Baltimore March 4th 1839

My Dear Conroy

I sent you over Capt McCabe on Saturday 20 Bushels blacksmith Coal it was the first opportunity offered after you came to hand — Your Note for 350$ will be due on the day after tomorrow the 6th Inst. I have been extremely exercised in mind for the last six weeks, and altho somewhat composed, I still feel much concern relative to my future occupation business; my Mind is made up to use all possible exertion and leave the result to that faithful unchangeable friend, who has ever been with me; and supplied my every want — Business is beginning to assume a more lively appearance; Corn has improved a shade White 82@83 Yellow 84@85 Cts What remains I have 7 3/4 $ with best wishes

Remain
Your friend
Wm A Stewart