THE BROOK.

BY ALFRED TENNYSON.

I come from haunts of coot and hern, I make a sudden sally And sparkle out among the fern, To bicker down a valley.

By thirty hills I hurry down, Or slip between the ridges, By twenty thorps, a little town, And half a hundred bridges.

Till last by Philip's farm I flow To join the brimming river, For men may come and men may go, But I go on forever.

I chatter over stony ways, In little sharps and trebles,

I bubble into eddying bays, I babble on the pebbles. With many a curve my banks I fret

By many a field and fallow, And many a fairy foreland set With willow-weed and mallow. I chatter, chatter, as I flow

To join the brimming river,

For men may come and men may go, But I go on forever. I wind about, and in and out, With here a blossom sailing,

And here and there a lusty trout,

And here and there a grayling,

And here and there a foaming flake Upon me, as I travel With many a silvery waterbreak, Above the golden gravel,

And draw them all along, and flow To join the brimming river, For men may come and men may go, But I go on forever.
