The longest line of fence in the world will be the wire fence extend ing from the Indian Territory west across the Texas Panhandle, and thirty-five miles into New Mexico. We are informed that eighty-five miles of this fence is already under contract. Its course will be in the line of the Canadian river, and its W. McCoy & Son, purpose is to stop the drift of the Northern cattle. It is a bold and TOMBS, splendid enterprise, and will pay a large percentage on the investment. The fence will be over two hundred miles long.
