FRIDAY, JUNE 9 1882.

—Both Houses of Congress have authorized the War Department to furnish tents for the coming encampment of the Grand Army of the Republic in Baltimore.

—The prohibitionists of Wisconsin are preparing for a vigorous political campaign this fall. The State Prohibitory Association announces that they will endorse candidates on either the Republican or Democratic ticket who are supposed to be favorable to the temperance movement.

—A duel was fought in St. Bernard parish, La., on Wednesday morning, between Major E. A. Burke, of the Times-Democrat, and C. H. Parker, editor of the Picayune.—Five pistol-shots were exchanged. At the fifth fire Burke was shot through both thighs, although no bones were broken and the wound is not considered dangerous. The difficulty grew out of certain editorial articles in the Picayune, at which Major Burke took offense and challenged the editor, who accepted with the result as above stated.

—A second instalment of one hundred and twenty miners arrived at Eckhart on Wednesday evening to be employed in the mines of Consolidation Company. Great excitement prevailed on their arrival, the strikers cutting upon the men to desert their employers, to which no attention was paid. Eight hundred tons of coal mined by the new hands were shipped the same day in seven boats

—Mr. Forwood, late mayor of Liverpool, writes to the London Times that his experience during the recent Fenian activity convinces him that the outrages in Ireland are perpetrated by the hirelings of a small knot of Fenians in America. To suppress these, he says, American co-operation is indispensable. This can only be secured by showing that the American conspirators are a distinct organization from the Irish Nationalists, and can be dealt with without interfering with the Irish vote. England has a right to ask America to strangle Fenianism in the place of its birth.

—The House Committee on Commerce decided to report favorably a bill to establish a board of commissoners of inter-state commerce as a bureau of the Interior Department. The board will exercise supervision over that portion of the business of all railroads which passes from one state or territory into, or through one or more states or territories, and over all the commerce on the navigable wates of the United States, or to or from any foreign country. The board shall investigate all complaints forward to it of discrimination in charges made for its services, or the method of rendering its services, as a common carrier on commerce between the states, by any railroad corporation or water transportation company.

—During the last week Mr. Charles Reed, Guiteau's counsel, made two ineffectual efforts to obtain a review of his client's case. His first petition was in the Court of General Term, and was based upon the ground that an indictment should allege the place of death, which allegation should be sustained by the evidence. Judge Cartter dismissed the petition, saying that the Court had decided, right or wrong, that the place of death was immaterial to the crime; the offence of murder consists in the violence, not in the death, although death is an essential feature of the crime. Mr. Reed presented his second petition before Judge Wylie in the Criminal Court, who decided that he had no power to go into a record of the General Court. It is now supposed that Mr. Reed will institute proceedings in lunacy as his last resort.

—Hon. Jamee G. Blaine having been requested by many Republicans to accept the nomination for Congressman-at-large has declined He says, "After the fullest reflection I feel constrained to withhold the use of my name. For twenty three years I was continously in the public service, and I left in consequence of a tragedy that has involved deep changes in the policy of the government. Since then I have been attending to long-neglected private affairs, from which I can not at this time turn aside, except with injustice to those who have even a stronger claim upon me than the great constituency which in all these years has honored me with an earnest support and with unwavering confidence."

—A bill has been favorably reported to the House providing for the collection of a duty of fifty cents on every foreign passenger coming by vessel from a foreign part to any port within the United States. The money thus collected is to constitute a fund, called the immigrant fund, to be used—under the direction of the Secretary of the Treasury—to defray the expenses of regulating immigration.

—At an election held on Monday in Oregon the Republicans elected a Congressman by a majority of 2,000 and secured control of the Legislature, thus insuring the return of a Republican to the United States Senate.

—Charles Cole, editor of the Frederick Maryland Union, was stricken with paralysis Wednesday afternoon. His condition is not considered dangerous.

—It is reported that indications point to a larger crop of peaches in Delaware and on the Eastern Shore of Maryland than has been produced for several years.

—Franklin J. Moses, ex Governor of South Carolina, has pleaded guilty of petit larceny and was sentenced to the penitentiary for six months.

—General Giuseppe Garibaldi, the Italian patriot, died at Caprera last Friday evening, of bronchitis, aged 71 years and 11 months.

—Vennor predicts that the Saturdays and Sundays in June and July will be the days of change to unfavorable weather.

—Registration of voters under the law passed at the recent session of the Legislature began in Baltimore on Monday.

MAYAPPLE AS A MEDICINE.

Owing to the popularity of MAYAPPLE in never failing to restore a Torpid Liver to healthy action, each branch of the Medical Profession, including Allopathy, Homœopathy and Electric Physicians, claim its origin. They all regard it as the vegetable mercury without any deleterious effect, and it is the only known vegetable that acts directly on the Liver, (when properly prepared, as we claim ours to be,) any intelligent Physicians will corroborate our statement, and when combined with the best Aromatic Tonics known in the world, makes it
