

J. B. ODER, Editor and Proprietor.

AN INDEPENDENT PAPER.

$1.50 per annum-!N ADVANCE.

SEVENTEENTH YEAR. - No. 1.

FROSTBURG, MD., SEPTEMBER 24, 1887.

WHOLE No. 833.

with hog Latin. The paragraph will hinge. They are building upon poor men lose one day now, they will to be unborn. below is an average sample:

Wellington jim jamibus, resulting in a general debility and nervous irritability that causes cated, is not the case, and all concern- credit of those who must have accom- convention. him to see "boogies" in the dark and fool ed know it. Then what is in the way modation? Is the raking and The latter body is the last and killers in every mild expression of his of discharging every man and re-em- scraping of companies to meet their only shield this side of republican of Shakespeare, according to Ignatius Don- | take his pay monthly as usual? nelly, would have it.

and the Journal is just this: The Times is an organ, the Journal is of wages in advance, and yet keep at the top not. The democratic party has been of its columns the following-the Frostburg State and people of the canal for the Journal can say that a miner should work ticket so far ominously silent upon a | you. nal counties. There has been time law, and the eventual ultimatum of to do without them. enough for the gentlemen to repudi- labor, those words, "in advance," are ate the treasonable project, but not a a legend, a tradition. For a long whisper has been heard. And the while we respected and enforced it; ty of a Mugwump"—the Cumberland Times, which is one of the little then grew lax and one occasion after Times quotes the following: sockets in which the proposed ad- another we waived our rights under venture turns, has never published it until those who owe pay when they the past, the Journal will resemble Brutus. an editorial word one way or the please. Thousands of dollars have other about dispossessing this region | never been paid at all, and those dolof the canal for the benefit of West lars are principally held by the Virginia competition.

looking the facts in the face, with ly pay law as a stepping-stone to that undisguised regret is obliged to con- grandest of all absurd consummations demn an enterprise which seeks to -pay in advance. despoil this and enrich a rival re- No, dear Review, those words are gron. It is compelled to subordinate not portentous as they appear. In personal party predilections to de- fact, they boast a magnificence as votion to home interests. In a con- meaningless as the serried roll test between corporations it is forced of invincibly defunct dollars set opto favor those at home.

do no amount of bastard Latin will Westernport-men, too, whom we .. dispose of it.

"internal injury" than anything else. Gorman and Willison as the Times single provision of the bill justified and amenable to criticism as well as instances the following: apparently open to toadyism. They Miners in Potomac and Jackson mine las are, by association at least, perhaps a week worked in air that J. B. Oder would not community of interest, connected with the scheme which the State democratic ticket is expected to carry out. how? Is work so sweet and slavery for them, good for us.

what the Journal thinks of Messrs. a law do such men-a law that, to be Gorman and Willison, or even what effective, must at last depend wholly due until then, no matter what the of hog Latin. the Times thinks—as a mere matter on their own testimony? If these "needs" might be. If at that time of fact. It may import something miners be men they should besides the earner bet the money on a foot- brother Avirett? We only get one occasion- introduction of the "Oscillator" were however, he can do better, and at the more to the Journal should it be prosecute L. A. 767 for libel and lay race, while abstractly nobody's busi- ally.—Charlestown (W. Va.) Spirit of Jeffer- operations attended with no little and flag drill given by the ladies of end of two months expects to remove understood as forging along under their damages at the highest possible their displeasure, but of one thing we notch. are sure, there is no bad taith toward What is the matter with the his loss as a pretext to ask for a our own people in our course. We miners of Potomac and Jackson stop- law to make his employer pay him are equally sure that with all its ping work without such a law? hereafter $1.25 on the 30th of this slobber over the ticket and the Where is the higher law of self-pro- month and $1.25 on the 15th of faction represented by Gorman and tection? "Lose their employment, next. Willison-that with all the Times' eh?" Well, if asthma and death are attempted ridicule in their interest, the penalties of work, no worse re- would not stand up in court long there is hardly a man in Maryland sults can follow idleness, at least whom the State and county bosses until the companies' own interest despise with more sickening zest than will force them to make their mines the editor of the Cumberland Times. habitable for work. This, by the way, not altogether to We cannot reply to L. A. in extenso, the latter's discredit.

OUR amiable friend, the Lonacon- remark: ly pay was better than a semi-month-monthly pay" was merely incidental, of which can as well be obtained fly away.

without law as with law. law no man can be required to waive staked on the race, and lost.

The difference between the Times | NAL thus:

Could it (the Journal) oppose the payment | ers?

crowd of gentlemen who are clamor-On the other hand, the JOURNAL, ing so virtuously for the semi-monthposite the names of men who live all it flings off profusely on all occasions, If air readers see this issue as we the way between Mt. Savage and we feel, as Coleridgetremenis. This, however, only breaks out in exception to the Journal's answer The Mugwump roosts on the hollow log, spots, and partakes more of the nature of to the question concerning the And whene'er I hear the Hogwip sing "Stolen Ventilation Bill," and grows Personally, the Journal enter- severe enough to impeach our hu- Whenever the Snagpap toots his toot tains no such feeling toward Messrs. | manity. This L. A. contends that a would intimate. But these gentle- its passage—that which protects the men are public men, trusted servants, miners from noxious gases, etc., and forcing him to perform any labor.

What kind of miners are these any-If it succeeds, good for them, but bad so dear that they purchase the for the rest of us; if they fail, bad privileges of labor in bad air at a cost It may signify little, therefore, quit work? And what good would but its closing injunction requires a without? For if semi-monthly pays A LOCAL bit of news elsewhere JAPANESE soldiers are drilled to spend two weeks with friends in Fair-membership cards until the janitor be provided for by law, and the com- indicates the cost of picnic and foot- death. When a private winks in the mont, W. Va. panies see fit to assert their own race last Saturday. Since that item ranks he receives twenty-five lashes, Julius Hennicke, of the firm of Henrights in the premises, it will take was put in type we have learned from and is compelled to go without tobac- nicke & Meredith, formerly of this Zimmerly, secretary. the united and concurrent action of several merchants that certain custo- co for a month. Large numbers of place, now in the mercantile business Mrs. Mary Everstine, of Cumber- Conner, of this place, a teamster eaevery man in the region to enforce it. mers have explained why they could America, generals and colonels are in Chambersburg, Pa., was in town land, died Monday, in the 86th year of gaged in hauling props. To one of the And that can be done as well not pay their usual monthly bills, running at large who ought to be several days last and this week setthe reason being that all or a great disciplined and dieted in the same Dr. H. C. Wilson, dentist, with the Four pears raised by Thomas Arm- terexhibited at these headquarters. It of coal. Both legs were broken, one in two places. He is about 18 years of

But the Review comes at the Jour- them may be augmented by the same corporation in Maryland, at Mary- on to do his part well. equivalent to the unfortunate earn- land expense—to destroy Maryland

This is one of the evils which gave rise to our remark last week that the five of the ablest men in the county betrayed into sustaining a scheme $1.50 per annum-in advance? Now, we proposed law "had no foundation in which proposes the sacrifice by the would like to know how the editor of the the needs of a single worthy man in a month before he gets his pay, and yet he this region," and we say now with benefit of a West Virginia corpora- himself says to his subscribers I want a year's more emphasis that it has not the tion. The Times is supporting a wages in advance before I do any work for shadow of basis in the needs of the man who hazards his wages and thus berlaud Times. Like the coming semi-monthly pay testifies that in case of loss he is able

UNDER the heading-"The Modes.

The seventeenth volume of the Journal

As this is the initial issue referred to now is the time of all times when we should be at peace with all the world, and, in reality, we are abiding under the meek wings of a deep and beautiful tranquility. Moreover, we are dead in love with our charming brethren, notwithstanding the fact that when we look around the horizon for a rival of this great paper in those luminous brochures of thought which

. Like one that on a lonesome road Doth walk in fear and dread.

L. A. 767, located at Barton, takes in the following touching lines: The Segwap sits in the tree;

My heart is sad in me. To the wail of the Nipwhag hen, And the Migfunk chirps in the stilly night, You bet I am lonely then!

THE Lonaconing Review thinks if a man worth $1,000 earns $2.50 from an employer the latter ought not to wait to pay the earner simply because the thousand dollar man does not need it. We are glad to see the Re- naconing and Cumberland constitute view coming around, although it does a majority. ness but his own, yet it would con-enough to be kicked out.

Nor many months ago, after having himself voted against his candidate for governor several times with monotonous unanimity, our esteemed the people, and the idea gathers additions in contemplation, the results "over a coffin-lid;" Monday, "A Peep good one. Father DeWulf, while fellow-traveler, Col. Avirett, was additional weight from the fact that will justify the outlay. ing Review, thinks the Journal did As this article is official we request all L. "surprised," it is said, to hear that he even a milk monopoly flourishes in Safely, and in time expects to put up an As this article is official we request all L. As this article is official we request all L. As this article is official we request all L. As this article is official we request all L. As this article is official we request all L. As this article is official we request all L. As this article is official we request all L. As this article is official we request all L. As this article is official we request all L. As this article is official we request all L. As this article is official we request all L. As this article is official we request all L. As this article is official we request all L. As the reverse of the canonical property and the town.

Brevittes.—The 150-yard foot-race Smith," "Woman's Rights," (repeated to Intimidate property and the town.

Dr. Grahame, it is understood, exthe Journal it will fail. We have The Journal at once resolved to berland Times—announced that the last Saturday at the Borden Shaft by request), "The Mistletoe Bough"— pects to remove to his farm between been there before and got back safe- dedicate itself to his promotion, but fashionable thing just now is a water. Boys' picnic, near Wright's Crossing, in two scenes—and "Queen Esther Be- the "Savages." It must be understood right away ly. It makes not the slightest differ- a small accident occurred which melon party. The next thing ought was won by August Hohing, of Lona- fore the King." The flag drill was that the question stated by the Re- ence what action "all L. A's" take, induced us to postpone action long to be a foolkillers' sociable. view has not been the issue. The re- the Journal will continue to preach enough to see on which side of the mark that "to the provident man the a pure gospel, especially when "the Potomac river the Times would land. monthly is better than the semimonthly is better than the semithings." And whenever it is driven Maryland shore, so that it must be in left last week to attend the New Wind- variously estimated between $1,500 by Prof. Thomas Rabold, of Cumber- Livengood, of Salisbury, Pa., and not essential to the argument. The trom its utterly independent course arms against the home brigade, and sor college in New Windsor, Md. and $5,000. An immense crowd witreal issue is—is it necessary to run to on any or all subjects it will be a good now a chromo, with a cord to hang it Daniel Annan and wife, of Cumber nessed the race. the Legislature for an Act the object time for the pigs to take wings and up by, to the man who can read the land, spent last Sunday with W. L. The Literary and Recreation Club confectionery were served. The Sept. 20, 1887, Rev. D. C. DeWulf, gallant colonel's title clear.

It can be better done, for without part of last month's earnings were manner. In the existing unorganized Albany Dental Association, the largest strong, of this place, laid on the Jourand unsanitary condition of our un- organization of the kind in the world, NAL's table Wednesday, are fine sam- size, with a natural handle. A limb age. He is doing well as could be

THE Cumberland Times, edited by The fact is, the people who are payments, therefore, mean the enact- of them now and become involved in the trunk about proxy we understand, pays its respects | urging this useless scheme are sim- | ment of a law providing for a semi- | killer should be turned loose among | employee, and | three feet above and the latter had to the Journal in Monday's issue ply erecting another condition upon monthly round of picnics and foot- veterans who saw war at a time when in his own office, will resume charge this indicates the average of Mr. Arm- grown completely around it, forming in a half column of innuendo spiced | which wages and even employment | races also? Does it mean that where | current military celebrities pretended |

That shield should be reposed in an injury sustained last week. to be sent to Annapolis next winter.

THE publication of the Ten Commandments (Mich.) paper. nd the Constitution of the United States by editor Oder is expected to prove that the (W. Va. (friends.

Nor in any other kind of decline, and when editor Avirett has matriculated in illegitimate Latin and repented-when he resides where no storms ever beat on the glittering cheek while the years of eternity roll, he will look back upon at least one surviving contemporary of independent guild with positive remorse.

"It's English, Quite English, You Know."-Cumberland will be in style, you see, and as everything English is the proper caper just now, she comes to the front with a fine English walnut tree, from which there

The tree was no doubt of good old illicit Latin stock, and the supply of snakes having run short, the Times is getting there on Anglicized nuts.

served with a zeal worthy of a better | Or rather as a piece of the "Mug- | so that it would not become a law?" people and especially a better cause. wump's modest" autobiography runs Is it not about time for those appar- duced, as shown in cut herewith printed, and from the several bands in line, a bril- member of the Baptist church at Eckently so well informed on the subject to tell all they know?

Until then it will not answer at all as an argument in favor of the constitutionality of the bill.

In private literary circles this week a Lonaconing editor was roasted for easily by hand at proportionate speeds. ungrammatical language in print. Since Monday's issue of the Cumberland Times, however, it is not too much to say that in both illegitimate English and counterfeit Latin Lo-not state what the balance of the The Cumberland Times may af- perfect register, and the register cannot contract was. No doubt when the ford the Journal all the amusement job was agreed to be worth $2.50 it it has to spare, but it will do well to so frightful? If not, why don't they was also settled when it was to be paid let "Maple Sugar" alone. The latter for. If the date was fixed on the has a rod in soak that will bring a 15th of next month it would not be squeal every stroke from the author

What has become of the Cumberland Times, The shipment of the "Guernsey" and every way.

JEFF. DAVIS is working out a plain liam Shakespeare is running a coun- casionally a volunteer. The "Oscil- Colored lights were thrown on as they of early starting the proposed school. try paper in Iowa, and editor Avirett, lator," though rated as one of the went through the evolutions, making Father DeWulf will occupy the aclike a hen with one chicken, is quite cheapest of standard presses, is still the scene novel and pretty. Several quired building as a pastoral resibusy bossing a foolkiller. ownership of town water supplies by lieve, however, that with some other childhood, womanhood, old age and church can be erected. The plan is a

Annan, of this place.

any right he will own under the law. Does a semi-monthly system of colored troops, it is no wonder some declines the offer of a permanent situation of the kind in the world, sans table a semi-monthly system of colored troops, it is no wonder some declines the offer of a permanent situation of the kind in the world, sans table a semi-monthly system of colored troops, it is no wonder some declines the offer of a permanent situation of the kind in the world, sans table a semi-monthly system of colored troops, it is no wonder some declines the offer of a permanent situation of the kind in the world, sans table a semi-monthly system of colored troops, it is no wonder some declines the offer of a permanent situation of the kind in the world, sans table a semi-monthly system of colored troops, it is no wonder some declines the offer of a permanent situation of the kind in the world, sans table a semi-monthly system of colored troops.

here next Monday. Particulars from strong's crop. Unfortunately, he does a handle as perfect as ever graced a himself hext week.

the everlastingly false notion that the lose two days then? Does it mean to THE democratic party along the illustrated edition of the Pueblo (Col.) and he knows how to develop it. The itch Cowenibus seems also to have at- companies are obliged to provide them double the opportunities for gam- Creek ought to be extremely careful Chieftain, a massive paper describing The exhibition of Co. D Wednesday Savage mountain a cannon ball, where tacked our poor brother and also the nox with work and wages. This, as indi- bling, and to weaken by half the to send their best men to the county the resources and growth of Pueblo, evening was a success in every way it had lain doubtless since 1755, the evidently a thriving city.

school in Winchester, Va.

John W. Tomlinson, wagon-maker, itorials, etc., with great interest." is suffering from several broken ribs-position on the staff of a Grand Rapids | Shaw, of Baltimore.

not remember the name of the variety, valise. Henry Betz sends the JOURNAL an but it is certain he has a treasure in it, except financially. The vast majority | year of Braddock's march to Fort Du-Miss Bessie McCulloh is attending missed a genuine treat.

"E. M. T.," No. -, North Fulton and corrosion have no doubt reduced Daniel J. Lapp has taken a sales- ave., Baltimore, writing to the Journal its original size. It is nearly as large friends. "It's indeed a sad case, my masters; this evil of the poll," as the revised version ploying him on the condition that he pay rolls to be multiplied by two man's position in Hitchins Bros.' mer- clinches compliance with a request by as a base ball. that the privilege of squandering hatching to colonize a West Virginia cantile house. Dan. can be counted saying-"we are subscribers to your valuable paper and read its spicy ed-

Mrs. Hannah M. Shaw, well known here, died at her home in Morristown, both by the convenience and appear-Henry Jandorf, son of our towns- N. J., Tuesday, aged 78 years. She ance of the establishment very maman, Joseph Jandorf, has secured a was the mother of Maj. Alexander

The Journal's thanks are due Dr. D. P. Fitch is among Fairmont, George Stern for valuable assistance 40 feet, and with its beautiful finish of

THE NEW PATENT

OSCILLATING PRINTING PRESS.

Patent Oscillating Printing Press from held here in many years. the Campbell Press Company, of New About 10:30 a. m. the visiting lodges | He ran forward to catch the lines, in HAVE we not heard enough of the York. It is a No. 2 of the make from Cumberland, Lonaconing, Bar- doing which he tell under the wheels charge that "$500 was paid one man named, capable of printing a paper a ton, Piedmont and Keyser, and the which passed over his chest, inflicting in Baltimore to keep the (mining column per page larger than the Jour- Frostburg fire department, escorted internal injuries of a mortal character. bill of last session) in his posession NAL. In addition to this brief descrip- by the Frostburg Lodge, marched Mr. Arnold was 60 years of age, a tion we quote from the manufacturers: from the depot to the Centennial thorough gentleman, model citizen and runs absolutely without noise. For its weight, strength and capacity, it is also the cheapest printing machine in existen Its solidity will be unquestioned when it is known that, even with its extremely simple mechanism, the No. 1 weighs 4,700 pounds. It is capable of running by power fully up to 1,200 impressions per hour, and may be ru actuating and moving parts are so simple that it will outwear any country press in existence three or four times.

fly, and therefore is excellently adapted to poster work, while for country newspaper a job work it is without a rival. Its operation while printing is precisely the same as the well-known stop-cylinder, but without any sociation, and Capt. J. H. Jarboe the of its complications. It will, therefore, give Barton. Both associations evinced be welcomed to our business circle as affected by wear.

the "Guernsey," a machine of ante bellum patent and make, and which has tion. The day passed off without a line regret by the community. No been long ago regarded as out-of- jar, and, as said in the outset of this fashion. The latter has gone to the item, it was one notable for success in ture more than him. As an affable Far West.

one of its most mortal friends—the lyn, a printing press machinist. The every sense of the word. The flag drill druggist in that city. heavy work fell upon Messrs, John was rendered by "Company G," com- The Catholic School.-Rev. D. C. McCaughan, W. S. Hoblitzell, C. posed of twenty-five little girls, wear- DeWulf has purchased the property of Eugene Graham, Lewis Schaub, W. ing white dresses and red sashes and Dr. T. J. Grahame, adjoining the St. drunk fine at St. Joseph, Mo.; Wil- H. Parker and C. H. Parker, and oc- caps, led by W. H. Davis, captain. Michael's church grounds, with a view a costly machine, as may be judged tableaux were given each evening. dence, and the edifice now so used will by the fact that our No. 2, as it stands Saturday, "Consolation," and "Rock be turned over to school purposes until THE JOURNAL has always favored in the office, cost $976.70. We be of Ages," in four scenes, representing the contemplated building east of the coning, who beat John McAllister, of given each evening and twice on Tues- Married-At the residence of the the Shaft, about 40 feet. A great deal day evening by request. Vocal music | bride's father, John Ravenscraft, this of foolish betting was done. The was rendered each evening by a select place, Tuesday, Sept. 20, 1887, by amount which went from Frostburg choir, Miss Ella V. Weis, organist, and Rev. G. A. Schwedes, assisted by rooms will open next Saturday, Oct. amount realized was $122. knows who belongs and who does not. things forgotten last week was a re- Thursday evening, Sept. 22, 1887, Mr.

A. Everstine, well known here.

New Press .- The JOURNAL signal- The Knights of Pythias Picnic .izes its entry into the seventeenth year | Tuesday's picnic under the auspices of by introducing a valuable acquisition Frostburg City Lodge, No. 88, K. of Wednesday morning. He had stopped to its equipment, consisting of a New P., was the finest affair of the kind for some purpose, during which the

the most complimentary plaudits. | tended. The next conspicuous feature of interest took place about the middle of the afternoon-the competitive drill be- has purchased the good will, stock and tween the Lonaconing and Barton drill associations. Capt James Martin commanded the Lonaconing ascareful training and a praiseworthy a decided acquisition. effort on the part of the men to excel. The new press takes the place of The prize, an elegant sword, was awarded to the Lonaconing associacake, lemonade, soda water, fruits and At St. Michael's church, Tuesday, Curiosities .- Among the several brought to New Hope mine by William BRODE, of this place. weighman, was called, and by the lat- was caught Tuesday under a heavy fall

T. S. Preston, of this place, found embedded in the Braddock Road on Quesne. The wear and tear of travel Improvement .- The changes and improvements made in D. G. Percy's dwelling and drug store portion of the homestead property are augmented terially. The east door opens into the dwelling, the west as before into the drug store. This apartment is 16 by elegant paper, panel work, bordering, white furniture, glass cases and drug stock is a bright, cheery, beautiful store. The entire fronting is 30 feet. There are six pillars flanking glass plates and doors. On each pillar at the bottom is a letter of Mr. Percy's name in bright yellow. The groundwork is black, beautifully ornamented also by yellow stripes. The entire improvement is costly, tasteful and one that adds great value to the property and facility to the transaction of business. Mr. Percy is to be congratulated both on his taste and enterprise.

Accident and Death .- About a week ago Jesse J. Arnold, a well known and popular farmer, while driving his team homeward from Eckhart met with an accident which terminated in his death horses became restive and started. liant display of uniform and regalia. hart and superintendent of the Sun-At the grounds the usual amusements | day school attached thereto. His wife followed, all of which old and young | and three sons survive : George H., enjoyed. The addresses by Messrs. watchman in the Baltimore custom B. A. Richmond and George L. Wel- house; Samuel, of this place, and John lington were most happy efforts, and W., registrar for district No. 12. The both gentlemen merited and received funeral Thursday was largely at-

Business Change.-I. C. Lambert fixtures of the drug store of George A. Wingert, and will continue the business without interruption. Mr. Lambert, a most excellent gentleman, will

The determination of Mr. Wingert to abandon business here and remove from the State is received with genone was regarded in the light of a fixgentleman he has made many friends and as a competent, reliable druggist, labor, notwithstanding we had at our the M. E. Church, South, in Moat's end of two months expects to remove Away from home superintending command the native skill and ripe ex- Opera House Saturday, Monday and to Asheville, N. C., where he will join the erection of a flag of truce over perience of Alfred Johnson, of Brook- Tuesday evenings were successful in J. S. Grant, already an established into the Future," "Woman's Rights," moving with great caution, is moving

Mr. JOHN SCALLEY, of this place, and Miss Josehhine Brode, of Hoffman. At the German Lutheran church, GEORGE MAYER and Miss ANNIE

Serious Accident .- John Brady, son