

ted in december last were paid to you. Mr. Robinson and you are entitled under Judge Eccleston's decision, to the further sum of $39.33 in payment of the remainder due from the State for attorney's commissions on money collected and paid into the Treasury on account of George Shirley, which said amount is now subject to your joint order.
Having mistaken the time for the session of your Court Strom's account was not sent out early enough for omit at your late <sup>or present</sup> term, I deemed it advisable however even after I discovered my mistake to let you have it under the circumstances. You will please acknowledge the receipt thereof. I am gratified to learn that Judge Eccleston's decision is satisfactory.

Very respectfully
yours etc,
W. P. Farnell
Comptroller

Lloyd Fishman Esq.
Platte's atty.
Breckenridge Co
Centerville
Mo.