

can not understand why property on the sea board should be so diminished in value as to command no greater price than what I have actually sold for, and bought at, beyond Petersburg - but it appears to be the case generally on the Eastern Shore, Swan point itself is an example -

I need not ask you to explain the cause, if any remarks are made on my absence -

Truly Yours

B. Chew Jr.

*Letter
Paid by B. Chew Jr.
May 16. 1830*

J. T. Highman Esq