

Marion Bonacks indebted to between $600 & $700, that he had appropriated to munies that he had collected as manager by the officers & that he (Cool Worth) begged to withdraw any favorable report of him he might before have made to the Dept.
this was the only one of the new appointments improperly. —

The letter from the adjutant regarding an explanation, to be of War —

It also appears that as himself known to
to the Railroad to
