

Telfmans
re.
Telfmans Exor.

Abstract of separate Accounts of
B. B. B. J.

Admits the Will but asserts that it contains other matters than those referred to in the Will, especially that which changes the estate of the Testator with debts, as well as legacies -

Admits the death of Testator &c. & that the Dft. has pro-ved the Will, collected debts, & sold estates -

Admits death of W. B. Telfmans at the time mentioned in the Will, and that the executor is the same Ann Telf-
-man mentioned in the Will of W. B.

Refers to Acts of Exor. settled in Registers Office
Copies of which are annexed -

Denies that personal estate & Money rec<sup>d</sup>. from Sale of Real property are more than sufficient to pay debts, funeral expenses, & legacies -

Denies that Dft. ever refused to account and refers to Act. in Registers Office -

Asserts the existence of a heavy debt due to him from Testator, which justifies appropriation of funds.
As its discharge -

He then states that previously to the marriage of the Dft. with E. M. B. Telfmans, my chief of ~~testator~~ the terms and conditions of the marriage were treated of between Testator, Dft. & B. B. B. his father whereby it was mutually agreed that the latter sh<sup>d</sup>. give to the
