

Samuel Ringgold deed dated the 8th of February 1814 for all that to John Dames } part or parcel of land, being part of tract of land called "Pennell's Regulation" & contained within the following lines or lines & boundaries following to wit. Beginning at a post set up between Barradine Ringgold & Mrs. Blake running North Fifty six Degrees, West fourteen perches, & three tenths of a perch then South thirty seven Degrees, West one hundred & twenty six perches. To the South line of Bachelor's Plains. & with that line South three degrees thirty minutes, East twenty two perches thence North thirty seven degrees West one hundred & forty three perches. To the post aforesaid Contg: 12 acres more or less