On proceedings in the Orphans Court of Queen Anns County June 15th 1848 to establish the nonceptive will of Thomas Dudley late of said County dec^d Questions drawn by order of the Court and propounded to witnesses -

Question 1st Were you present shortly before the death of Thomas Dudley at his dwelling where he died.

Question 2nd Was The said Thomas Dudley of sound mind and in your opinion capable of making a will,

Question 3rd Was the articulation or speech of the said Thomas Dudley so distinct that you could perfectly understand what he said.

Question 4th Did he request you to bear witness to his words making a disposition of his estate or any part of it, & what did he say.

Doct William J Sudler being sworn said in answer to Question the 1st Yes, Question 2nd he was of sound mind but could not articulate sufficiently plain to be understood perfectly. Question 3rd Not every thing he said, but part of what he said could be understood perfectly, Question 4th No, he did not request me to bear witness that what he said was his will, but I understood him to say he desired that his wife should have one half of his personal estate, and speaking of his son he said he wanted all over a ^{sufficiently} support his son to be a pleader to the improvement of his land, He was in a state of sleep part of the time & at other times roused, he was not in a stupor at the time of making his will he was not dictated to by any person to my knowledge on the contrary he called on Col James Rod to come to him & then he proceeded to speak of the disposition of his property as aforesaid. (Signed)
