

to divers persons; And whereas the said James Gilgman did on or about the month of April Eighteen hundred and twenty five, and by a further deed bearing date the eighth day of September eighteen hundred and twenty five the consent of the said Alexander Hensley and the above named John Gilgman creditors of the said James Gilgman, and for and in consideration of one dollar current money, bargain sell and deliver unto the said John Gilgman and one Matthew Gilgman their Executors, administrators and assigns, all and singular the above mentioned slaves, and sundry other slaves then being and residing in the State of Mississippi, in the last mentioned deeds particularly mentioned, and the issue and descendants of the said slaves or any of them, In trust, that the said John Gilgman, Matthew Gilgman, their Executors administrators and assigns should hire the said slaves and their increase, and apply the hire, to be received for them, for the benefit and use of the said John Gilgman Matthew Gilgman and Alexander Hensley, until their respective claims and demands against the said James Gilgman should be satisfied and paid, in such proportions as might be agreed upon between them; And whereas the said Alexander Hensley hath assigned his claim against the said James Gilgman to the said John Gilgman, whose demand against the said James Gilgman now amounts to five thousand dollars, or thereabouts; and the said Ann Caroline Gilgman, acting in her own behalf and as a feme sole, uncontrouled by her husband, for the consideration of three per cent per annum on the said five thousand dollars, secured to be paid to her by the said John Gilgman annually for the three years next ensuing, one hundred and fifty dollars of which premium he hath already paid to her, hath covenanted and agreed, and by these presents doth covenant and agree to and with the said John Gilgman, to insure to him the said John Gilgman the life of her husband, the said James Gilgman, for the three next year to come, computing the time from the date of these presents, and in case
