

Please send me Mr Cummings' direction,
Baltimore

April 30th 1889

Dear Lloyd,

Mr Israel saw Mr Wallace yesterday, and he is very impatient at the delay, with regard to the Delaware Land, and said if I did not proceed immediately, he should file a Bill, for the sale of said Lands, I suppose I suppose he means to effect a provision for Anna.

You will please get those papers ready, you spoke of, and send them, with the check I signed, to him at once. It is to be regretted you did not see him, while you were in the City. Why did you not bring the papers, and make a statement here? The Patterson, or Barroll case, would have been settled, and had Mr Johnston got his portion of
