Dear Lloyd

Cousin Tilghman
Hollyday wishes to loan J. O. Rolph two thousand dollars on first mortgage. He Rolph to pay you for drawing mortgage and every expense connected with the ~~expense~~ loan. Of course the loan will not be made unless you write to say all is perfectly correct for Mr. Hollyday. Rolph to give twelve per cent six per cent always in advance every six months, to get the accommodation for two years. He Rolph to take my note with you on it as security in part pay for the loan. I will write more fully by Saturday's mail
