Baltimore March 8th 1844

Mr J R Emory

Dear sir if it be convenient for you to come down to the Island on Monday or Tuesday next or any day during the week I can pay you five hundred dollars or if it should not be so that you cant come if you will appoint a day the first of the week say Tuesday or Wednesday I will try and meet you in Centerville but if you should appoint ^{day} toward the later part of the week it may be possible that I cant meet you for I may be making arrangement to sail for Balti for my business is coming on and I am but little at home. Though I think that I will not be ready for Baltimore before the last of the week say Saturday if you receive this letter in time write me by Tuesday mail if I am to see you in Centerville
Yours very respectfully Y C C
