

chance of making any thing at farming by those who are obliged to rent. The Apothecary business is very certain and if he could procure any compensation for his cloathing I should be pleased with such a situation as now offers let me hear from you on this subject and if Emerson should go to Philadelphia will you give him letters of introduction and a recommendation to Mr Hoar tell Emerson he must not go until I hear from him. Present my best regards to Mrs Tilymon and the young ladies.
