

69

Being of the bulkhead of a tract of land called "Lloyd's Neglect"
 for A.
 Jacob Stockman Esq.

State of Maryland &c. By Virtue of a special Warrant of February 13th 1826. Escheat granted out of the Land Office for the Eastern Shore unto Aaron Anthony Esq. of Talbot County bearing date the eighth day of March Eighteen hundred and twenty five, to Survey part of a tract of Land called "Smiths Cliffs" originally on the seventh day of July, one thousand six hundred and sixty five, granted unto William Smith for two thousand acres lying in Talbot County aforesaid which said part of a tract of Land, afterwards became the property of a certain William Colbourn who did seize thereof intestate and without heirs by which means the same became de--cheat to the State of Maryland as appearing &c.
 I hereby certify that I have by Virtue of the aforesaid Warrant carefully measured and laid out for and in the name of him the said Aaron Anthony Esq. the aforesaid part of a tract of Land called "Smiths Cliffs" and now called "Lloyd's Neglect," Beginning at a stone marked N^o 1. set down by James Sloney where the original white Oak formerly stood, mentioned in a Deed of division, be-tween Richard, Jacob and Philip Moring dated the first day of October Seventeen hundred and Eighteen, as the Be-ginning thereof, it being in the bank of Tuckahoe Creek, and running from thence South twenty eight degrees and thirty minutes, West thirtyn paces, to the head or east end of a tract of Land called "Stone Hill," then with that line with an allow-ance of five degrees for Variation, South twenty seven degrees and thirty minutes East twenty paces to the head of Tuckahoe Creek, near the high land at the south side of a small branch called "The Boy Gut" and from thence up the creek aforesaid and bounded therewith, North twenty degrees and thirty minutes East twenty three paces, to a tract of Land called "Kentucky," then with a straight line to the