23^d April 1829

Dear Sir

I rec^d your letter yesterday with an extract from Mr. Check, he now thinks the property ought to be disposed off. Whose fault is it that it has not been sold long since? I hope you will write to him and tell him that he is the cause of all loss, for it is evident that the negroes have been induced to the conduct that he complains through some misman-agement, when I was last up they all appeared to be satisfied, when I sent William Bramble did say a word about their misconduct, I can do nothing with the man Bramble has taken, I wish you could rise up you might convince Bramble
