

OFFICE OF H. V. & H. W. POOR,

GENERAL RAILROAD COMMISSION MERCHANTS, &C.,

No. 54 WILLIAM STREET,

Lloyd T. Lohman Esq
Kent, Queen Anne's Co. New York, February 29 1867

Dear Sir;

I am about publishing a "Manual of the Railroads of the United States" and find myself without necessary information concerning your line. To enable me to obtain the same will you have the extreme kindness to cause the enclosed Blank to be filled out and returned to me at an early date.

I enclose some proof sheet to show you the use I intend to make of any information you may be pleased to impart. The work will be of a nature and scope never before attempted - giving an exhaustive financial and historical exhibit of every road in the Country.

It will be an Annual and will prove I am confident, of great value. The labor of its compilation is immense and to assist me therein I have hopes that your courtesy will extend to giving this matter an early attention.

and oblige very respectfully

H. V. & H. W. Poor
