

I doubt if there was one Bury in the Congregation of New Age -- The Girls with their Uncle left here by 7 I entered as the thro' showed the heat to be there was a fine breeze from the North which made the day a pleasant one -- they say the Church is really pretty I was testyful -- Ann T. L. covered the Chancel Floor -- Mrs. Harris gave a beautiful Bp. Chan, so that all looked in order so the scene was very beautiful -- Our Bp. Com. Noble Bp. and 10 Presbyters in their Priestly garments who alternately officiated in the Services -- 2 young girls confirmed & then a sermon fr wth no superlatives is found strong enough! -- a vast crowd (of our kindred & friends very many) not only from I A -- but persons from Talbott -- among them on N. Grove grounds -- Anne Emory and John L Daughters around him -- Frederick at his side once more -- At the Girls say she seems & has been -- the sorrows & troubles of the past year have done their work I know -- how I wish you & F & A -- could have been at the consecration -- -- Wm. Lloyd Hensley, all of the Name who were present -- I am sure you remember Stephen Pease (the husband of Rachel of C. F.) He had been rector so long as the Church was used for service & <sup>has</sup> watched over it in its ruin & degradation with faithful care -- so faithful that the Bp. spoke of it in his sermon -- Stephen is happy beyond words in resuming his duty as rector in the old Church repaired & beautified -- Rachel is dead & Old Poll who years ago made the
