

Probate Clerk's Office,
Hatchet, July 11, 1850

John Seligman, Esq.,

My dear Sir,

Yours of the 20th ult. has been duly received, and in answer to your enquiries I would state that at the December Term 1845 of our Court, Thomas Armat, Co-administrator with David Chambers, of the estate of Wm. H. Chambers, deceased, rendered a final account of his administration, and delivered over to Geo. S. Holiday Esq., Agent for the heirs of decedent, the property and effects belonging to his estate. I would further state that upon a careful examination of the records of this Office, I cannot find any evidence of your claim having been paid to Geo. S. Holiday or any one else as your agent, nor any order of Court authorizing the Administrator to retain a sum in his hands sufficient to pay the same. My fee for examination, &c. is five dollars, which you can remit by mail, at my risk, and oblige

Yours, Very Respectfully,
Wm. A. Inge
