

Beginning of the R. survey standing close by a Hawthorn on the East side of Corfica Creek, and forty perches, ~~and~~ South seven ty eight Degrees West from a Locust stump the original beginning of Courveys Part Bishop's Addition and Bishop's Culletts and running from said Locust Post down by and with Corfica Creek, and up by and with Bishop's Cove to the first line of the Land called Brampton's Addition the several Courses ^{following} (to wit) N. 47° W.
98 p. N 64° 45. W. 11 p. N 43° W. 6 p. N 7°
E 11 p. N 23° W 20 p. N 51° W 10 p. N 20° 15
W 26 p. N 2° E 12 p. N 36° W 10 p. N 23° W 20 p
N 64° W 20 p. N 09° W 32 p. N 52° W 10 p
S 77° W 12 p. N 21° W 31 p. N 30° W 10 p. N 51°
W 14 p. N 79° 30. W 19 p. N 42° W 15 p. S 67°
W 20 p. S 27° W 14 p. N 05° W 12 p. S 70° W 20 p
S 53° W 17 p. N 53° W 10 p. N 37° 30. W 16 p
N 24° W 29 p. N 47° E 20 p. and N 60° E 40 p and N 44° E. 25 p. to the first line of Brampton's addition and with said line reversed N. W.
by W 20 p. to the Beginning of Brampton's addition and second Boundary of the Land called Conquest then with Conquest N. E.
159 p. to Brampton and with that Land