The day was cool, the party a Booths, tables and other equipments Georges Creek and Cumberland railpublic office. In the mind of a merry one, and the scenery in and out bounded an area hardly large enough road, and may be, as he says, relied Church to-morrow (Sunday) morning

	Altitude above tide.
	Feet.	Miles.
G. C. and C. R. station, Cumberland.	643
Vale Summit station	1,986	11.5
"Stone House," near Dan's Rock "Spring," near Dan's	2,688	14.1
Rock	2,606	14.8
Top of Dan's Rock	2,898	15.5

to preserve the canal as a waterway. place. The scene was necessarily a south-east and for a long time hung low if will be seen that Dan's Rock is an exceptant. The republican party of Garrett sweep this congressional district with The republican party of Garrett sweep this congressional district with The republican party of Garrett sweep this congressional district with The republican party of Garrett sweep this congressional district with The republican party of Garrett sweep this congressional district with The republican party of Garrett sweep this congressional district with The republican party of Garrett sweep this congressional district with the republican party of Garrett sweep this congressional district with the republican party of Garrett sweep this congressional district with the republican party of Garrett sweep this congressional district with the republican party of Garrett sweep this congressional district with the republican party of Garrett sweep this congressional district with the republican party of Garrett sweep this congressional district with the republican party of Garrett sweep this congressional district with the republican party of Garrett sweep this congressional district with the republican party of Garrett sweep this congressional district with the republican party of Garrett sweep this congressional district with the republican party of Garrett sweep this congressional district with the republican party of Garrett sweep this congressional district with the republican party of Garrett sweep this congressional district with the republican party of Garrett sweep this congressional district with the republican party of Garrett sweep this congressional district with the republican party of Garrett sweep this congressional district with the republican party of Garrett sweep the republican party of Garrett sweep this congressional district with the republican party of Garrett sweep this congressional district with the republican party of Garrett sweep the republicant party of Garrett sweep county is exceedingly hard up for an issue.

It is related of the county conventions and the county convention of the most remarkable and the management is greatly back upon the already overturned toward Front Royal; the other fell back upon the already overturned toward Front Royal; the other fell back upon the already overturned toward Front Royal; the other fell back upon the already overturned toward Front Royal; the other fell back upon the already overturned the first of its kind in Frostburg. It is certainly one of the most remarkable and toward Front Royal; the other fell grandest east of the Rocky mountains. When it is considered that the Deer Park hotel is but about 2,500, Oakland about 2,400, and Cresson vehicle, and underneath the latter were the first of its kind in Frostburg. It Our people should set about at two of the occupants—a lady and gen- was a regular out-and-out open-air Rock has with its nearly 2,900 feet.

> survey for a railroad to Frostburg from Vale | Millan, of Barton, were married. Personal .- Misses Carrie and Emma | Summit-to Lynch's hotel 2.4 miles-and that they have ever been published:

To the many interested the above August 25, 1887, by Rev. W. C. Jones, preserved as such. It is worthy of LIZZIE DAVIS.

the St. Cloud milestone-and run at Frostburg? This would give us at John Keirs, of Midlothian, is very ill.

son, widow of the late Spencer David- of Harry and Sarah A. Llewellyn, of WHOLE No. 829.

9 o'clock. Brevittes .- Joseph C., infant son of Before the unfortunate man could Mrs. Vincent Raley, Mrs. Thomas She was a sister of P. L. Burwell, J. G. and Helen R. Wildman, and reach for him the wasp was out the Armstrong and George Armstrong left general superintendent of the Cumber-

was on a visit to her brother-in-law, land. Mrs. Wildman herself is serious- tact followed, and the Journal was the Mrs. Jacob Betz and Mrs. Charles Dr. B. M. Cromwell, of Eckhart, acfirst to discover the big end of the Heintz are visiting friends in Martins- companied by her son, aged about 13, and her daughter about 16, who com-"how to tell a horse's age"—the Jour- centre of a red and reddening spot on Mrs. M. C. Douglas and Miss Lalah prised her family. Saturday she spent A TEACHERS' MEETING will be held in Union street school building, Comberly of the practice processing its belief in the unreliability of the practice processi Mrs. William Brubaker, of Stoyes- started in his phaeton for Dr. town, Pa., is the guest of her mother, Cromwell's. She was driven by toxicated, sprang from the side of the Miss Maggie McLuckie left Wednes- road and shouted at the horse. This upon his heels. This augmented his William G. Boughton, of this place, fright and he plunged down the hill at horse to one side, Johns was thrown William S. Ridgeley, one of the out and severely bruised. Farther editors of the Annapolis Republican, is down the road Mrs. Davidson was her skull having been fractured. The Misses Sue Wickard and Carrie horse was stopped after running a half

Allen, of Cumberland, visited Frost- mile. Deceased was a most estimable lady Among the numerous visitors in and her sudden death was a great remediable loss to her children. Miss Ella Miller returned yesterday The identity of the men whose from a pleasant sojourn among friends | eriminal conduct caused the accident is unknown, though it is said circum-

Religious .- Commencing Tuesday, terial and lay delegates will attend at 101 o'clock by Rev. W. C. Jones, returned delighted. The Journal, the enclosure. A large number of In reply to your letter of 27th inst. relative and at 7½ in the evening by Rev. G. which is sometimes an individual, was | Chinese lanterns furnished the illumin- | to the altitude of Frostburg, Dan's Rock, etc., | A. Schwedes. | A congregational meetthe recipient of many liberal attentions ation for the most part, and the soft, I give the following data as published in the ing will be held after the former Theatrical .- The announcement of the approaching appearance here of Miss Clara Louise Kellogg, the great operatic prima donna, has created quite a ripple of excitement in our fashionable circles. Clara Louise Kellogg is not only celebrated on account of her great artistic achievements, but she is known to be a great favorite in the best society of New York, London, Paris, and other

Yesterday George L. Eichhorn, of In September, 1880, I ran a preliminary Lonaconing, and Miss Annie Mc-

> Maggie McNally, ot that place, will return with him as his bride. Married-Tuesday, August 23, 1887,

JAMES P. GAFFNEY. father, W. R. Davis, Borden Shaft,

Current Events .- The Ancient Or-

The Sick .- Several severe cases of cholera morbus this week. Miss Margaret Keirs, daughter of

Died-Monday, August 22, 1887, Fatal Runaway .-- Mrs. Laura David- BESSIE, aged 9 months, infant daughter