

Wye, Monday

Dear John

A Thousand Thanks for the information your active friendship obtained for me yesterday, and which was balm to my lacerated heart. For your consideration, and kindness in all the arrangements contained in your letter, I am truly grateful. I wish to know if you still advise, an application for Mr Bullitt's opinion. I have only time to add your letter was in time, for breaking the subject to Mrs Fara. Oh, I feel I
