Col Loomis. A and Lb. were the favored ones, they left here ^{the day before} yesterday. — Capt Torr remained at this place, and is I believe going to Washington to have his sentence annulled, or in the event of its being refused, to resign; I cannot hope for such good luck as the latter; you know of course that he was cashiered by the Court, but that his sentence was commuted by the President to sus-pension for a year. —

Wharton is here also, he is the father of a fine son, when the fact was announced, we drank his health with three cheers, and the officer of the day took down all the men that were tied up and in the stocks, I expect they wish a son
