My dear Uncle,

I wrote so hurriedly reply to your very affection letter, that I fear you know, what were the offers I made you, relative to Sherwood, and for fear that I have not been suffi-ciently explicit, I have determined to write again - If it suits your convenience, as it would be much more to your advantage to have the farm entirely in your own hands - if you do not require the amount of $6000 note - it and what we own you will go far towards paying for it, and the balance you can settle at your own convenience -

I am sorry to say that Henrietta is again a little unwell - having to-ken fresh cold - Our best love to all friends -
