Mr John Gilghman

Dear Sir, I was much surprised when my son returned home from Centerville, and informed me that Doct Reene neglected to state to ~~you~~ ^{me} as he ~~ought~~ ^{ought} what passed between you and him in full, but only said to me that he had a conversation, or ~~it~~ mentioned the subject, that he wished you to pay the money over to me without saying one word how or when, if he had, I certainly should not of course to say on the subject at the time I did, and I must charge it to the Doct's neglect intirely, please to excuse me Y^{rs}

As my son had to leave his sister when up last which takes him up now after her, if convenient you can pay him a share he has the note with him & can recupe to you for me

Y^{rs} very Respectfully
J. H. Hargrave
