ADDITIONAL LOCAL ITEMS

An Election Wager Paid.—About 12 o'clock Saturday last August Eickhorn, of this place, democrat, wheeled Joseph Timmens, his business neighbor, republican, in a wheelbarrow on Main street from near Water street to Ravenscraft's Opera House. The affair occasioned considerable merriment. Christopher Fisher led the procession with a tin horn. Timmens was gaudily arrayed and his vehicle adorned with national emblems. Eickhorn was glad when it was over, and says he wants no more similar wheelbarrow work to do for anybody.

Polttical.—The republicans of Ellerslie had a big jubilee Saturday night, with Clarence M. King master of ceremonies.

The republicans of Cumberland held a jollification meeting and parade Tuesday evening. Those of Lonaconing ditto. Both affairs were participated in by a large number.

The jollification set for Thursday evening in this place was postponed during the forenoon on account of the prospect of inclement weather. It will take place next Tuesday evening. A torchlight parade, fireworks and a general illumination are in prospect. The line will form in front of Ravenscraft's Opera House at 7 o'clock and follow the route as given below:

Down Main street to Grant, to Bowery, to German, to Hill, to county road, to Bowery, to German, to Centre, to Oak, to Broadway, to Mechanic, to Water, to Frost avenue, to reservoir, to Ormond, to Water, to Mechanic, to reservoir, to Main, to Ravenscraft's Opera House and disperse.

Clubs from Elk Garden, Piedmont, Keyser, Cumberland, Lonaconing and Barton will join with Frostburg's turnout, and Capt. Alfred Spitznos will be marshal.

Visitation and Banquet.—The members of Frostburg Council, No. 1,012, of the Royal Arcanum, are on the qui vive on account of the visitation next Wednesday evening, 21st inst., of Grand Council dignitaries. After routine exercises at their meeting place all will repair to the St. Cloud hotel to participate in a banquet to be tendered the distinguished guests. Members will be accompanied by their wives; those who have no wives will be accompanied each by his own or somebody else's sister. The ladies, however, are expected to assemble at the St. Cloud hotel not later than 8½ o'clock, there to wait the coming of their lieges from the Council meeting. The hour fixed for the banquet is 9. All the members of the Council, in town and out, are expected to be present at the Council chamber at the usual hour of meeting. The gentlemen expected from abroad are Dr. C. E. S. McKee, of Hagerstown: Rev. B. F. Clarkson, Dr. Baden and George West, of Baltimore. The Council desires as a body that every member and every invited lady shall attend, as a most enjoyable social occasion is provided for.

In Memoriam.—The Front Royal (Va.) papers of last week contain pathetic references to the death of Miss Varina D. Churchill, all going to show how high a place she occupied in popular esteem. A contributor to the Sentinel writes:

Such a death seems to human eye profound mystery. So young, yet experienced; so useful and beloved and full of promise for the home, and for society—surely it would be judged that if any one had reason to live it was she. But God is wiser than we. In the morning of her days He has seen fit to remove her from time to eternity. Her death was a sad surprise to her family and large circle of friends, and is a grievous bereavement. Gentle, modest, dutiful, handsome in appearance, cordial and frank, and of manners winning and popular, her unexpected removal from a loving household has deeply affected this whole community, and all mourn her untimely end.

At 3 p. m. the home, of which she was the light, was crowded with afflicted relations and sympathizing friends, where the funeral services were conducted in a most impressive and solemn manner by Rev. J. R. Jones, Rector of the Episcopal Church of this town, after which the casket containing the remains of one, beautiful in life and in death, was borne to Prospect Hill cemetery, (E. M. Nesbitt, Dr. W. R. Renalds, W. O. Rust, W. C. Weaver, G. Edgar Jones and John T. Lovell acting as pall-bearers) and tenderly placed in the grave and covered with the earth, and the fresh ground wreathed with autumn flowers.

When blooming youth is snatched away
By death's resistless hand,
Our hearts the mournful tribute pay,
Which pity must demand.

The following friends sent flowers for her obsequies:

Mrs. G. C. Davis, a cross; Mrs. G. H. Bowman, a heart; Mrs. Downing and Miss Jennings, a cross and pillow; Mrs. Hollis, a crown; Miss Annie Miller, a cross; Miss Jennie Jones, a wreath; Miss Nannie Adams, a cross; bouquets from Mrs. Sheppard, Mrs. Rust, Mrs. Peyton, and Misses Rock Jackson and Mary Weaver; a waiter of flowers from an unknown friend.

Some kind friend of the family furnishes the Messenger with the following:

Miss Rina had lived in this community long enough to form many warm and lasting friendships, her cheerful disposition, genial manner and amiable qualities making her a favorite with her young companions, and to her older friends her smiling face was always welcome. Her death was rather sudden. Though sick for nearly two weeks no one thought her seriously ill, and only a week previous she was planning with some young friends the pleasures for the coming season; but a few days later, surrounded by a loving mother and sisters, in the hush of the quiet Sabbath morning she passed peacefully away. On the following day, a perfect autumn day, the funeral services were held at the house, conducted by Rev. J. R. Jones, amidst a large assemblage of sorrowing friends. The floral tokens were numerous and choice, sent by loving hearts in tender remembrance. To mother and sisters, together with the far-off absent brothers, unable through force of circumstances to be in the family circle at this dark hour, we tender our warmest sympathies, and trust the God that never smites in unkindness will unveil the wisdom of this affliction and bind up the bleeding hearts.

Leaves have their time to fall,
And flowers to wither at the North wind's breath;
And stars to set, but all—
Thou hast all seasons for thine own, O, Death.

In the same paper W. W. Long, of Front Royal, a poet who has merited and obtained considerable celebrity, publishes the beautiful original lines below under the heading—"In Memory of Miss Varina Davis Churchill:"

She fell asleep when the rosy morn
Came peeping in from the eastern skies,
And the door of heaven opened wide
To welcome her in to Paradise.
Death to her was only a sleep,
And she laid life's burden down,
And glided out to the bright Unknown
Under the glory of cross and crown.

Her body sleeps on its couch of snow,
Her white hands folded as in prayer,
And the golden glow of the morning sun
Lightly rests on her wavy hair.
Her waxen lids are softly closed
Over the light of her radiant eyes,
That have opened bright in the land above,
And look on wonderful mysteries.

Sadly you kiss her and lay her away
With mortal grief for mortal loss;
She is not dead, the body rests
Under the delicate grass and moss.
'Tis only a shattered idol of clay
Linked to a love that grows not old;
The spirit strays through starry realms,
Crowned with a diadem of gold.

New Business Locals.

Their Business Booming.—Probably no one thing has caused such a general revival of trade at I. C. Lambert's Drug Store as their giving away to their customers of so many free trial bottles of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption. Their trade is simply enormous in this very valuable article from the fact that it always cures and never disappoints. Coughs, Colds, Asthma, Bronchitis, Croup, and all throat and lung diseases quickly cured. You can test it before buying by getting a trial bottle free, large size $1. Every bottle warranted.

A Sound Legal Opinion.—E. Bainbridge Monday, Esq., County Atty., Clay Co., Tex. says: "Have used Electric Bitters with most happy results. My brother also was very low with Malarial Fever and Jaundice, but was cured by timely use of this medicine. Am satisfied Electric Bitters saved his life."

Mr. D. I. Wilcoxson, of Horse Cave, Ky., adds a like testimony, saying: He positively believes he would have died, had it not been for Electric Bitters.

This great remedy will ward off, as well as cure all Malaria Diseases, and for all Kidney, Liver and Stomach Disorders stands unequaled. Price 50 cents and $1 at I. C. Lambert's.

Oh, What A Cough.—Will you heed the warning. The signal perhaps of the sure approach of that more terrible disease, consumption. Ask yourselves if you can afford for the sake of saving 50 cents, to run the risk and do nothing for your Cough. It never fails. This explains why more than a Million Bottles were sold the past year. It relieves Croup and Whooping Cough at once Mothers, do not be without it. For Lame Back, Side or Chest, use Shiloh's Porous Plaster. Sold by I. C. Lambert.
