

Dear Sir

Balt^o July 9th 1847

Your favor per Mail was duly received we deposited in Bank per Bank Book $850⁰⁰/₁₀₀ and send you by Capt John Smith in Cash $145.⁵⁰ Cts - Making the balance due you of per the Sales of Corn - $995.50 which close up the Corn Ac^t - Since the last time there has been little or nothing done, every kind of grain tendency downwards no one appears willing to buy unless at very reduced prices, Corn may be quoted 70 to 75 Cts, and this to a limited extent, Wheat we have had none, and hear of no sales of new worthy of note, we can form no correct opinion from what the price will be yours truly
