Dear Sister

I send on your cloth at last and the oil also some Rice Apples - you will see by the enclosed acct. how you what money and the 3^d sent to wife by mother & her has been lay^d out - the acct. for the Peoples show was 69[¢] and $50 I paid him on acct. him a Balance due Lavin of 19[¢] which is charged to me on his books this can be p^d at any time when it is convenient to you - I am very well pleased with my new Residence and I think it will suit us better than the woodlands - I send the two little dogs on to you. There has not as yet been an arrival of any all from the Eastward. There are none in town but Bathmore made over which would come ten or twelve dollars higher - and I do not think they are any better, if as good as those made to the eastward. I am on the look
