Baltimore Sept 1st 1810

Dear Sir,

You have credit in my Books for sixty dollars which I received in your letter of the 28th Augt

The unfortunate & unexpected Failure of Messrs Buffum & Goodhue will necessarily compel me to stop also, unless they can secure me from loss — I am, however, fearfull that they have it not in their power to save me — but as yet I have not failed, nor shall I do so, provided they can secure me in any way

Respectfully
Yours &c
Sam. Ireland
