

William Baker

April 16th 1838-

This closes an old Exp.
which I have been unable to pay by the liberal condence of Mr Baker and for which I shall ever feel grateful to him

Im Silbman

The image shows a page of handwritten cursive script, likely a letter or document. The handwriting is fluid and characteristic of the 18th or 19th century. The text is written on aged, slightly discolored paper. The script is dense and fills most of the page, with some lines appearing to be part of a larger, more complex structure, possibly a signature or a heading. The ink is dark, and the paper has a warm, yellowish-brown tone.
