to accomplish this!— I will presently shew how Mr. Teackle artifice and villainy accomplished all this, and more, without it being seen what his purpose was in the matter at all. As far back as 1816 Mr. Teackle obtained a charter for a rail road in Somerset County ~~to run~~ to remove timber from the interior of ~~Somerset~~ the County to navigable water, & in this charter all the machinery for the organization of a company was comprised. It was still in force in 1835 and, the next thing to be done was to file a supplement to this charter, & passed to extend it's scope & powers & to allow a rail or rail roads to be made in any part of Somerset County, under that original charter. — For this purpose a bill was prepared by Teackle & put into the hands of a peer, and seeming to be one of his whims, meaning but little, & no money being asked for, it was passed without being printed & very probably without being really read. after this bill was passed another bill was prepared by Mr. Teackle to authorise the extension of the Somerset road through all the counties above, until it should intersect the Baltimore and Philadelphia road. For this bill Mr. Teackle found another gentleman to father it, and it was passed without being printed, and it is believed without its being read — or if read, it could not be understood without a careful reading of the supplement just passed, and the original
