Surprise Party.—Members of the Main street Baptist church and congregation surprised their pastor, Rev. James Miller, Saturday evening, with a numerous visitation to the parsonage. They carried with them refreshments for the occasion, and when they left the happy pastor was better off by a large lot groceries, provisions, a fine pair of gaiters and $10 in money.

Real Estate Movements.—Joseph Bear has purchased the residence of George A. Wingert in east Frostburg for $2,200 cash. The deed was partly executed in Asheville, N. C., on the 16th, completed in Frostburg on the 17th, recorded on the 18th, and Mr. Bear moved in on the 19th.

Johnson Bros. have contracted to build a house each for George Reidler and Charles D. Brode on the lots recently purchased by the latter gentlemen from the heirs of the late Jesse J. Arnold.

Sales.—The "Workman farm," 360 acres, about midway between Frostburg and Mt. Savage, was sold by trustees in Cumberland last Saturday to Messrs. Resley M., L. C. and F. O. Workman, West Virginia parties in interest, for $6,001. Mrs. Margaret Stevens and William Workman, resident parties in interest, are represented by John S. Grove, attorney at law, of this place.

B. A. Richmond, trustee, will sell a valuable property to-day. See advertisement.

Martin Monaghan, mortgagee, advertises to-day the sale of the Wegman property, this place. DeW. H. Reynolds is attorney in the case.

Marriage.—James S. Grant, of Asheville, N. C., formerly of this place, and Miss Louie Swain, grand-daughter of the late governor Swain, of Tennessee, were married at noon Wednesday in the Presbyterian church at Tullahoma, Tenn. A reception followed at the residence of the bride's mother, after which the wedded pair left for Cumberland. Mr. Grant is well and favorably known here as a young man of exceptionally fine promise. The bride is one of Tennessee's most charming daughters. The JOURNAL joins Mr. Grant's numerous friends, here and elsewhere, in the sincere wish that his wedded life may be long, prosperous and happy.

"An Act of Wonderful Heroism".—Under this head the Cumberland News of Monday relates the following thrilling incident:

Wonnie, the 10 year old daughter of J. F. Robinson, of Paw Paw, performed an astonishing act of heroism the other day. She had charge of her little sister, Josie, aged two years, who, while Wonnie's attention was called away, wandered on to the railroad track just as No. 6 was going east at its highest rate of speed. When the child was first seen by Wonnie the engine was not 75 feet from the little one. There were fifteen or twenty standing there, but not one dared to run the risk and save the child.

Wonnie did not hesitate a moment, she sprang on the track, seized the child in her arms and bounded back, the engine grazing her dress and the rush of air whirling her around, escaping nevertheless unhurt. As she sprang on the track the bystanders wheeled around horrified and unwilling to see the two children crushed. The child afterwards said to her father:

Pa, I saved Josie, and she saved me, too, for if she had not been in my arms and weighed me down the engine would have sucked me under.

Little Wonnie is well-known in this city, coming here several times a week to take music lessons.

Wonnie is the granddaughter of William Wonn, of Eckhart.

She is a heroine for life.

The Coal Trade.—The record of coal shipments by companies from the Georges Creek region for the week ending Saturday, October 13, 1888, closed as follows, the figures indicating tons of 2,240 lbs.:

Concerning the trade in market the New York Engineering and Mining Journal says:

There is absolutely nothing worthy of note in the bituminous coal trade. Everything moves along at its steady pace without any large orders to disturb the regularity in prices. Our usual quotations are obtained, and in some cases a little more. The prices are as follows: $2.60 f. o. b. Baltimore and Georgetown, and $3.25 for New York harbor.

In Boston the greater part of the soft coal trade has rejoiced to hear that some of the parties who went in and took a tremendous tonnage at cut prices are not having coal enough from their own mines to meet their contracts, to say nothing of new orders, and are actually having to buy from their competitors. It is needless to say that there is not much profit in such business. The bituminous market is a trifle firmer, quoting delivered prices at $3.35@$3.00.

And the Mining Record of same city:

Of the bituminous market we can only say that the demand for that species of fuel at the seaboard and elsewhere continues to expand faster than the railroads seem to be able to supply transportation. Nevertheless, prices have not stiffened.

Only $3.10 for the Mining Journal AND Demorest's Monthly Magazine.

A WONDERFUL PUBLICATION.

Many suppose DEMOREST'S MONTHLY to be a fashion magazine. This is a great mistake. It undoubtedly contains the finest Fashion Department of any magazine published, but this is the case from the fact that great enterprise and experience are shown, so that each depicts it as equal to a magazine in itself. In DEMOREST'S you get a dozen magazines in one, and receive amusement and instruction for the whole family. It contains Stories, Poems, and other Literary attractions, including Articles on Science, and Household matters, and is illustrated with original Steel Engravings, Photogravures, Water-Colors, and fine Woodcuts, making it the Model Magazine of America.

Each copy contains a PATTERN ORDER entitling the holder to the selection of ANY PATTERN illustrated in any number of the Magazine, OR IN ANY OF THE SIZES manufactured, each valued at from 20 cents to 50 cents, or over $3.00 worth of patterns per year, free.

Yearly subscription, $2.00. A trial will convince you that you can get ten times the value of the money paid. Single copies (each containing Pattern Order), 20 cents.

Published by W. JENNINGS DEMOREST, NEW YORK.

The above combination is a splendid chance to get our paper and DEMOREST'S MONTHLY at a reduced rate. Send your subscriptions to this office.

William Wonn to John Pengelly, lots Nos. 5, 6, 7 and 8, near Eckhart Mine, $1,500.

The Sick.—Joseph Knode, an old and prominent citizen of this place, has been seriously ill during the week, but yesterday he was reported as materially improved. So great were the apprehensions at one time that Harry Wingert, attending a college of pharmacy in Baltimore, accompanied by A. J. Boose, of Cumberland, and, later Mrs. George A. Wingert, of Asheville, N. C., responded to a summons to his bedside.

Reports from J. J. Keller, who is yet confined to his house, are cheering.

George Steyer continues sick at his house.

Died.—Saturday, October 13, 1888—her 56th birthday—Mrs. MINA BRODE, wife of Daniel Brode, of this place.

Publications.—"Queer People" is the title of the latest, and by all odds the most charming book for little people we have ever seen. Its fables, or stories, are delightful, but the illustrations are simply immense. The author, Palmer Cox, is a new star in the juvenile firmament, but he shines with unique brilliancy. His charming fables rival those of the world famed Æsop, and he far outshines that celebrated literary comet by his inimitable illustrations. He dresses up his birds, animals, insects, giants, fairies, goblins, etc., in grotesque style and makes them reason, talk, dance, and cut up all sorts of the oddest pranks imaginable, affording infinite delight, as well as excellent instruction to the young. The issue of his book, "Queer People," has brought a perfect ovation of praise from the brightest men in the land. For instance, Gen. Clinton B. Fisk says: "It has set my children wild with delight," and Col. Russell H. Conwell, the famous lecturer, says: "Don't send me another such a book, for I can't get my children to bed." The famous statesman, diplomat, and wit, Sunset Cox, says: "The Queer Kapers are simply incomparable," while the distinguished theologian, Dr. Howard Crosby, says: "They have the fascination that belongs to Æsop and Uncle Remus," and the venerable poet, Dr. Oliver Wendell Holmes, writes "I am sorry I have not a nursery full of little folks to enjoy it, bright pictures and stories." Æsop's fables are enjoyed by old and young and are quoted by the greatest orators and surely these equally charming stories, so profusely and exquisitely illustrated will charm young and old for generations to come. The sale of this book will surely be enormous. It is published by the well known house of Hubbard Bros. Phila., Chicago, and Kansas City, to whom any persons desiring an agency should apply.

A BIG MISTAKE CORRECTED!

SOME persons have reported and others believe that I intend removing from here.

In order to set everyone right I would emphatically say

THIS IS A MISTAKE!

I am here to stay, and have just returned from the eastern markets with the largest, most fashionable and cheapest stock of

CLOTHING,
GENTS' FURNISHING GOODS,
CARPETS, OILCLOTHS
TRUNKS, SATCHELS,
HATS AND CAPS,

Ever brought to a single establishment in our county. Moreover, as I am cramped for room to store all my goods, I will sell every article at about 6 per cent. profit—at least for the next thirty days.

I have not time nor space to put all on paper; therefore, I have mentioned but a few articles in order that you may appreciate and realize that all should come—no wait, but come at once and examine goods and prices. No one in want of goods will leave my store without buying, but you should come right along before the rush begins and the assortment is broken.

☞ All persons coming by rail buying goods of me will have their fare paid both ways.

Don't forget that my place is opposite C. F. Nickel's furniture store—the first clothing store as you come from the depot. Thanking you for past favors, I am respectfully,

May 19 H. OPPENLAND.
