

Chertsey 8 Feb'y '38

Dear Sir I have before me v. s of 3^o.
Inc! with a check for the balance of G. W. Williamson's judgment vs you statement. You have varied from mine, no doubt in the idea that yours was the correct mode. By reference to a decision at the close of Mr. Harris & Johnson's reports you will find that the proper mode is, (as is done in my statement) to take the costs out of the first payment after the costs accrued. It is here of very small amount and I should not have mentioned it except that as I find you the skeleton of a statement