

no other originally the Patent to and Joseph Dunn and by him sold to and Bennett and by him left to his wife who afterwards married John Loppin who is his wife and of same to Mich: Miller who conveyed to Miller who left it to his wife for life and after to his two Daughters one of them & wife of John Loppin, - but however of J. L. as Hollinworth says, I am in my possession of and in summer in 1840 I wrote to said land by no hand promising each for land from one Lewis Blangley to his father in what right Blangley had no body knows - but of a person from Torrest to Dunn is not on record, Hollinworth as he says purchased of Rich: Torrest and to Rich: Torrest his wife good things and I did not see him above six months before recorded when was it recorded according to Rich: and no changing convenience of having a man living if then left it to Rich: Torrest and at same time of J. L. which was a knowledge by Rich: Torrest, Rich: dying never received a word and now I write him a letter to one of Rich: -