

Centre Ville, October 19. 1829

Dear Sir

I have received your Note of this date, with a Check on the Bank of Baltimore for 209/100 to be applied to the credit of Judge Earle for the last year.

I was in hopes you would have been able to have added something for myself, for I assure you I am suffering for the want of it, you will know that if I do not keep up my payments in Baltimore, I must give up my business, this is to me a serious business, when I have no prospect (I think) of being continued in the Collectorship next year, and it is no comfortable reflection, at the age of 62, to be deprived of the right arm of my support. Do my dear Sir, try and do something for me, as I really in need of the assistance of my friends, and I am sure I can on this score, count upon you exerting

Yours sincerely
William Chambers
