

Yours true friend which gave me the first information of the ord^r alluded to. When you come to Town be so good as to call and the affair will be satisfactorily explained. I assure you there was nothing ^{like} disrespect intended nor was there any unwillingness on my part to accommodate you. In the mean time permit me to assure you it will not only give me pleasure to sell you such goods as I may have but to serve you as far as in my power in all respects. — You did send me the amt. of a coat which I could not lay my hands on yesterday when your Brother called and requested him to tell you so but presume he forgot it. — I have sent the balance of the proceeds of the 14 Bus. inferior which and the 18 Bus. will ^{be} placed to your credit as required. This is written in a great hurry in consequence of my being very much particularly engaged you will therefore please excuse all errors. I believe me in great haste your friend
